

NEW YORK EXCHANGE.

SIGNS OF REACTION IN PRICE THOUGH NOT IN VOLUME OF GENERAL BUSINESS — PRICES IN STEEL AND IRON LOWER — R. R. EARNINGS MAKE FAVORABLE SHOWING — BANK STATEMENT EXPECTED TO SHOW LOSS IN SURPLUS RESERVE.

N.-Y., Feb. 24.

London market shows advances in consols of 3-16 and $\frac{1}{8}$ for money and account.

There is no war news Yesterday's market was distinctly disappointing. Commission Houses did little or nothing.

To-day's weekly report show the first sign of a reaction in general business throughout the country that we have seen in a long time.

This reaction takes rather the form of a decrease in prices than any diminution in the volume of business transactions.

There is a decided tendency towards lower prices in iron and steel industries. On the other hand railroads continue making favorable showing as compared with the corresponding period of last year.

It must be remembered however, that this time last year Railroad traffic was considerably restricted by very severe weather.

Various estimates as to what to-day's Bank Statement will show, seem to agree that there will be a loss of some $3,000,000 in Surplus Reserve.

Bankers, however, have no fear of tight money in the near future.
