Entertainment at 8t Joseph's Acade emy.

On Wednesday, the 13th inst., at 5 p.m., the young ladies of St. Joseph's Academy gave a farewell entertainment to the Chaplain of the institution, the Rev. F. R. Fachon, who is to leave for Europe in a few days. Besides the guest of the evening, there were present the Rev. J. R. Teety president of St. Michael's College; Rev. E. Murray, C. T. B., the members of the Community of St. Joseph, and some friends of the pupils.

The enter-timent was decidedly novel, solos, chorus, recitations all their in French. The opening choral college in the solosy of the sol

The procession last Sunday in connection with the Feart of Corpus Christi was very large and impressive. Vicar-denoral McCann carried the Biessed Sacrament, and was attended by Rev. I athers William McCann and O'Leary. The remainder of the procession was made up of the Sanctuary boya, carrying E'chted tapers, the boys of the Separate School, with banners, and the boys and grifs who had received their first Commution and had been confirmed this year. Twelve little girls strewed flowers in the path of our Blessed Lord, while the whole was surrounded by a guard of henor, composed of the members of St. Mary's Literary and Athlette Association. This last-named association held a meeting the same day, and the ruling of the president, Mr. D. A. Carey, that there would be no excuesion this year was upheld.

The closing exercises of St. John's School, Winchester street, were held the Thursday, the 14th Inst., there being present Rev. Fathers Cruise and Waish, Inspector Brother Odo Baldwin, besides a large number of the relatives and friends of the pupils. The program, which we give below, was exceedingly well given, the conception and rendition of their parts by some of the tiny tota especially being remarkable in children so young, not only evidencing in this superior natural ability, but much careful training on the part of their instructors.

St. Peter's.

At Special Vespers, on Sunday last. Rev. Dr. Traacy, of St. Michael's, preached a very forrible stranon on 'Mortal Sin,' making special reference to the Sacred Heart devolutions of the coming week. He explained fully the elements that constitute a mortal sin-there must be full knowledge-full consent of the will—and the act in itself must be a grave violation of God's law, Lavie, and the set in itself must be a grave violation or God's law, Lavie, and the set in the form the fact that creatures gave a greater preference to their fellowship and sensual enjoyment than to their Creator and enlarged very fully on this aspect. Wiegend's Vespers was particularly well rondered by the choir, Miss Carrie Dockeroy singing in good voice, the 'O, Salutaris.' After vespers, Dr. Treacy called upon the choir, and compilmented them on their good singing.

There will be services in St. Michael's Cathedral every evening this week at 7.30. Friday, the 22nd, is the day that is specially consecrated by the Catholic Church, as the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Our Divine Lord and Saviour, to honor Him, for His mercy and goodness to mankind. On Sunday morning next, at 9 o'clock, the Men's Branch of the League will review Holy Communion in the Cathedral. Special seats will be reserved for them, and a large number is expected. The services will be conducted by the Director, Rev. Father Ryan.
