Students, Attention!

Rare Chance to Secure a College Education.

We have made arrangements that enable us to place within the reach of a limited number of deserving students opportunities for securing, on easy terms, a classical or commercial education. A little work during the vacation season will secure this for the one worthily striving for such a boon, but who may not be in possession of sufficient money to realize his heart's desire. The facilities at our disposal enable us to offer a year's board and tuition at

St. Dunstan's College

to any three young men who will fulfill the necessary, easy conditions required. These may be beginners, or former students of the College who have not been able to complete their course. In addition to this we have at our disposal four scholarships at the

Union Commercial College

of Charlottetown. A full course in this excellent Commercial College may be won by any four young men or women, in town or country, who will fulfill the easy conditions we require. Whenever anyone satisfies the requirements in either of the cases enumerated he or she will be given a certificate entitling the holder to the educational advantages offered. A rare opportunity is here placed within reach of those desirous of acquiring a good education, and no time should be lost in taking advantage thereof. Only a little work is required in order to secure the coveted boon, and all can easily be accomplished during this summer's vacation, so that the winners may enter either college at the opening of the next academic year.

For particulars apply in person or by letter to the editor of the HERALD, P. O. Box 1288, Charlottetown, P. E. I.

Made to Measure.

Many who have their suits made to order have an idea that they can get what they want in a Ready-made Overcoat. But they are quite as objectionable as ready-made suits and show at a glance the lack of style and fit. We incorporate the very latest style ideas in our tailoring, and by only the best materials, which is a guarantee in itself. Before you buy a new overcoat give us a chance to show our new overcoats and talk things over with you.

Death of Bishop Stang.

(Special Heart Review.)

The death on February 20, in St. Mary's Hospital, Rochester, Minn., of the Right Rev. William Stang, D. D., of Fall River, removed from the hierarchy of the United States a man of unusual gifts and of great promise. Bishop Stang went to Rochester, Jan. 20, to have a tumor removed by Dr. William Mayo. The operation was a delicate one and little hope was held out to the bishop for his recovery. He decided, nevertheless, to have the operation performed, and it was done Jan. 21. After the operation there were hopes that he might rally, but he died Feb. 21. The body was taken to Fall River, passing through Boston, where it was met and received by a delegation of about 100 Fall River Catholics representing the several Catholic societies of that city. A special train bore the remains of the beloved bishop and their escort to Fall River. There a procession of three thousand members of Catholic organizations followed the body through the streets in solemn and silent procession to St. Mary's pro-cathedral. No music of any sort accompanied the march. Business along the route of the procession was, practically, suspended; even the theatres and other places of amusement delaying the opening of performances until after the cortege had passed.

BRIEF RECORD OF HIS LIFE.
Bishop Stang, first bishop of the diocese of Fall River, was born in the German province of Baden-Baden in 1854, and received his early education in the German schools. His course in theology, philosophy and letters was completed at the Catholic Seminary in Louvain, near Brussels in Belgium. There he was ordained as a missionary priest in 1875, and served as a teacher in the University of Louvain for a while. In 1879 he was received into the Providence diocese under the late Bishop Hendricksen, his first work being at St. Peter and Paul's Cathedral, where he remained until 1884, when he was appointed pastor of St. Anne's Church, at Cranston, R. I. He returned to Providence in 1888, and was again stationed at St. Peter and Paul's Cathedral, this time as the chancellor to Bishop Harkins, which office he held up to the time of his consecration as bishop of the diocese of Fall River in 1904.

THE BURIAL OF THE BISHOP.
On Wednesday morning the funeral of the Bishop was held from St. Mary's pro-cathedral. Pontifical high Mass of requiem was celebrated by the Right Rev. Mathew Harkins, D. D., Bishop of Providence, with Very Rev. Monsignor Hugh J. Smyth of New Bedford as assistant priest, the Rev. Charles P. Gaboury of New Bedford, deacon, Rev. Matthias McCabe, P. R. of Fall River as sub-deacon, and the Revs. Morimor Downing and P. E. McGee of Fall River, masters of ceremonies. Hundreds of the clergy of all dioceses, and thousands of the laity gathered to pay their last respects to the deceased. Business throughout the city was generally suspended during the funeral services. At the conclusion of the Mass the Rev. James Coyle of Tanton, who had preached a learned and eloquent sermon at Bishop Stang's consecration, delivered a most touching eulogy.

CHURCH AND STATE LOSS BY HIS DEATH.
The character of the late bishop of Fall River is well set forth in the following words spoken of him by the Rev. John W. McCarthy of St. Mary's Church, North Attleboro, last Sunday morning: "He was a man of most gracious qualities of mind and heart, courteous, kind and generous, with the stronger elements of courage, tact and zeal. His intelligence was quick, his humanity broad and his mastery skill was given to the upbuilding of the Church on the wide foundations of Christian education. The Church is not alone a loser in his early death; he was a good citizen; and the State of Massachusetts, irrespective of creed, shares with us today the feeling of sadness and bereavement which has fallen upon the people of this new diocese of Fall River."

Lent.
Lent is a time of fasting and abstinence instituted by the Church from her very beginning as an appropriate preparation for the great feast of Easter. Fasting and abstinence have always been regarded as a necessary preparation for the reception of great divine favors. Moses, for instance, to fit himself for receiving the law from God on Mount Sinai, fasted forty days; the prophet Elias also fasted the same length of time to prepare himself to behold the passing of the Lord on Mount Horeb. The old Testament abounds in passages wherein fasting is prescribed for obtaining the forgiveness of sin. When Jonas preached in Nineveh, threatening its destruction because of the sins of its people, a general fast was proclaimed, and all the inhabitants joined in it to avert the impending punishment and to obtain mercy. "Be ye converted to Me," says God through His prophet, "with all your heart in fasting, in weeping and in mourning" (Joel ii: 12).

The Church wishes all her children to reap at Easter the fruits of the Redemption and to rise to a new life of grace. She, therefore, prescribes fasting during Lent as a means of securing the pardon of our sins, of drawing down upon us the divine favor and of worthily receiving Holy Communion—the pledge of a glorious resurrection and of life eternal. Holy Communion unites us individually to Jesus Christ, makes us live by His life, and thus imparts to us the fruits of the Redemption—the forgiveness of sins, holiness of soul and a right to heaven and its joys. Speaking of Lent, Benedict XIV., in his letter of March 30, 1701, says: "The observance of Lent is the very badge of Christian warfare. We thereby show that we are not the enemies of the cross of Christ; we thereby turn away from ourselves the scourges of divine justice and acquire strength against the prince of darkness, for it secures for us help from heaven. Were mankind to relax in the Lenten observance, it would prove detrimental to the divine glory, disgraceful to the Christian religion and dangerous to Christian souls. Such negligence would result in misery to the world, in public calamities and private woes."—From "The Holy Season of Lent."

Items of Interest.
At a meeting held, recently, in Butte, Mont., to protest against French injustice to the Church, Bishop Carroll presided. The assembly represented various creeds and races. One of the speakers, the Rev. S. C. Clarkson declared that every honest man protested against the confiscation of the property of the Church by the French Government. "Let honesty, justice and fraternity be meted out," he demanded, "and let American principles be practised so that every man worship God according to the dictates of his conscience." As a result of the meeting, a committee composed of the Mayor, a judge, several clergymen, Catholic, and Protestant, and prominent professional men, was appointed to draft a set of resolutions of protest, copies of which have been sent to the Pope, President Fallieres, the French ambassador at Washington and the American ambassador at Paris. How many Protestant ministers in Boston have opened their mouths against the French injustice? But let us wait a while. They may be getting up their courage, and it takes courage on the part of a Protestant minister to say a word for the Catholic Church, even yet, in this country. S. H. Revign.

In his Nineteenth Century article on "The Pope and France" Mr. Wilfrid Ward reminds his readers how the English press condemned the religious orders who left France, refused to seek authorization from the government, and praised those who made the required application to remain. This obedience, said the English journalists, would have their reward. The reward was that their application was refused and the information which they furnished the Government used against them. As Mr. Ward puts it: "The schedules drawn up by the orders as to their members and their property, demanded in their own interests, in order that they might have legal standing and protection, were employed as useful documents to ensure not a monk escaping not a farthing of his money from being saved." The English press has conveniently forgotten this, but Pius X has not, and he bases his opinion of the good faith of the French Government upon it.—Casket.

King Edward has decided to deliver the Victoria Crosses which would have been awarded to certain heroes of the Indian Mutiny had they lived, to their present representatives. One of these goes to the De Lisle family in the name of Eusebio Evarado Aloysius de Lisle who distinguished himself at the capture of Delhi. Evarado de Lisle was the second son of Ambrose Philippe de Lisle, who was almost the pioneer Victorian convert. Another son, Lieutenant Rudolph de Lisle R N fell in Egypt at Abu Khas—Casket.

Says the Rome correspondent of the Tablet: "Everybody knows in a general way that the students of Propaganda come from all parts of the world, civilized and uncivilized, but it is only when they hold what is called an 'Academia Polyglotta' that their universality is fully realized. They held an 'Academia Polyglotta' on Jan. in honor of Cardinal Gotti, at which students of Propaganda read pieces of poems, all of them original in the following languages: Hebrew, Norwegian, French, Esperanto, Arabic, Spanish, Hungarian, Gaelic, Kaffir, literary Chaldean, Basca (whatever that is), Danish Portuguese, Modern Greek, Syriac, German, Rumanian, Turkish, Zulu, Polish, Japanese, Chinese, English, Malabar, Armenian, Persian, vernacular Chaldean, Irish Gaelic, Afrikaner, Albanian, and Latin.

Over in London a committee has been formed to erect a suitable memorial to the late Mrs. Craigie ("John Oliver Hobbs"), whose intense devotion to the Catholic religion is a matter of common knowledge. The scheme includes amongst other things a scholarship for the study of modern English literature, to be given annually in London, and a similar scholarship in the United States, together with a plaque in marble or bronze to be placed in the University College London, where Mrs. Craigie has been a student.

English exchangers chronicle the death of a distinguished Catholic astronomer, Miss Agnes Mary Clerke, one of the few ladies who have been elected members of the Royal Astronomical Society. Miss Clerke's scientific knowledge was acknowledged by experts to be of the very highest value, and her works contain a masterly array of facts. An earnest Catholic, she took a good deal of interest in foreign missionary work.

"Those who remember the Townsend case, and the remarkable ability shown by the Marchioness Townsend in giving her evidence, will be interested to learn that the lady has become a Catholic," says the London "Catholic Times." "She commenced the study of the Catholic faith a little over a year ago, under the tuition of a popular Irish priest in London. The Marchioness, who is of a very serious turn of mind, is extremely well-read, and before taking the final step studied carefully the history, philosophy and dogmas of the Catholic Church. The Marquis has been quite passive in regard to his wife's step, leaving her free to do as she thought right."

The death has occurred of Padre Ballerini, S. J., "doyen" of the staff of "La Civiltà Cattolica," of Rome.

The Australian Catholic Truth Society is only two years in existence, yet it has already prepared and published over forty pamphlets, on subjects of very varied interest. The society has issued a prayer-book of which no fewer than 13,336 copies have been distributed.

The Catholic hierarchy in Japan at the present moment is composed of an Archbishop (at Tokio), three Bishops (at Nagasaki, Osaka and Hakodate) and a Perfect Apostolic (in the island of Shikoku). The four first, Mgrs. Magabure, Cousin, Ostron and Berlic, belong to the Society of Foreign Missions of Paris (the fifth, Rev. Father Alvarez, is Dominican).

A very interesting list has been published by the "Missioni Cattoliche," to wit, that of the Catholic missionaries who died at their posts during the course of the year 1905. They amount to 164, 13 Bishops and 153 priests—and just half of them are French, while nine others belong to the ex-French Diocese of Strasbourg. Of the rest, twenty-five are Italians, sixteen Belgians, eight Spaniards, four Irish, four Austrians, three English (probably Irish), three Germans, two Americans, and the rest split up among other countries. The list shows the extraordinary activity of the French nation in supplying the Catholic Church with missionaries for the evangelization of pagan lands.

According to an English correspondent in Rome, Very Rev. David Fleming, provincial of the English Franciscans, member of the Biblical Commission established by Leo XIII and consultant to the Holy Office, is at present in the Eternal City in connection with a very important document which the Holy Office has been preparing for the last two years, and which is shortly to be published. This document will take the form of a compilation of all the errors of the day, and will bear a striking resemblance to the syllabus published by Pope Pius IX.

THREE TRYING TIMES IN A WOMAN'S LIFE

There are three periods of a woman's life when she is in need of the heart strengthening, nerve toning, blood enriching action of

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

The first of these is when the young girl is entering the portals of womanhood. At this time she is very often pale, weak and nervous, and unless her health is built up and her system strengthened she may fall a prey to consumption or be a weak woman for life.

The second period is menarche. The change in the system is great and the system requires rebuilding. Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills supply the elements needed to do this.

The third period is "change of life" and this is the period when she is most liable to heart and nerve troubles. A tremendous change is taking place in the system, and it is at this time many chronic diseases manifest themselves. Fortify the heart and nerve system by the use of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and thus take over this dangerous period. Mrs. James King, Carverville, Ont., writes: "I have been troubled very much with heart trouble—the cause being to a great extent due to 'change of life.' I have been taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills for some time, and mean to continue doing so, for I can truthfully say they are the best remedy I have ever used for building up the system. You are at liberty to use this statement for the benefit of other sufferers." Price 50 cents per box, three boxes for $1.25, all dealers, or The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Minister.—So you go to school, do you, Bobby?
Bobby—Yes sir.
"Let me hear how you spell 'bread.'"
"The dictionary spells it with an 's,' Bobby."
"Yes, sir; but you didn't ask me how the dictionary spells it; you asked me how I spell it."

Beware Of Worms.

Don't let worms gnaw at the vitals of your children. Give them Dr. Low's Pleasant Worm Syrup and they'll soon be rid of these parasites. Price 50c.

Editor (to stranger).—We have all the manuscript we can find room for during the next six years, every page of which is furnished by the leading thinkers, essayists, historians, philosophers, journal—

Stranger.—But this is a page advertisement for mother-of-pearl soap.

Editor.—Ah, I see. Take a seat on the sofa, sir. We will try and find room for your copy by killing an essay or two.

Minard's Liniment Cures Distemper.

Milburn's Sterling Headache Powder gives women prompt relief from monthly pains and leave no bad after-effects whatever. Be sure you get Milburn's. Price 20 and 25 cents, all dealers.

"Making any money these days?" asked Bicks of the mill owner. "Hardly any," said the other. "We are beginning to realize the truth of the old saying that it takes ten mills to make a cent."

There is nothing harsh about Laxa Liver Pills. They cure Constipation, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, and Bilious Spells without griping, purging or sickening. Price 35c.

An Irish lawyer addressed the court as "Genetment" instead of "Your honor." After he had concluded a brother of the bar reminded him of his error. He immediately arose to apologize, thus: "May it please the court, in the heat of debate I called your honors genetment. It was a mistake, your honors."

Minard's Liniment cures Dandruff.

Dr. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP

Cures COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, HOARSENESS and all THROAT AND LUNG TROUBLES. Miss Florence E. Mallman, New Germany, N.S., writes:—I had a cold which left me with a very bad cough. I was afraid I was going into consumption. I was advised to try DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP. I had little faith in it, but before I had taken one bottle I began to feel better, and after the second I felt as well as ever. My cough has completely disappeared. PRICE 25 CENTS.
