

A Popular Plan as results already show

Many letters are arriving from widely-scattered sections of Canada and Newfoundland asking for copies of our Partial Payment Plan booklet. These bear out our belief from the start that the new plan would prove popular.

Some orders have been entered, but of course it's too early to expect more, as it's only during the past ten days that we have been sending out the booklet.

It is the strong interest as manifested in these letters that is especially gratifying, containing, as they do, assurances that our Partial Payment Plan is something the public really wanted.

Special to The Evening Telegram.
BOSTON, Sept. 5.
Bullfinch Place Unitarian Church, one of the oldest churches in the city, was gutted by fire early today, causing an estimated loss of $50,000.

LONDON, Sept. 5.
An audience brilliantly representative of artistic, literary and fashionable London, filled the Duke of York's Theatre last night to witness the first production of two new plays by J. M. Barrie. While he was slightly applauded by these, the gallery demonstrated by booing. The play marks Barrie's first failure.

LONDON, Sept. 5.
Viscount Haldane has sent a wireless despatch from the Lusitania to the Daily Mail, confirming the statement of Francis Rawle, chairman of his reception committee at New York, that Haldane's address before the American Bar Association at Montreal was an official pronouncement of the British Government's foreign policy.

LONDON, Sept. 5.
A Times despatch says Nanking has been despoiled by looting which for the most part could not be prevented.
Eight Japanese, carrying their national flag, fled towards their consulate. Some Government troops fired and two of the Japanese fell dead. The third who was wounded dying after he reached the consul-late. There is much anti-Japanese feeling among the Government forces and the Japanese flag hoisted over shops has been no protection.

MEXICO, Sept. 5.
Neither the American nor Mexican Foreign Office appears to share the optimism of Washington officials regarding an early solution of the difficulties between the two nations. At the Embassy here it was said no communication had been received from Mr. Lind in three days. Senior

Jerome Arrested

Special to Evening Telegram.
COASTCOCKE, Sept. 5.
William Travis Jerome, was arrested here to-day charged with gambling, on the complaint of Milford Aldridge, a citizen of Coastcocke who swears he had seen Jerome playing poker in public yesterday. Jerome was taken to the jail where Thaw was confined. Thaw's lawyers disclaimed any knowledge of the arrest. The belief prevails that it was due to ill-feeling among the townspeople who resented Jerome's presence. Thaw was withdrawn almost immediately. The Board adjourned suddenly. It was reported that a decision had been reached. The arrest of Thaw two weeks ago by Constable Boudreau has stirred up a small tumult in Coastcocke. A small number of the town council took umbrage at Boudreau's action and have demanded that he be asked to resign. The remainder of the Council refused, and it is understood that several Aldermanic resignations are pending.

Ferry Service.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Mr. Editor—Last fall the so-called Government thought they would try to gain a few supporters by placing a ferry service on the harbour to run from North to South Side. The ferry was running a few months and out of that time it was a real humber and a hindrance instead of a convenience. You may be on either pier waiting for the time to take passage by the ferry and would try to control your patience to wait for a half hour or so after the time set forth for the ferry to sail, and after waiting for so long a period you would have to start and use your own personal force (your feet). On or about the first of this year this ferry was, we understand, accidentally destroyed, and according to the papers was to be replaced within a few weeks after the accident, and it was only the other day it was replaced, and since it has been replaced it is a worse fiasco and a worse event than the first one was. The present ferry was, we understand, a boat cast aside by some party as being of practically no use, and the Gov-
their credit thought it was just as well to dispose of the little boat. The ferry was running a few weeks and was remaining and they hired or purchased this boat; but anyway wherever they got her or however they got her she is of no use. The ferry is she is at present engaged in. But this is only another specimen of their good judgment and doing good for the people, and I can see what a disaster is ahead of this Government next November.

Walt, good people, and see what the Liberal and Union Party will do in after November, and I feel assured that we will have no room to complain as we have at present, but we will be able to praise the good work of the Liberal Government and they will give us a better service than we have at present.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for space, I remain,
Yours truly,
EYE WITNESS.

Obituary.

CAPT. THOMAS SPRACKLIN.
The death occurred yesterday of Capt. Thomas Spracklin, of Brigus, who has been dangerously ill for quite a while past. Capt. Spracklin suffered from an internal disease, and coming to St. John's the best possible medical treatment was available of him. He went to St. Anthony in June last when it was feared that he was suffering from cancer. The deceased was in his 62nd year and was a man of the time of his death and was a man who was well liked and highly respected by all who knew him. Capt. Tom had few enemies and had hosts of friends. A widow, two sons and four daughters mourn the loss of a kind husband and father. To them The Evening Telegram extends its sincere sympathy.

Two Lectures Sunday.

Pastor A. H. Macmillan, of New York City will deliver two lectures in the British Hall to-morrow (Sunday) afternoon and evening, Sept. 7th. The topic for the afternoon is How Shall the Heathen be Saved?
Mr. Macmillan says that the Bible does not teach that the heathen will be saved because they are ignorant, therefore ninety thousand who die every twenty-four hours are not saved in ignorance, but he claims that it would not be just to condemn without giving them a chance to be saved.
This apparently contradictory situation he says he will clear up, and show a loving and just and reasonable plan for those who have already died, and are still dying in ignorance.
The topic for the evening lecture, which begins at eight o'clock, is Where Are the Dead? This subject should appeal to everyone, for all have friends and relatives who have been dead for some time. The lecturer is dead to-day, those living to-day will be dead to-morrow. Where are they? Will the waiting child and the loving parent be forever parted?
Will we know our dear ones when we meet beyond? These and other questions teachers for an answer we are generally always disappointed.
Mr. Macmillan says that he will answer these and other perplexing questions in this lecture, and that he will give chapter and verse from the Bible to prove every point.
Come and bring your friends. No collection, seats free.

Grand Falls Win.

Yesterday at Grand Falls the fourth game of the Inter-town series was played and the Inland City beat St.
John's by the narrow margin of 1 run. This makes a tie between the teams who again to-day will try conclusions. The Bell Islanders must play Grand Falls and St. John's and will likely be here Wednesday to do so. Your patience to wait for a half hour or so after the time set forth for the
year this ferry was, we understand,
in a few weeks after the accident, and
judgment and doing good for the peo-

The Undaunted Man

I met a Kansas granger whose corn crop was in danger from drouth and roasted wind; it was enough to make him disconsolate and break him, and still the farmer grinned.
He looked across acres, all doomed by weather fakers who got the climate mixed; he watched the dust clouds swirling, he saw the corn leaves curling, he looked the rows betwixt; he said: "It's gone, I reckon; it's shriveled up by heck, an' it won't produce an ear; of course, it's mighty grievous; such things will always peeve us—but better luck next year!" His spirit wasn't humbled, he neither groaned nor grumbled nor cast away his tools; misfortune round him bristled, but cheerily he whistled and manured his mules. How many are undaunted when good things they have wanted like bubbles disappear? How many grin at sorrow and look toward tomorrow and better luck next year? That farmer, in the future, when you, disgruntled, tout your loud trumpet of despair, will have all kinds of money, his days will all be sunny, and diamonds he will wear. For fortune always favours the man who never wavers under affliction and says, with grateful dignity, "Well, better luck next year!"
—Oscar Maas.

Bad Reports.

The Invermore report from Labrador is anything but encouraging.
Practically nothing has been done south of Hopetown and from that place to Cape Muford the catch is very poor. Further north the floaters are doing well, and some of the setters have done fairly with their traps. A few days ago a number of schooners were met with coming south with poor fares. Capt. Blah-op and Roberts of Westville were met returning with full cargoes.
Some foreign vessels are on the coast awaiting cargoes. They are not as numerous as in former years.
A black or dark blue gown is brightened with the Arab sash, woven with white lines of somewhat crude shades into a kind of gold tissue. It is knotted in front and falls a few centimeters over the skirt toward the hem.

GOOD ADVICE.

It is necessary to always have a bottle of good Brandy at hand.

What Brandy will you buy?
The Medicinal Brandy "Sanator" is not a properly so-called medicine, but it has been selected from amongst the best known brandy for their effective principles, and it is distilled so as to develop its tonic and digestive qualities. It is really the FAMILY BRANDY, which name the public has, for a long time, bestowed on it.

The celebrated French physician, DR.
PHARZELLE, Inspector-in-chief of the Great Medical Services, says: "The medicinal Brandy "Sanator" is eminently an easy digestive drink, remarkable for its tonifying and reinvigorating properties."

Ask for Medicinal Brandy Sanator from your liquor dealer; he has it.

DIRECTIONS.

Against weakness and bad digestion: a liquor glass at each meal.
Against Cold, Influenza: take as a hot drink, viz: one wine and a half of Brandy, one ounce of hot water, with a little sugar.
Against summer complaints: use with chopped ice, or cold water.

Cognac (France).

PEKING, To-day.
Despatches received here from Nanking report that the Northern armies completely sacked the city, looting and other excesses lasted three days. The soldiers visited the American consulate and demanded money, but Mrs. Gilbert, wife of the Vice-Consul, during the absence of her husband, pluckily talked the men out of their design, reminding them that Americans were their friends.
The fall of Nanking to Northern soldiers marked the close of the rebel-

McMurdo's Store News.

SATURDAY, Sept. 6, 1913.
Blue Jay Corn Plasters are still in great demand. One of the reasons is that this plaster combines the virtues of the ordinary corn cure with that of the corn plaster. These plasters are very effective in granting relief to those troubled with corns or similar excrescences.
Price 15 and 25 cents a pk.
Fine Tree Lozenges are the thing to employ for sudden colds, hoarseness resulting from sudden changes in the weather and incipient coughs.
A good thing to have in the pocket as the nights become cool. Price 25 cents a box.
