McNally—Chapman

A most charming wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Chapman, Brockton, on Wednesday, June 24th, when their daughter, Annie Myrtle, became the bride of William James McNally, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. James McNally. Promptly at 11:30 the bride entered the parlor, leaning on the arm of her father, and took her place under an arch of evergreen and roses, where the groom was waiting. Rev. N. A. Campbell, pastor of the Inwood Presbyterian Church, read the marriage ceremony and Miss Gertrude Chapman, sister of the bride, played Logherin's wedding march. The bride was gowned in cream paillette silk, with lace and rhinestone trimming, and carried a bouquet of orange blossoms. After receiving congratulations and best wishes from the host of friends present all repaired to the dining-room where a dainty repast was served. The happy young couple left amid showers of rice and confetti by automobile, accompanied by a few of their friends for Watford, where they left on the 3 o'clock train for Niagara. Buffalo and other eastern points. Guests were present from Petrolia, Wyoming, Watford, Bothwell, Thamesville, and Florence. Gifts were both numerous and costly, showing the high esteem in which the young couple are held.

Napier Garden Party

Napier, June 27.—A large crowd assembled on Dr. Sawers' fine lawn last evening for the annual garden party of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church. Despite the threatening weather the gate receipts were the largest yet. The total amount taken in was $120. The grounds were beautifully lighted by electricity, which was a great comfort and pleasure to all concerned. The program consisted of selections by Eddie Pigott, of Toronto, the Imperial Quartet, London, the Highland Pipe Band, of London, and addresses by Rev. Mr. Kannawin, of Strathroy, Rev. Mr. Pharel, of Alvinston, and Rev. Mr. Esson, of this place. W. H. Sutherland, of Toronto, acted as chairman for the evening, and his witty remarks kept the audience in roars of laughter.

The hydro surveyors are working through the county.

A NERVOUS BREAKDOWN

Can Be Averted By Feeding the Starved Nerves With Rich, Red Blood

Nourish your nerves—that is the only way you can overcome life's worst misery, nervous exhaustion. The fits of depression and irritation, the prostrating headaches, the weakness and trembling of the legs, the unsteady hand and the imperfect digestion that mark the victim of nerve weakness, must end in nervous breakdown if neglected.

Nourish your nerves by the natural process of filling your veins with rich, red, health-giving blood. Your nerves are crying out for pure blood and the mission of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is to make new, rich blood. This explains why these pills have proved successful in so many cases of nervous disease that did not yield to ordinary treatment. For example, Mr. W. H. Weldon, Annapolis, N. S., says: "In the strenuous life I have to follow the drain on my system was so great that my nerves became shattered, the blood impoverished and my whole system undermined. I tried a number of so-called remedies without deriving any benefit. Finally having read so much about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I decided to try them. The result was beyond my expectation. I regained my energy; the blood and nerves were rebuilt; I lost the sense of constant tiredness I had felt and was filled with new life and energy. I have since used the pills with beneficial results in my family and will always have a word of praise for them."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills from any medicine dealer or by mail postpaid at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Death of Sam P. Morgan

The death occurred Friday in the Strathroy Hospital of Sam P. Morgan, of Kerwood. Mr. Morgan has been ailing for a long time, and his death was not unexpected. He is survived by his wife, three daughters and two sons: Mrs. Bert Oak, and Miss Gladys, both of Spokane, Wash.; Miss Olive and Richard, of Pincher Creek, Alta., and Lance, of Calgary, Alta. He also leaves one sister and one brother: Mrs. John Trueman, of Strathroy, and Richard Morgan, of London Township.

The funeral took place on Sunday at 2 o'clock, from the residence of his sister, Mrs. John Trueman, Maitland street, to the Strathroy Cemetery.

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bryson, London Road, on Wednesday, June 17, when their second daughter, Annie Dell, was united in marriage to John T. Dell, of Plympton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. Ross, of Wyoming.
