Mr. Campbell was not only an intrepid explorer and indefatigable traveller, but he was as well a man of deep, strong religious convictions, and to show his sympathy for the Indians of the Yukon Valley he in his will gave $1,000 to the mission work out there, of which my brother, Archdeacon McDonald, had charge for many years.

Mr. Campbell established Fort Selkirk in 1848. This post was pillaged by the Chilkat Indians in 1852, and was burned down in 1853. Mr. Campbell, in the autumn of 1852, came up to Fort Simpson, at the mouth of the Liard river, and in the winter of 1852 and 1853 walked out on snowshoes to Fort Garry, now Winnipeg, as mentioned in the paper.

NOTE—Dr. Bryce wishes to acknowledge his indebtedness to Mr. C. C. Chipman, Commissioner of the Hudson's Bay Company at Winnipeg, for the use of the views from which the illustrations of this paper are made.
