St. John, N. B., June 18 .- Miss Katherine E. Hazen, daughter of the Minister of Marine and Fisheries, was married this afternoon in St. Paul's mittee by adopting a report which was Episcopal Church, to Hugh MacKay, son of W. Malcolm MacKay, a prominent lumberman, and with whom he is associated in business.

It was a brilliant social event, as the bride is one of the leaders in local society. The Rev. E. D. Hooper per-formed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. A. W. Daniel.

There were 250 guests, besides many other friends present. The out-of-town guests included his lordship the Bishop of Fredericton, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Tibbits, of Ottawa;

Magistrate J. C. Judd, the presiding genius of the police court, is oftentimes called upon to decide what, in the technical language of the courts, are known as fine points of the law. This morning he was called on to render judgment on one of the finest of the fine points that has yet come to record. It was simple, too. All the magistrate has to decide is how much free booze should be alloted to each

Peter Boreserk was charged by Li-cense Inspector A. R. Galpin with having liquor for sale at 66 Maitland street, raided by the police on Saturday night. According to the evidence of the police, five half barrels of lager-two empty, one two-thirds empty, and the others full; 17 bottles of gin, 7 empty; 22 bottles of lager; one bottle of port wine, and one of whiskey, were found in the place.

It was contended by County Crown Attorney J. B. The sender of the explosive package must have been an expert in the use of explosives, too, and the mailing of the parcel so that it would reach the Bilodeau house around noon when the family, the husband, wife and five tablets he gave did not contain any children would all be gathered unch, is thought to indicate in addition to a fiendish desire to injure as many of the Bilodeau family as possible, an intimate knowledge of their habits.

Typewritten Package. The package, it has now been dis-overed, was addressed to A. O. Bilodeau, the label having been craftily written on a typewriter. The postman who delivered it is confident that it bore Canadian stamps.
