

Chronic

Catarrh destroys the sense of smell and taste, consumes the cartilages of the nose, and, unless properly treated, hastens its victim into Consumption. It usually indicates a scrofulous condition of the system, and should be treated, like chronic ulcers and eruptions, through the blood. The most obstinate and dangerous forms of this disagreeable disease cured by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. **I have always been more or less troubled with Scrofula, but never seriously until the spring of 1882. At that time I took a severe cold in my head, which, notwithstanding all efforts to cure grew worse, and finally became a chronic Catarrh. It was accompanied with terrible headaches, deafness, a continual coughing, and with great soreness of the lungs. My throat and stomach were so polluted with the mass of corruption from my head that Loss of Appetite, Dyspepsia, and Emaciation totally unfitted me for business. I tried many of the so-called specifics for this disease, but obtained no relief until I commenced taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After using two bottles of this medicine, I noticed an improvement in my condition. When I had taken six bottles all traces of Catarrh disappeared, and my health was completely restored.—A. B. Cornell, Fairfield, Iowa.

Can be

For thoroughly eradicating the poisons of Catarrh from the blood, take saparilla. It will restore health and vigor to decaying and diseased tissues, when everything else fails.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Catarrh

Is usually the result of a neglected "cold in the head," which causes an inflammation of the mucous membrane of the nose. Unless arrested, this inflammation produces Catarrh which, when chronic, becomes very offensive. It is impossible to be otherwise healthy, and, at the same time, afflicted with Catarrh. When promptly treated, this disease may be by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. **I suffered, for years, from chronic Catarrh. My appetite was very poor, and I felt miserably. None of the remedies I took afforded me any relief, until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla, of which I have now taken five bottles. The Catarrh has disappeared, and I am growing strong and stout again; my appetite has returned, and my health is fully restored.—Susan L. W. Cook, 909 Albany street, Boston Highlands, Mass.

I was troubled with Catarrh, and all its attendant evils, for several years. I tried various remedies, and was treated by a number of physicians, but received no benefit until I commenced taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. A few bottles of this medicine cured me of this troublesome complaint, and completely restored my health and strength.—Jesse Boggs, Holman's Mills, Albermarle, N. C.

If you would strengthen and invigorate your system more rapidly and surely than by any other medicine, use Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It is the safest and most reliable of all blood purifiers. No other remedy is so effective in cases of chronic Catarrh.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1; six bottles, $5.

Sparkles.

GOOD MINISTER: I don't see how I am to get through my sermon to-day, it's almost church time. Fond wife: What is the text. Good Minister: It is about the wise and foolish virgins. Fond wife: But you were writing at that sermon last night: why didn't you finish it? Good Minister: I couldn't; the lamp went out.

WHY not treat such troubles as boils, pimples, blotches, sores, humours, eruptions, rashes, skin irritations, &c., with Burdock Blood Bitters? It is filled with virtue as a blood purifier and goes right to the right spot. It makes the skin bright and clear, while also invigorating the entire system.

LAWRENCE BARRETT, stern and dignified as he likes to appear, can unbend a little occasionally. Once a popular low comedian proposed a combination with him, which he declined. "It would have been a happy illustration," said the tragedian, in relating it, "of Grin and Barrett."

FOR A DISORDERED LIVER try BEECHAM'S PILLS.

POMPOUS PARTY: So you are the exchange editor, young man? Nautically speaking, you are a clipper? Searnelle: No; inasmuch as I ply the scissors for a living, I am a revenue cutter.

THE following is taken from a letter from Mr. D. Davis, Winnipeg, Man.: "Being persuaded to use Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam for a troublesome cold, I was entirely cured by the use of two bottles."

MAUD: George, please explain what you meant by telling Edith my eyes reminded you of a cat's. George: Why, simply that to appreciate their beauty one must see them at night.

SUPPOSING you suffer from some disease. Suppose it is dyspepsia or biliousness or constipation or bad blood. Suppose you learn that Burdock Blood Bitters has cured thousands of cases of these and similar complaints. Don't you suppose you ought to try it? It cannot harm you and in nine cases out of ten it cures.

JUDGE: This verdict could not have been reached on law and evidence. Foreman of Jury: No, sir; we just used common sense. Judge (promptly): Overruled and set aside.

GENTLEMEN—Your Hagyard's Yellow Oil is worth its weight in gold for both internal and external use. During the late La Grippe epidemic we found it a most excellent preventive, and for sprained limbs, etc., there is nothing to equal it.

WM. PEMBERTON, Editor Reporter, Delhi, Ont.

SHE: All poets seem to be fond of the sunset. He: Yes; it tells them that they have no more meals to buy for that day.

JOHN DOE: "Are you carrying a mortgage on your house?" "Yes; and strange to say I'm carrying it because I can't lift it."

FOUND at last! A remedy that not only relieves, but cures that enemy of mankind, consumption, as well as the numerous satellites which revolve around it in the shape of coughs, colds, bronchitis, sore throat, influenza, etc. The remedy we allude to is DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

STEWARD: So you are Katherine Beseler? Farmer's Wife: Yes, sir; that's me. Steward: But you generally go by the name of Red-haired Kitty, don't you? Farmer's wife: Yes, sir; that's what I'm called by all the ugly blackguards that don't know better manners.

DEAR SIR,—I have been troubled with Lame Back for about six months, and thought I would try Hagyard's Yellow Oil, which cured me. Am now free from all pains, and recommend Yellow Oil very highly.

FRANK PALMER, Winona, Ont.

FIRST STRANGER: I say, that's my umbrella you have. Second Stranger: I don't doubt it, sir—I don't doubt it. I bought it at a pawnbroker's.

BE particular every spring to clean the house, but never mind cleansing the blood until some troublesome disease takes hold of you. This is poor policy when by using Burdock Blood Bitters the blood will be thoroughly cleansed, the body strengthened, and future suffering prevented.

TOMMY: Columbus was an Italian by birth. Teacher (to test pupil's intelligence): And what is an Italian? Tommy: An organ-grinder.

Minard's Liniment is the best.
