THE EVENING TELEGRAM, ST. JOHN'S, NEWFOUNDLAND, MARCH 26, 1915-2

"I do care for you," said Kelpie

"Never mind about what I've don

"My sweet," she went on, with ouching pathos, "do you know you never yet kissed me of your own ac

for you: I want you to love me be cause I'm your mother, and you're n

cwn darling child.

cord?"

appiest woman in the world

GILLETTS CLEANS-DISINFECTS

rtfully.

Aubrey's Revenge.

CHAPTER XXIII.

And she looked so pretty with he pink cheeks and wind-blown hair and her eves were so bright, and he ortlandt, "we haven't but half an laughter so sweet, that Mrs. va Cortlandt kissed her rapturously anxious to have a little talk with you and declared that she could not find before I introduce you to my friends. it in her heart to scold her after all "You're going to tell me how to be-"You're a naughty child," she said have myself, of course," said Kelpie

"But run away to your room and let Kitty make you as pretty as possi ble, and I'll try and forgive you."

Mrs van Cortlandt looked quite fond, admiring eves, "You know how distinguished and dignified in black velvet and costly old lace, with nevel a jewel but the flashing stones on he well-preserved hands and the diamond aigrette that held the beautiful puffs of soft-gray hair in place.

"Oh, a thousand thanks," said Kel-"Go now, my good Snapdragon, and ie flushing with pleasure. "Bu tell my daughter to come to me," don't forget that I don't even know said the lady, sinking into an armchair with a sigh of exhaustion. "We what a grand dinner means." shall have time for a little talk he "No matter, my dear," said the lafore dinner, after all." dy graciously, "you are too clever not to be able to do as other people do. "Oh, Snip and Snap, do go away and even if you make a blunder, you and let me alone?" she added, as tr are so charming that nobody will notwo little dogs came running in, with a jingle of silver bells, and, sitting tice it. So don't worry your dear little head, but come and sit here and up on their haunches, proceeded to lick their mistress' hands with two give me your attention. You may go, snapdragon, until I ring for you.", red little tongues "But wait one moment." she added.

"Shall I put the pests out, ma'am? demanded Snapdragon. "Certainly not," answered the lady promptly, "it would break their little hearts. You are such a cruel crea ture, Snapdragon." "That may be so, ma'am; but the Snapdragon shrugged her shoulders dogs are puttiing white spots on your and her yellow eyes glowed as she dress with their tongues, all the same left the room But if you say so, it's all right." "I do say so," answered her mis tress, with emphasis. "I won't have the little loves turned out, no matter what they do. Go and fetch the bonreap the whirlwind. However, it's no to-day." hon hox Snandragon or good looks," put in Snapdragon If Child Is Cross, Feverish And Sick "You flattering creature!" said her stress, well pleased. ook. Mother! If tongue is coated, Meanwhile Kelpie turned to the cleanse little bowels with "Calig mirror and gazed wonderingly fornia Syrup of Figs." the vision before her eves. Could hat radiant creature be herself? She Children love this "fruit laxative," lrew her breath with a happy sigh. and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely. the mlor deepening in her cheeks, A child simply will not stop playing and her eyes shining like stars as to empty the bowels, and the result she recalled all that had happened a is, they become tightly clogged with short time before. waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach

with a little toss of her pretty head

"You are quite mistaken, my weet." said the lady, looking up with ou wouldn't have suited me better.'

struck by a sudden thought. "Since verything has turned out so pleasantly, it seems a sin to punish poor

Aubrey. Go to her room, and tell her recall what I said, and give her per-nission to come down to dinner."

sours, then your little one becomes "Well, I'll kiss you now," said Kel "I wonder what Carroll Fitzhugh cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, will say when he finds that I am Mrs. pie, and, throwing her arms about sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, the lady's neck, she embraced her van Cortlandt's daughter?" she said system full of cold, has sore throat, tenderly. to herself, with a gleeful little laugh. stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, "Come my dear" put in Mrs. van

A moment later Mrs. van Cortlandt Nother! See if tongue is coated, ooking radiant with delight, and a then give a teaspoonful of "Califorleast a dozen years younger, went hour to spare, and I am particularly nia Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour down to the drawing-room, with her bile and undigested food passes out of beautiful young daughter on the system, and you have a well. rm. playful child again.

> Millions of mothers give "California CHAPTER XXIV. Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly Carroll Fitzhugh was not only late harmless: children love it, and it ut out of temper when he drove up ever fails to act on the stomach, livto the door of Mrs. van Cortlandt's r and bowels. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bot-elegant home. to behave yourself already, far better le of "California Syrup of Figs," "Everybody here, I presume?" he which has full directions for babies, han I can teach you. I wouldn't have aid to the footman, as he entered. children of all ages and for grownyou changed in any respect for the "Yes, sir, but dinner's been pu ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beworld. I believe I told you that if ware of counterfeits sold here. Get back half an hour." could have had you made to order the genuine, made by "California Fig "On my account, of course. Syrup Company." Refuse any other thought the young aristocrat. "Well kind with contempt. I'll be hanged if I cafe. I don't know what I was thinking of when I ac "Oh, he's daddy's assistant, and the cepted Mrs. van Cortlandt's invitaest friend I've got in the world." tion. What in thunder do I card

"Not a sweetheart. dear?" bout meeting her daughter? I can' Mrs. van Cortlandt put the question carelessly, but she watched the girl make up my mind to be glad or sor ry that Kelpie's here. I had quite dekeenly at the same time, and drew cided to let the little witch slide, but her own conclusions. the sight of her pretty face ha "Oh, no: no, indeed: Tom and I are warmed up the old coals afresh. I'v only good friends," was Kelpie's anbeen in love with her from the start wer; and at the moment she really see that plainly enough now, bu meant, or fancied she did, what she there are various reasons that make o confidently asserted. it impossible for me to make her m "That's all right," said the lady; "it wife, and she's not quite the sort of would never do for you to care for a girl a fellow, would dare -----" ellow like that."

The sudden opening of a door and "There's no better fellow in the the rustle of silken skirts broke in world than Tom." interrupted Kelpie upon this characteristic train of silver or stamps. thought, and caused the young mar "That may be," assented Mrs. van to pull himself together with a sharp Cortlandt, with a good-natured laugh. start.

"Aubrey, good heavens, you here?"

he fairly gaspepd, his face growing

(To be Continued.)

MASSATTA

Not only ofter, smoother, more satisfying

than any other, but distinguished by the

A NEW

AND

TOTALLY

DIFFERENT

TALCUM

POWDER

'All the same I can't have you fall-A young woman stood before him "What a fool my mistress is!" she ing in love with him, my dear, for the her hand extended, and a smile of said to herself, as she crossed the simple reason that I've already serecognition on her face. lected the man who is to be your fuhall. "She's sowing the wind now. "Why, my dear Carroll, this is and it won't be long before she'll ture husband. He will dine with us pleasant surprise," she said. "I had no thought of meeting you here." "How do you know he'll be willing

Lazells

L

AAS SATIAN

Call- ZELL

pale.

in Histo N REALEY MARCH 26. Days Past—84 To Com. BEETHOVEN died 1829, a Judged by many as the greate al composer. His compositi cknowledged by executive in the be the supreme test, inte and expression being as rechnical skill, in their i tation. Many of his grandest were composed after he had totally deaf. He is one of the st characters the world ha W. H. LECKY born 1838 historian and author of "His England in the eighteenth co CECIL RHODES died 1903 49. Acquiring a considera from diamond mines in So he entered political life the the Jameson Raid. By his left the bulk of his fortune founding of scholarships, dev an Imperial plan, at Ox There never was a great pless through Divine inspirat The City Charte LETTER FROM THE CH OF THE CITY COMMIS Editor Evening Telegram. Dear Sir,—I notice in last Herald a so-called synopsis Muncipal Board's suggestion City Charter. Permit me any such announcement Many of th premature. Many of the mentioned have not been of by the Board at all; others been decided on, and other orrectly stated. As soon as any annour the matter can be made done by the Board. In while I think it will be ad believe unauthorized ru Yours truly, W. G. G Obituary AGNES M. CAREL There passed peacefully Point Lance on the 16th i young life in the person tes M. Careen, daughter Catherine Careen. The n her sevententh year, ailing for about a year, time medical aid was s vain. During the last s illness, she was fortified of the Catholic Church O'Callaghan, P.P., St. her father, mother and one sister, the Telegra sincere sympathy in th Minard's Liniment Co., Lin Hake used MINARD'S for Croup; found nothing

$2.50

$2.90

$2.50

$9.50

$2.00

This Date

sure cure." CHAS. E.

Hawkshaw, N. B., Sept. 1st,

When the pets had retired into a corner with a sugarplum apiece, Keipiei was called in. "Well, mother-mine, how do you like me?" she said, with an airv little sweep of her gossamer skirts. Mrs. van Cortlandt lifted up her hands in amazed delight.

"You are perfect, my dear, simply perfect." she said, when she had recovered her breath. "He'll be certain to fall in love with you at first sight.' "Who'll be certain to fall in love with me, mother, dear?"

"Never mind; you'll find out in time! Snapdragon, I'll never ques tion your taste again." she added. "you've made your young lady perfect. My dear little daughter, look at yourself in the mirror yonder, and tell me if you ever saw anything more charming"

"Miss van Cortlandt's a beauty, but she can't get ahead of yourself, ma'am

The Brightest Women Find

sometimes that they are dull in mind, depressed in spirits, and that they have headache, backache, and sufferings that make life seem not worth living. But these conditions need be only temporary. They are usually caused by indigestion or biliousness and a few doses of lieve?"

hands.

Kelpie, regretfully.

will quickly, safely and certainly right the wrong. This famous family remedy tones the stomach, stir lates the liver, regulates the bowels. Beecham's Pills cleanse the system of accumulating poisons and purify the blood. Their beneficial action shows in brighter looks, clearer complexions, better feelings. Try them, and you also will find that they affair of mine. to marry me?" Kelpie demanded. "Miss Aubrey," she called, tapping "Never mind about that," replied n the door of the young lady's room the lady confidently. "Make yourself moment later, "my mistress recalls as charming as possible, and he'll be what she said to you, and gives you certain to fall in love with you at permission to go down to dinner." sight. Ah, there goes the front door "Say to your mistress, with my bell; our guests are already arriving. compliments, that she is very kind," We must go down at once. Are you answered Aubrey, with admirable quite ready?" self-control: but at the same moment her face grew livid, and she "Quite ready, ma'am," answered clutched her delicate hands together Kelpie, springing to her feet with airy grace, and shaking out her soft, in a fury of passion.

indignantly.

richly tinted skirts. "Mrs. van Cortlandt gives me her permission to go down to dinner." Mrs. van Cortlandt looked her over she said, in a sibilant whisper, when with a wistful light in her eves. the woman had gone. "Very well all "I am proud of you, my daughter," can do now is to avail myself of her she said, with a tremor in her voice. gracious kindness, but there is a day "If I could only believe that you care of reckoning close at hand." for me just a little. I should be the Meanwhile, never dreaming of the storm that was gathering in the dis-Sat tance. Mrs. van Cortlandt was leaning back amid the cushions of her 18 rmchair, while her so-called daughfac er occupied a low seat at her feet. "Now, my dear Kelpie," she was tion aying, "I have some very pleasant news to begin with. I'm an extremely ignorant old woman, in regard to matters of law, and I've been laboring under a misapprehension for the last year or two. I thought it was necessary for you to be twenty-one before you can claim your magnificent fortune, but my lawyers assure me that eighteen years is the limit and you are already nineteen, I be-"Not quite. I shall be nineteen the enth of December," answered Kelpie. Mrs. van Cortlandt clasped he "Only think, will you!" she cried. 'You might have claimed your millions a year ago, and been living the life of a grand lady, instead of being buried in that old lighthouse." "I was very happy with daddy and fom in the dear old lighthouse," said "Oh, to be sure, but you'll be a gerat deal happier with me. But who s Tom, pray?" CHASE & SANBORN The delicate wild-rose color in Kelpie's cheeks deepened to vivid crim son as she replied:

-Have this for breakfast tomorrow.

MONTREAL

Ask your Grocer

ê

Seal Brand delicious coffee

"Love's Labor Won." "Dorothy Harcour's Secret." "The Curse of Clifton," "To His Fate" "Nearest and Dearest." "The Lost Heir of Linlithgow." "Little Ned's Engagement." "The Rejected Bride." "The Struggle of a Soul." "For Woman's Love," "Ishmas" "India or the Pearl of Pearl River "Gertrude's Sacrifice." "A Beautiful Friend."

The Mystery of Raven Recht." The Unloved Wife."

"True Oriental Odor," a tragrance inimi table in its subtlety and charta. in addition to Massatta. we carry a complete line of Lazell's Famous Specialties, including the most exquisite Perfumes, delightful Tolles Waters superb Creams, and Powders of un-questionable excellence At all Druggiste, St. John's, NPd. Southworth LIBRARY 10c.; Postage Se. "The Degraded Daughter." 'Cruel as the Grave." 'Vivia or the Secret of Power." 'Vivia or the Secret of Power." "The Three Beauties." 'Only a Girl's Heart." "The Haunted Homestead." "Retribution," "A Husband's Devotion" "The Trail of the Serpent." "The Missing Bride." "The Fortune Seeker." "Victor's Triumph," "A Noble Lord "Self-Raised," "The Bridal Eve." "The Widow's Son." "Love's Labor Won." "Dorothy Harcourt's Secret." silver or stamps. Nise Address in full :--Name ...

P

1216

Me

We feel the values given will win favourable comment. We are preparing now for a special show at Easter, commencing Tuesday, March 30th. ROBERT TEMPLETON CLOTHES WITH STYLE AND INDIVIDUALITY. There is something to our custom garments which (Ala makes them look as if they belonged to the wearer. Not only the well selected materials, but also The Artistic Cut and the Thor ough Construction. make our suits stand out above all others for fit, finish and quality. CHAPLIN. The Store that Pleases.

Here and Th DIRECT SAILING .-Liner Gracian is set dow London direct for this por ANTOINETTE UNREPO The schr. Antoinette wa leave Potias about the year for Barbados to for this port. No word ing the former port or Gibraltar either. There anxiety felt about the ves LUMBERMEN'S SUBSCRI To-day we give a subscriptions frou the of the Anglo-American Co., to the Patriotic Fu men of the camps and contributed over $1,500, worthy of sincere congr their generosity "Cantbe Men's Negligee Shi with Hairline Stripes 70c. Week-end Price, West for Bargains. THE WEST END B mar26,2i 51 Wate FROM THE FRONT .-French of Hr. Grace, bro French of the Telegram eccipt of a field service his son Alexander, V Roval Highlanders of in France. Alexander from Harbor Grace f years, and when the teers came in August the employ of the Sun Co., at Montreal. He le Canadian Contingent in (Under the patrona, Grace the Archbishe The Rev. J. F. Cox deliver a Lecture in Theatre on Monday n p.m. As all the reso have been sold out, the ment announces that are available at 10 Doors open at 7.30 trance to these chairs office door. The T. attendance.—mar25,3 In making the circul wise to use a closely that will not sag.