A Privilege

LIFE insurance is a comparatively modern invention, and has not been known for more than a few generations.

In the old days, if a man lost his life prematurely, his widow and children were in most cases left destitute: the only remedy thought of was the poorhouse.

By means of life insurance the modern man can make provision for the maintenance of his family in the event of his death.

The Mutual Life of Canada will pay the beneficiary a fixed income if desired and this will continue at least twenty years.

Life insurance is a great privilege, and fortunate is the man who is in good health so that he can secure its protection for those whom he loves.

Life, Limited Life and Endowment Policies.
