

Art not thou one of this man's disciples ?

John xviii. 17.

this, the same day, four gentlemen agreed together to contribute $5,000 each for the purpose of securing an Association building, and we are confident from the feeling which the meeting excited, that already the sum desired, $60,000 will have been secured.

LAST WORDS.

ARL CAIRNS who died April 2nd was twice Lord Chancellor of England, and better than that he was a faithful devoted disciple of the Lord Jesus Christ. In Young Mens Christian Association work he took the deepest interest, and at the time of his death was President of the Association at Bournemouth, his life was full of prayer and dependence upon God. The following extract from a letter written by him shortly before his death shows his evangelical spirit and holy life.

"I am sure there are many persons who believe in Christ who come to Him and accept the salvation He offers, but who stop there, and whose life flickers and almost goes out for want of their realizing the position into which they are called. It is when we abide in Christ every moment—as the branch in the vine—when we surrender all to Him and lie in His arms, and when we look on salvation not as a thing we are to touch, and then have done with, or occasionally recall to mind, but a real, living, constant union of us with Christ in thought, and will, and object. It is thus, indeed, that we have peace and calm, assurance and life."

The eldest of his daughters thus writes of his closing moments:

"Stamped on that dear face, so lovely and holy in the calm peace are the words, 'Thou hast made him exceeding glad with thy countenance.' His latest words, the only ones spoken for hours were of his Master, 'The only faith to live and die in, is Christ. God bring and keep all my beloved ones in this faith, let nothing come between you and Christ,' then his voice rang out, 'God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that whosoever believeth on Him should not perish, but have eternal life, eternal life, eternal life.' Then he leaned his head upon my mother's shoulder and fell asleep in Jesus, 'The life of them that believe, and the resurrection of the dead.'"

Truly the end of the righteous is peace, and it is little wonder the prayer of Balaam, finds so many to-day who desire and would like it to be answered in their case, "Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his."

My fellow sinner, believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, live a life of faith upon the Son of God, and you will surely attain to it.

GRACE comes into the soul as the morning sun into the world; there is first a dawning, then a mean light, and, at last, the sun in his excellent brightness.—T. Adams.
