M'CARTY WINS TITLE OF WORLD'S CHAMPION
HEAVYWEIGHT BOXER

Missouri Cow Puncher Defeated Al. Palzer in 18th Round—Palzer Was Given a Bad Beating—Referee Eyeton Stopped the Bout and Declared McCarty the Winner.

Los Angeles, Jan. 1.—Speed and Severness won Luther McCarty the title of heavyweight champion of the world when he defeated Al Palzer in the Vernon Arena this afternoon. The fight was so one-sided that Charles Eyeton, referee, stopped it in the eighteenth round. McCarty, Palzer's curly-haired superior, was smiling and scarcely scratched when the fight ended. Palzer's eyes were almost closed, his mouth, nose, cheek and ears cut, and he presented a bloody and battered appearance. Only his capacity for standing punishment saved him from being knocked out, for McCarty landed on his jaw repeatedly.

McCarty, in addition to the championship, wins an attractive and remunerative theatrical engagement, a large purse and the diamond studded championship belt made to the order of Tom McCarty, the fight promoter, for presentation to the winner.

Vernon Arena seats 11,000 when filled to capacity, as it was today. Several thousand persons, unable to gain admittance, crowded around the entrances when the main event started about 3:30. The preliminary events were: Freddie Barrett vs. Jack Linkenback, welterweights, four rounds, draw; Eddie Gary vs. Sam Morris, featherweights, four rounds, draw; Danny Lyons vs. Jean Rand, bantamweights, four rounds, draw.

McCarty and Palzer did not shake hands when they went to the center of the ring for the first round. They began slugging immediately, McCarty landing the first blow, a light right hook to the jaw. The round ended with honors even and both men smiling and confident.

Fight by Rounds.
McCarty entered the ring at 2:54, after watching the last preliminary from a ringside seat. He was followed by Palzer within a few moments. Ringside betting appeared to favor McCarty, although offers of 10 to 3 were greedily accepted by Palzer's backers. Most of the heavy betting was at even money. Palzer's weight was announced at 227, and McCarty's 205.

Round 1—The fight started at 3:18. Palzer rushed McCarty and McCarty wallowed him with left and right to the head. McCarty drove a hard right to Palzer's eye. Palzer missed two hard rights and a left. McCarty ducked wild swings. Palzer reached McCarty's jaw with a hard right. Palzer staggered, but McCarty with a hard straight left to the chin. Palzer brought blood from McCarty's lip with another straight left. They clinched. As the bell rang Palzer stopped to shake hands with McCarty. The round ended even.

Round 2—McCarty landed a hard right to Palzer's jaw and forced Palzer to make several vicious swings. They exchanged rights to the head and hard body blows in a clinch. McCarty drove a terrific left to Palzer's left eye. Palzer reached McCarty's face with two lefts, and McCarty sent Palzer's head back with a left to the face. Both landed hard lefts to the face. McCarty brought blood from Palzer's nose with a right swing, and sent swift lefts and rights to the stomach. McCarty apparently landed at will on Palzer's stomach. McCarty's round.

Round 5—Both of Palzer's eyes were swollen when he came up in the fifth. McCarty drove a hard right to the ribs, sent right to chin and swung a hard right uppercut. Palzer drove a vicious right to McCarty's heart, and McCarty put lefts and rights to the face, causing Palzer's mouth and nose to bleed. Palzer drove a hard left to McCarty's chin, but the cowboy merely grinned. McCarty's round.

Round 6—Palzer put two straight to McCarty's face. McCarty swung his right to jaw, causing another flow of blood from Palzer's mouth. Palzer sent McCarty to McCarty, born at Lincoln, Neb., March 17, 1892.

Palzer, with two lefts to the face, put his ropes with a back smile. Palzer went to his corner looking groggy. McCarty's round.

Round 7—McCarty drove a terrific right to Palzer's jaw, nearly throwing him off his feet. Palzer reached McCarty's jaw with a left, and the Missouri came back with right hook to the chin. Palzer's left eye bled. Both were laughing as they went to their corners. It was McCarty's round.

Round 9—Palzer came up aggressively and put three lefts to McCarty's jaw. Palzer seemed to be slowing up. Three straight lefts, followed by a hard right, brought the blood from Palzer's eye. McCarty slipped to the mat, but was up in an instant. A straight left opened a slight cut under McCarty's right eye.

Round 12—McCarty sent a crashing left to Palzer's mouth and Palzer reeled stupidly. Both Palzer's cheeks and his mouth and right eye were bleeding profusely. Palzer did not land a blow during the round.

Round 13—Palzer reached McCarty's ribs with his long left, and the cowboy edged Palzer about the ring and sent his right and left at will to the face and body. Palzer hung on to McCarty's neck and the cowboy shot rights and lefts to the wind. Palzer was dazed at the bell.

Round 14—Palzer rushed in at McCarty, who placed rights and lefts to the body. Palzer soon was staggering about the ring from blows to the head. The lowman rallied and put his left to McCarty's face, and the cowboy again sent him back with well-placed blows to the stomach. Palzer was hanging on as the bell rang.

Round 16—Palzer put a left to the jaw and a right to stomach. McCarty edged Palzer about the ring and sent his right and left at will to the face and body. Palzer hung on to McCarty's neck and the cowboy shot rights and lefts to the wind. Palzer was dazed at the bell.

Round 17—Palzer rushed in at McCarty, who placed rights and lefts to the body. Palzer soon was staggering about the ring from blows to the head. DOINGS IN CITY HOCKEY CIRCLES

Frank Howson, who goalkeept for Askin Street Church and the Talbot Street Church teams last winter, will keep goal for the Perrin team in the manufacturers' league this winter according to reports.

The Empire Brass team speak well of the Sarnia Intermediates. The Swastikas hope to have one of the fastest independent teams in the city. They have decided to play all comers and will accept games with any team in Western Ontario outside of the O. H. A. All clubs wishing games kindly correspond with H. Aitken, 170 Bruce street, this city.

The Manufacturers' League opening, which was to have taken place this evening, will not take place until Tuesday, weather permitting. The opening games are as follows: Empire Brass vs. McCormicks.

The schedule will be moved ahead a week as a result of the postponement, so the final games will be played on Feb. 27 instead of Feb. 20, as originally scheduled.

Laurie Gillies, Eddie McKay, Billy McGeoch, and Albert Buchanan, all of the M. C. City League team, have signed O. H. A. certificates. Buchanan will play junior, while the others will play intermediate.

The Meds. have cancelled their Northern league circuit trip. Owing to the local season does to open on Friday evening and little prospect of any ice, local hockey fans are feeling kind of blue at present. However, there is a cold wave on the way and the game with Drumbo Friday night may yet be played.

BERLIN AND LONDON
PLAY A TIE GAME

Good Exhibition Between Intermediate Teams on Berlin Ice.

BORLAND WAS A STAR

London's Lineup Was Different From That Which Defeated Preston—Game Was Clean.

Berlin, Jan. 1.—Berlin and London O. H. A. intermediate teams played an exhibition game to a tie tonight before a crowd of 1,000. The score was 3 to 3, and at the resting period the score was 2 to 2. It was a fast game, considering the poor sheet of ice. The play was evenly divided, with the visitors excelling slightly in combination work. Two substitutes, Roschman and Schell, figured on the local line, and as a result the team was not up to strength. The same, however, was true of the visitors. Wright, the junior, taking Wardrop's place in the nets. Borland was the pick of the London line, and Schell, Solomon and Uggelman were the best for the Berliners. Oliver Selbert handled the game, and the play was clean throughout. The four penalties went to the visitors.

The teams:

Berlin started scoring after twelve minutes play, falling two in quick succession. Tecumsehs evened up before half time. Borland and Reid scoring.
In the second half the visitors gained a lead when McVoy scored. The locals saved themselves from defeat by Roschman scoring.

MIKE DONLIN IS NAMED TO SUCCEED RED DOOLIN

Former Member of Pirates May Lead Phillies When 1913
Season Opens.

Chicago, Dec. 31.—Mike Donlin, one of the best natural hitters the national game has produced, is slated to succeed Charley Doolin as manager of the Philadelphia National League club. If Secretary Will Locke, of the Pirates, puts through the deal which he is negotiating with Charles P. Taft, owner of the Quaker City team. This was the substance of a statement made by a friend of Donlin's last night.

Donlin, like many other diamond performers, spends the off-season behind the footlights. He is a member of the vaudeville team of Donlin and Lewis, the latter half of the sketch being a well-known comedy. The pair showed in Chicago a short time ago, and it was during this engagement that Mike hinted that he might be a National League manager when the 1913 campaign was started. Those who heard Donlin's declaration thought he was pulling off some of his comedy, but a few days afterward it became known that Fred Clarke, of the Pirates, had asked and secured waiver on the one great outfielder.

Later it was announced that the Phillies had landed Mike for the waiver price of $1,500, but at the time it was believed that Donlin was carded to be a pinch hitter only. It is well known that Mike's legs have been broken too many times to be a regular outfielder, and that his speed has also been retarded by an accident during the 1912 campaign, which resulted in a broken toe.

Today it was learned that Locke had parted with a big amount of coin for a two weeks' option on the Phillies, and as advice from Cincinnati indicate that Taft is favorably inclined toward Locke's proposition, it begins to look as if Donlin's legs will be in mind when he made known his managerial expectations some time ago.
