TORONTO UNIVERSITY SECOND YEAR RESULTS

Clever London Students Continue Their Brilliant Record.

In the results of the second year, University of Toronto examinations, London students again did well, holding their own in every competition.
M. L. Adams heads the class in Trinity in classics, taking a good stand in this course.
Jack Althouse captured the Wellington Scholarship in classics at Trinity College, taking a fine percentage.
M. L. Waters adds to his long list of honors by taking the prize for French prose. The other students did well.
The list is as follows:
Commerce and finance—J. D. Gibson, first in second class honors.
Classics—S. M. Adams, second in second class honors.
Trinity—M. L. Waters, French prose prize.
