Encouraging Statements in Regard to the College.

The Condition of the Congregationa Provident Fund. Interesting Statistics Presented by Rev C. E. Bolton-A Plea for the Denominational Organ-Address by Rev.

W. M. Barbour, of Montreal FRIDAY AFTERNOON. The session was devoted to the annual meeting of the Congregational College of Canada, with Rev. Geo. Cornish, LL.D., in Canada, with Kev. Geo. Cornish, LL.D., in the chair.

The report of the board of directors was read by the secretary, Rev. W. Henry Warriner. The past year, the report read, has been one of progress in different ways, the churches as a whole have taken a more active interest in the welfare of the institution, and, in spite of the fact of a further diminution in the grant from the Colonial Missionary Society, the finances of the college are in an encouraging condition. The report was very exhaustive, and in it the progress of the work of the college during the year was noted in detail, and the report was on the whole most encouraging.

The financial statement was presented and read by Mr. Thos. Moodie, treasurer. It covered the year ending May 31, 1893, and read as follows:

Montreal,

Messrs. J. B. Larmont and J. O. Richardson were reappointed auditors.

On motion of Mr. H. O'Hara, seconded by Rev. E. C. W. Mot'oll, a resolution of regret on the removal of Mr. C. R. Black and family from Montreal and his resignation of the effice of treasurer and trustee of the endowment fund was carried. The resolution was couched in very flattering terms, and cheerfully here testimony to Mr. Black's zeal, ability and regularity.

Another resolution was carried on motion of Mr. C. R. Black and Mr. A. Alexander, in which, whilst regretting that the pecuniary necessities of the Colonial Missionary Society had compelled it to cease its annual grant in aid of the funds of the college, they desired once more to record their grateful appreciation for past benefits.

It was again moved by Mr. C. R. Black, and seconded by Mr. A. Alexander, that this corporation has heard with marked pleasure of the self-denying generosity of the honored principal of the college (Rev. Wm. Barbour), in that, in order to relieve the present financial stress, he has spontaneously relinquished an important part of his annual stipend; and, whilst thankfully accepting his timely benevolence, they regret that the state of the funds was such as to suggest this course to him.

Principal Barbour replied feelingly and Messrs. J. B. Larmont and J. O. Rich-such as to suggest this course to him.

Principal Barbour replied feelingly and modestly.

A motion of thanks to the various churches for generous support to the college, and prayer by Rev. W. H. Warriner closed the meeting.

The 26th annual report of the Congregational Provident Fund Society was next read by the treasurer, Thomas Moodic, as follows:

The statistical sceretary, Rev. C. E.
Bolton, presented a very interesting report, covering as it did 66 churches. Seven pasters

had been removed from the ranks, but eight had stepped in to fill the vacancies. There was a slight increase in the return of members under pastoral care, but there was a slight decrease in membership, which was, however, turned into an increase by reports received since the commencement of the meetings. There were received into membership during the year 612, and they had lost by death 620, but returns were very inaccurate, and the speaker asked the ministers to improve in this respect. There was also a large reduction made by the revision of the membership list during the year. A very large number of letters of dismissal had also been granted to places in the United States. this respect. The financial part of the report was very encouraging, and some progress had been made in giving. Wingham and Vanocuver had made substantial progress—the latter exceeding last year's work by $3,00. The churches who had not reported were Winings; Bond Street. Toronto; Northern Church, Toronto; Emanuel Church, Montreal; Belwood Church, Parkdale, and many others. "Prayers answered? Yes, indeed; for God is love, and love never fails to answer when appealed to. What is a loveless unchristian civilization worth to a nation itself or the world at large? Love earns this character as an unfailing virtue from its uniform success."

Love, the speaker said, had never set out to save men who did not want to be saved. To save by force was not in the sphere of love. Indeed it was a contradiction of love. Indeed it was a contradiction of love. Why all were not saved by the infinite love of God was because God was infinite. The law was love and love was the law, and to save men and not save the the law, and to save men and not save the law is really to let love suffer a defeat. Love's immortality crowns it as an unfailing virtue. Other care defeat. Love's immortality crowns it as an unfailing virtue. Other care might fall and other forces become effete, but love never failed. If there was such tendency and such power in love, therein Christians might see wherein they sometimes failed, for they failed in an exact proportion as they were lacking in love. The doctor's address was intensely practical and was listened to attentively. He was heartly applauded on taking his seat. The benediction brought the day's proceedings to a close.

The doctor's address was intensely practical and was listened to attentively. He was heartily applauded on taking his seat. The benediction brought the day's proceedings to a close.

The usual prayer meeting at 6 o'clock was under the leadership of Rev. Charles Cushing, Montreal. At 10 o'clock Rev. Charles Duff, Toronto, presented the report of the committee on temperance appointed last year. During the past year the orusade against the use of intoxicating drinks had been carried on with unbated vigor. He marked with pleasure the fact that a plebiscite on the prohibition question would be taken at the next general election in Ontario. In Quebec the result had not been so encouraging. The Legislature there had declared that liquor containing 4 per cent. of alcohol to be non-intoxicating, and it was sold on Sundays and holidays. The report recommended that the Sunday schools and Christian Endeavor societies take apecial pains to bring the temperance question more clearly and forcibly to the fore.

The report was received and referred to the business committee. The dehate on union was then resumed, a report of which will be found in another column.
