MARKET OVERSUPPLIED WITH DRESSED HOGS

Result a Drop in Price—Hay a Little Lower, With Other Prices Firm.

Dressed hogs dropped to $12.00 and $12.50, which was the highest price paid this morning. The demand was very slow and there was an over-supply. Other meats were rather scarce this morning, and the prices remained about the same as before.

Twenty-five loads of hay, following the big hay markets of the last few days, brought lower prices. $14.00 per ton was the highest price paid, and most loads sold for $12.00 and $13.00 per ton. The quality was poor, and has been for some time. Straw was in slow demand also, and the highest price paid this morning was $8.00 per ton, which was for the choicest wheat straw.

The supply of oats was rather scarce, but the prices remain as quoted. There is no change in wheat at $1.00 per bushel. Eggs continue at 30 cents per dozen wholesale, and were scarce this morning. Retail they brought 32 cents and 33 cents for single dozens.

Butter was also scarce, but sold at quoted prices. The supply is expected to increase shortly, when the price will drop.

Potatoes were cheaper this morning than for several days. Wholesale by the bag the price was 90 cents. Single bags brought 95 cents each.

A few crates of live poultry were offered, but prices are unchanged. The supply of hides was large, but they continued firm at prices quoted below:

Winnipeg, March 11.—Winnipeg opening prices were unchanged and the market held strong. It was difficult to locate any actual trade for the morning, though very probably some was working. Cash demand for certain quarters indicated this. There is a good demand from mills, also, though actual millmen are very chary of admitting it. It is known however that at a number of points, both in Manitoba and Saskatchewan mill elevators are far from a full. There was a miscalculation of the amount in farmers' hands and it has not been possible to secure the usual stock for summer.

Oats show a good steady demand, but holders do not seem keen on the trade, declaring prices are too low in view of the small amount still to come forward. The largest oat transaction for some weeks was put through a few days ago when a cargo of 350,000 bushels now afloat was sold for Buffalo delivery on opening of navigation.

Wheat receipts have again dropped very much below the figures of the corresponding date of last year and offerings are also very light.

Flax warmed up a bit. Winnipeg May flax opened 15c over Tuesday's close and held firm with a fair demand and at the close showed a gain of 15c on the option and 15c on cash flax.

Winnipeg wheat reacted at the close and after selling at 93 1/2c split closed at 94c under Tuesday for the May and 94c for July.

Receipts are large, though much below those of yesterday's inspections, being 298 cars inspected and 555 in sight.
