Grey Defends Bryce.

SPECIAL TO EVENING TELEGRAM.
LONDON, To-Day.
Earl Grey, addressing the Canadian Club last night in defence of Ambassador Bryce against attacks in connection with reciprocity, described him as the unpaid Ambassador of the Canadian people. Canada, said Grey, would soon demand an Ambassador of her own if the British Ambassador failed to represent her views.

Australia in the Strand

SPECIAL EVENING TELEGRAM.
LONDON, To-Day.
Australia has acquired a magnificent site in the Strand at a cost of £64,000. On it will be placed a great building which will include Exhibition and the headquarters of the High Commissioners for all the Australian States. The net annual cost to the Commonwealth will be £11,000. The building will cost £250,000.

Rebels Lynched.

SPECIAL TO EVENING TELEGRAM.
MEXICO CITY, To-Day.
Excitement reigns in San Geronimo and Oaxaca in connection with the killing of Jose Gomez, the leader of the Mexican rebellion, who was lynched yesterday with eight followers. Those flocking to these cities are protesting their loyalty to Gomez.

The Portia Here.

The S. S. Portia, Capt. Thos. Fitzpatrick, arrived here at 8 a.m. to-day from the westward. After leaving here Saturday week the ship had it very stormy with gales of N.E. wind and thick snow and had to harbor over night in at least three places. Right up the coast until Bonne Bay was reached this weather prevailed. In fact it was worst than experienced during the mid winter storm last year. On the return run with little exception, the ship had fine weather and made good time down the coast. She brought a half cargo of fish, oil, etc., and her passengers were: Messrs. Burke, Campbell, Brazil, Costello, Williams, Johnson, Fowling, Walsh; Mesdames Hart, Coady, Cullen, Dawson, O'Toole, O'Leary, Winsor, Keefe; Misses Kennedy, Fowling, Lawlor, Quinn and Murphy and 125 steerage.

Restfulness of a Good Book.

A woman fond of books, or to speak more correctly, who used to be fond of books, was complaining one day that she had absolutely no time to read, and that her life was dull and colorless in consequence. A friend tried to persuade her to let other things go for half an hour a day, and spend that period with one of her favorite authors, assuring her that there would be a gain in ability to work as a result. The advice was heeded. The woman in question made the effort to have the little heaven of intellect in the daily routine, and the aspect of things so far as she was concerned, was wonderfully changed.

Would Tear Up Treaty

SPECIAL TO EVENING TELEGRAM.
NEW YORK, To-Day.
The abrogation of the Treaty of friendly relations between the States and Russia, made in 1832, was urged in speeches delivered by men of national prominence in resolutions adopted at a mass meeting last night under the auspices of the National Citizens' Committee, which plans a series of similar demonstrations throughout the country next month, in protest against discrimination by Russia in her refusal for many years to honor the passports of Jewish American citizens.

Want Loan Business.

SPECIAL TO EVENING TELEGRAM.
LONDON, To-Day.
The Peking Correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says a secret agreement exists between Russia and Japan by which these two Powers agree to demand as an inalienable right a 60 per cent. participation in all future loans north of the Great Wall.

Wedding Bells.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Mary's Church, South Side, this afternoon when Mr. Herbert A. Crossman, chief steward of the s.s. Portia, was united in Hymen's Bonds to Miss Georgina Ebsary, daughter of Mr. Stephen Ebsary, of the South Side. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. H. Uphill. The bride, who was charmingly costumed, was given away by her father. The groom was assisted by his brother, M. F. Crossman, and his cousin, Mr. B. Crossman, while the bride was attended by her sisters, Misses Ella and Laura Ebsary. The happy couple were the recipients of many valuable presents from their numerous friends on the South Side and in St. John's proper. After the ceremony a reception was held at Smithville, after which the bride and groom left for Topsail on their honeymoon. The Telegram wishes the happy pair every happiness.

Train Notes.

The 8.45 train this morning took out Capt. Keene, Const. Quirk, Miss Dalry, Miss Cornick, Messrs. Hickey, Hoskins, Hanrahan, Squires, Long and 40 others.
The west bound express arrived at Port aux Basques at 2.50 a.m. to-day. The incoming express is due here at 6 p.m. to-day.
The local arrived sharp on time to-day bringing Mr. J. House, Mrs. House, R. D. McRae, ex-Magistrate Murray, Mr. Dawe, Miss Dawe, T. P. Connors, Rev. Canon Temple, Mrs. (Dr.) Hogan and 30 others.

The Reliability of a Gas Cooker.

Now one must admit that the reliability of a gas cooker is especially useful when one has no servant to take charge of daily dishes. Boiling water can be obtained in the shortest time imaginable, and this fact alone is of great importance both in sickness and in health. Everything keeps so beautifully hot on a gas cooker, and there is no fear of vitamin being spoilt through delay in the serving of a meal; and the dripping-pan, having been filled with boiling water, makes a splendid impromptu bath maids. Again, one of the greatest merits of gas, is that the arrangements of the household need not be upset as unexpected visitors arrive; a fresh brew of tea can be made in an incredibly short space of time, and the preparation of more substantial viands can soon be put in training. The old-fashioned range has a way of going out at times, but a gas cooker is always ready to give a warm welcome to any comer he never so late. One wonders how many doctors' bills have been saved by that hot soup, cocoa coffee, milk or some other refreshment that can be prepared immediately when a member of the community arrives cold and wet, after perhaps some hours' exposure to inclement weather. In case of sickness, no one can speak too highly of the invaluable help that the handy cooker gives; the nourishing little dairy meals can be served in the most appealing way, cooked to a perfection, and kept piping hot, even though delay may occur in the serving of them.

WRESTLING MATCH.—The second wrestling match under the auspices of St. Mary's Y. M. A. will take place on Wednesday, Dec. 20th, when "Kid" Keats of the Association will try conclusions with Frank Roberts, the well known athlete of the C. L. B. Young Olson has kindly consented to act as referee and no doubt the match will be a very exciting one, as both contestants have been training hard for the event.

DIED.
