Rest ores Health and Strength to Chronic Sufferers by a Mighty Subtle Force of Nature.

Startling Disclosures Relative to the Most Wonderful Power Known to Man -- Doctors Puzzled.

THE SICK HELPED FREE.

Professor Adkin Offers to Help the Sick and Afflicted Free of Cost--Hundreds Cured at Their Own Homes.

The Medical World has been startled by the wonderful cures effected by Prolessor Thomas F. Adkin, a distinguished scientist, who is devoting his life to the relief of suffering humanity. People in the last stages of consumption; men and women living in constant dread of death from Bright's disease, blood poisoning, cancer, dropsy, heart disease and other dangerous ailments have been restored to health by the treatment of this wonderful man, after every known remedy and scores of eminent specialists had been tried in vain.

Not in the history of Medical Science have so many startling cures been recorded. So marvelous has been his succorded. corded. So marvelous has been his success in healing all kinds of disease, that his patients call him a Miracle Healer, a man of supernatural powers, a physician with the key to the Fountain of Youth; yet Professor Adkin declares there is nothing wonderful about his billity to cure disease, and says that he cures simply because he "understands mature."

A reporter called upon Professor Adkin few weeks ago. He found a man of commanding figure, whose personality was masterful and refreshing. His eyes, though full of kindliness, seemed to penetrate one's very thoughts, while his every act and every word spoke of honesty and cosideration of others. He is clearly a man of wonderful force of character. He sald: "I cannot attempt to tell you what my treatment is, which I call Vitaopathy." In these days of quackery and fakes, every advance in science is imitated by a score of ignorant charlatans, who pretend to have mastered its details. Were I to attempt to explain to you for publication the practice of to you for publication the practice of Vitaopathy, without discussing its every phase, which I have not time to do, there would be a dozen unscrupulous persons pretending to understand its use before the publication has been out a week. Vitaopathy is not Christian Science, it is not Hypnotism nor Divine Healing. It is infinitely more thorough and farreaching than any of them.

"Vitaopathy is a subtle force of nature, regulating the intellectual and spiritual being which controls the physical man. It puts the system in a receptive condition, which enables the body to receive the full benefit of my Vitaopathic vegetable remedies which are used in combination with it bination with it. It is true that this new treatment is every day making wonderful cures. It has cured the blind, it has made the lame walk, it has cured various organic trou-bies, which had brought the sufferers to death's door. And here let me ask you to announce to all the readers of your paper, that I stand ready at any time to give the benefit of my experience to anyone who is in need of help. I will gladly make a regular diagnosis of the case of anyone who is in poor health, and I will prescribe a thorough course of home treatment free of cost, which I home treatment free of cost, which I positively guarantee to cure. Especially do I make this offer to those who are afflicted with dangerous disease, and have been treated by other methods without avail. If there are any who are in the grip of Consumption, Blood Poi-son, Bright's Disease, Chronic Kidney son, Bright's Disease, Chronic Kidney Disorder, Nervous Debility, Dropsy, Rheumatism, Heart Disease; if any of your readers are suffering from constant Headache. Professor Adkin showed the reporter scores of letters from doctors, clergymen, educators, college professors, lawyers and others high in life, have been cured by Vitaopathy, as well as letters from many men and women from all walks of life who have availed themselves of his free offer of help, and the reporter left with a strange feeling of encouragement, believing that he had met the most wonderful man of the age. The following are a few extracts from letters which the reporter examined per-

"I feel it a debt I owe to suffering humanity to make known what has been done for me. I had suffered for over forty years from catarrh of the throat, stomach and bowels. I coughed day and night. I was in continuous pain. I had tried so many kinds of treatment without benefit that I had given up all hope. By chance I learned of a woman whom had cured after the doctors had given her up to die, and I wrote for your free help. That was one month ago. Today I am a well woman. I cannot understand it. My friends are emazed. My family physician is puzzled. I wish I could go out and proclaim the virtues of your marvelous treatment from the housetops. You may use this letter s you please. I know my recommendation can only result in good."

"I cannot express my gratitude for what you have done for my wife. She was on her deathbed; she was paralyzed, and had a clot of blood on her brain.

Physicians said there was no hope that she could recover, but you have saved her life. She improved from the very first day she commenced your treatment. The clot of blood has disappeared, she leeps well, and has a splendid appetite. Refer any sufferers who doubt your mar-velous power to me or let them come to my home, and witness the wonderful cure you have performed in my wife's case. My neighbors all know the condition my wife was in when she commenced your treatment, and they were hourly expecting her death. I hope and pray that I may be at your command to help those who suffer and get them to write you for free help."

A MIRACLE-HEALER WHERE THE MEN CANNOT MARRY.

In the Land of the Ainos Women Are Far Too Few.

Not More Than One Man in Every Eight Can Engage in Matrimonial Lottery.

The Ainus, generally known to Americans and Europeans as "the hairy Ainos," are the only aboriginal people now living in Japan. They are called "hairy" in contradistinction to the smooth-faced Japanese, Koreans and Chinese. Their present home is in Hakaido, or Yezo, the most northerly part of the empire, although it is supposed that in earlier times they occupied most of the entire country. Ancestors of the Japanese of today found them in possession, and, by force of superior arms and civilization, gradually drove them to the north, much in the same way that the savages were driven back toward the Pacific by the early settlers

The Ainus live today pretty much as the Indians on their reservations in the West. They are still, for the most part, half savage, and the Japanese name for them, "Yezo," means barbarian. They are very skillful in hunting and fishing, which are their chief occupations. They are under the protection of the Imperial Government, and are entirely separated from the Japanese. The latest census showed that they number very nearly 17,000.

Among the many curious customs of the Ainus, perhaps the quaintest is their method of naming their children. They observe a peculiar economy in giving names. The infant must go without a name until it shows itself worthy of bearing one. If it is sickly and not likely to live, it is not considered worth while to waste a name upon it. As each child must, by immemorial custom, have a brand new name, used by no one in the commun ity, names are scarce and must be guarded. If the child should be given a name borne by some one else, the ghost of the former possessor of the name may come back from the underworld to avenge the insult.

It is customary to take a name from some incident that occurred at the child's birth, or it is left to the parents afterward to choose one for it. Should the infant come into the world with a smiling face it might be called "Ikishimatburu," which means a smile. Or fond parents may call it Mamoissage (a pulling rope of the gods), if they wish their child to be in the special care of the god.

From the age of 7 to 10 Ainu children of either sex have their heads shaved, but after 11 they are allowed to have long hair and wear the same clothes as grown persons. They wear no clothing unless the weather is very

The favorite and almost exclusive ornament is the earring, usually made of metal. What clothing is worn is made of straw. They never wear shoes or other covering for the feet a scent or other covering for the feet, except as a great luxury and mark of The men carry small knives and tobacco pouches, and the women carry small looking glasses and knives. The knife is used symbolically. The maiden Says Jones Was Forced Into Fake wears it with the blade bare, but when she marries it is worn in a sheath. The women also paint their faces, using a kind of ink for the purpose.

The Ainus live mostly by fishing and hunting. They hunt the bear and deer, catch salmon and other fish and grow potatoes and millet. Whenever can get it they eat rice, which they regard as the best of food, though they do not raise it themselves. Both sexes smoke tobacco and drink liquor. The marriage customs differ widely from those of the Japanese. The question is first settled between the youth and maiden, who then refer the matter to their parents through a mediator, who should be a relative of the prospective bridegroom. The man must send a present of lacquered ware, which is regarded by them as one of the most precious things in the world. This, however, is reclaimed by him if his wife afterwards seeks a divorce. Ainus live in dwellings of about the same class as those of the American Indians. The rude hut has two windows, one of them for ordinary earthly use, the other reserved for the entrance of the gods.

Woman is fairly treated, and held in deep respect. The man is not allowed to enter the house when the woman is in it alone, and he is not permitted to walk behind a woman. When a man meets a woman he must salute first, by smoothing his beard and rubbing his hands. Then she responds by touching her nose with a finger of her left hand.

During October the Ainus hold a re-ligious fete, which is called the Bear Festival, because they sacrifice a bear which has been carefully fostered for three years.

Judicial punishment among the Ainus consists of a severe beating with a stick administered to the culprit. The crimes are generally theft-stealing articles or the wife of a neighbor. there are eight men to one woman, the majority of the males are not married, and wife stealing is very common. The accused is subjected to a long examination by the chief of the munity, and is then compelled to resort to the ordeal of fire. He must take a stone out of boiling water. If innocent, the Ainus think he will not be injured. If the question cannot be settled in this way, the principals in the dispute must fight it out. The Ainus are polytheists, though they limit their gods to two—a god of fire and a god of water. The first is called Kabekaomi and the other Hatokamoi. They also, like most people who have a religious system, believe in some sort of heaven and hell.

A Simple Change.

The little daughter of the house watched the minister who was making a visit very closely, and finally sat down beside him and began to draw on her slate. "What are you doing?" asked the clergyman. "I'm making your picture," said the child.

The minister sat very still and the child worked away earnestly. Then she stopped and compared her work with the original, and shook her head. "I don't like it much," she said. "'Tain't a great deal like you. I guess I'll put a tail to it and call it a dog."

For a case of Rheumatism, Lame Back, General Weakness, Stomach Trouble of any kind, Torpid Liver, Weak Kidneys, Varicocele, Lumbago or any Chronic Trouble which my new Electric Belt will not help with ten days' use according to my directions. This offer is especially directed to physicians who have cases which show no improvement under drug treatment. I want to prove to every honest doctor that the day has come when drugs must be laid aside and Electricity, the grandest of all remedies, applied, in all nervous, organic and chronic troubles-Poctors do not, as a rule, recommend my Belt; some because they are prejudiced against anything new, some because they think my Belt is like the cheap, worthless affairs which are sold in drug stores and on the streets; and a great many others because they don't want to lose a patient. It is a certainty that a man using my Belt faithfully has no need of a doctor. My DR. McLAUGHLIN ELECTRIC BELT

CURES WEAK PEOPLE.

The energy that it pumps into the nerves of weak people turns despair into gladness; it fills the heart with exhilarating courage, warms the blood, develops the muscles and gives a feeling of youthful confidence. It has cured 10,000 people in the past three years. My success in curing and the enormous sale of my Electric Best are both due to the fact that I have made a science of applying electricity to the human body. The method that I use now, which is protected by patent, is the result of my 26 years' study. Electricity is useless unless you apply it right, and no electric belt is of any service unless it will give a current that you can feel without burning, that you can regulate, and that will last long enough to

These points expose the weakness of all other electric belts. I guarantee, on a bond of $5,000, that my Electric Belt is the strongest on earth and best made, and gives: a continuous current that you can feel and regulate, for one year, without a cent of expense for renewals. My Chamois Cushion Electrodes allow the current to enter the body in a soothing, gentle stream, without the burning and blistering known in old style belts.

My confidence in my method enables me to offer the Belt on trial, and one who can offer me reasonable security can use my Bekt at my risk and

PAY WHEN CURED.

I know no better way to prove my confidence in the wonderful curative power of my Belt than to cure you before I ask my pay. Can anything be fairer than that? MAKES YOU OVER—It beats the world for building up a person broken down from dissipation and negloct of the laws of nature. No matter what your trouble is you can be made better and stronger by using this wonderful Belt. It pours glowing vitality into the body, and that does wonder. Try it and save doctor bills and useless suffering. It cures Rheumatism, Back Pains and all wonder was broken.

READ MY BOOK—I have a book which every man should read (one for women also). It tells facts that are of interest to every man who wants to remain young it vitality at any age. Send for this book to-day if you can't call. I mail it, sealed, free. If you call I will give you a free test. Remember, my Belt does not burn, though you feel the current and can regulate it. I warrant it to give a streng current for years, though no one who uses it right needs it over three months. Cut this out and act to-day.

Confession.

Raved in Delium While Unconscious, Then Signed Alleged Copiession to Escape Further Torture.

New York, April 4.-Close on the heels of his contract marriage, Albert T. Patrick has sprung a fresh and startling sensation in the Rice murder mystery. Patrick stands convicted of the charge of conspiring with and inducing Charles F. Jones to murder William Marsh Rice, to get possession of the old man's millions. Patrick is fighting for a new trial, for as his case now stands he is doomed to death in the electric chair.

To further this object, Patrick declares Prosecutor Osborne and others conspired to scare Jones into accusing him by means of a flashlight ghost picture. This is the story Patrick tells in the Journal.

"I know the facts of which I speak They were determined to make Jones charge me with murder. "They began by giving out state
