

The Editor CANADIAN MESSENGER,

Rev. Sir, — Would like you to publish among your Thanksgivings the following: "Thanksgiving for success in an examination, after praying to the Sacred Heart and making the Nine First Fridays, with a promise to publish in the MESSENGER."

Dundas, Ont.

The Editor CANADIAN MESSENGER,

Rev. Sir, — After a novena to St. Ignatius and the Holy Souls and promise to publish, I received a very great favor recently. I am so grateful to God for this favor that I shall always have a devotion to St. Ignatius and the Holy Souls. My answer came from a source I never expected.

PROMOTER.

SHORT CORRESPONDENCE.

— M. A. P., Gordon, Ont. — The article you asked for is not in our catalogue.

— "Mac," Chicago, Ill. — Your letter came too late for this month's MESSENGER.

— D. J., Toronto. — The large Hand-Book will give you all explanations in connection with the League.

— Promoter, Chicago, Ill. — There are no leaflets, with the prayer to Saint Benedict, on the League catalogue.

— Mrs. A. M., Smith's Falls, Ont. — Your letter of thanksgiving received. The intentions have been inserted in their proper place.

— M. A. N., St. John, West. — Note has been taken of the intention which you desire to be placed before the statue of the Sacred Heart.

— Mrs. C. G., London, Ont. — The MESSENGER furnishes only literature connected with the devotion to the Sacred Heart. Write to Benziger Bros., 36 Barclay Street, New York, for the books you named.

— M. S. F., Cork, Ireland. — We send you the Mass-cards as ordered, and we presume the privilege of publishing the following extract from your letter: "The giving of money for Masses is of so much benefit to poor deceased souls, that it is a pity your beautiful suggestion of the Mass-cards is not better known. The sending of wreaths costs such a lot of money, does no good to the departed, and is, of course, a remnant of a pagan custom."
