

the adjustment of Canadian Affairs, although no part of the British community has a better right to be heard. For they have been faithful not now only, but on former and momentous occasions. We must be understood, however, not to be compromised to the opinions expressed, except so far as before advocated.—ED. CAN., B. A. AND W. I. MAG.]

REMARKS.—The above reprint from the Canadian, British American, and West Indian Magazine has not been well received by all our readers. But one thing must be remembered : that LE COURRIER DU LIVRE is essentially an historical tribune where all opinions decently expressed will be favorably received. Although we do not approve of all the views set forth in the above communication, we thought it interesting in an historical point of view and decided to publish it. We will, later on, give the counter part to it, so that both sides of the question will be before our readers and enable every one of them to form their own judgment.

CANADIANA-AMERICANA

NOELS ANCIENS DE LA NOUVELLE-FRANCE. Etude historique, par Ernest Myrand. Québec, Dussault & Proulx, 1899. In-8, 199 p., gravures et musique.

Ce nouveau travail que M. Ernest Myrand a publié quelques jours avant Noël a un cachet tout particulier. Il intéressera tout le monde sans exception, même ceux qui ne sont habitués à lire que les romans insipides qu'on publie de nos jours ; même ceux qui ont la lecture en horreur. Tous ceux qui sentent vibrer quelque chose au côté droit de leur poitrine, ne pourront parcourir ces pages sans être pris d'une vive émotion.
