BABE RUTH'S CONDITION NOT-THOUGHT SERIOUS

Bernie Neis, Saskatoon Flash, Shows Up Well With Brooklyn Team.

Associated Press Despatch. New York, March 1.—Babe Ruth was the center of interest in the news from the major league training camps today and speculation was rife among the fans as to whether his sudden illness so early in the train-ing season meant that a "jinx" was on his trail this year. The famous star of the Yankees, who was stricken with an attack of influence with an attack of influenza, was reported, in despatches from Hot Springs, Ark., as "a pretty sick man," though it was declared his condition is not regarded as dangerous.
