October 24, 1848. RESTORATION OF ST. MARY REDCLIFF CHURCH.—It is how to appreciate what is not only beautiful and magnificent in itself, but so great an ornament to that city whose fortunes, the writer believes, are about to be retrieved by the success of late measures :

" Bristol, 26th Cctober, 1848. "To the Chairman of the Committee for the Restoration of Redcliff Church. "SIR,—The Bristol Free Port Association, of which 1 am a member, having been instrumental in obtaining an Act of Parliament, which I believe to be the first step lowards the Restoration of the trade of Bristol, has in duced me to offer some slight assistance to the good work in which you are engaged, viz., 'The Restoration of Redcliff Church;' and witnessing the zeal manifested, and considering the principle adopted (the voluntary) which I so much admire, I feel assured that your good work will speedily be accomplished.

"I beg to offer to bring, in my vessels, one hundred e from Caen, freight free.

"With anxious wishes for your success,
"I am, Sir, yours respectfully,
"RICHARD ROWE."

Scheme for the Extension of the Episcopate.— The Church and State Gazette of Friday contains a scheme of this description, which, without grants of money, or interference with existing episcopal funds, provides one Bishop and one Archdescope of the State of the Sta deacon for every county in England and Wales, except for the lesser counties of Rutland, Radnor, and Flint; four for Yorkshire; two for the larger counties of Lincoln and Devon; three for the Metropolis; one for the Isle of Man; and one for the Channel Islands—in all sixty Bishops and sixty Archdeacons. This may be accomplished by the annexation of thirty livings in public patronage, and the use of the funds actually applied to the present Archdeaconries.

The following is the summary of the scheme:— In England, 48 Bishops, with a minimum income of £1,000

In Wales, ten: Isle of Man, one: and Channel Isles, one: with a minimum income of £750 a-year.

The plan of education which Miss McN. pursues, is based upon the most approved modern European system, and the Young Ladies entrusted to her care enjoy the advantage of being at all times under her immediate superintendence, or that of her Sisters, who having been accustomed to the tuition of Young Persons, feel happy in devoting their time exclusively to their improvement.

Pupils studying Italian, German, and French, have the advantage of requent conversation in those languages; and to facilitate an attainment now felt to be indispensable a class for the exclusive purpose of practice in French speaking is held on Tuesdays and Fridays. They also have access to a well-assorted library, comprising the most approved modern publications in English, and the continental languages, with which, as also Globes, &c. &c., Miss MeN. has taken are to provide herself.

Separate hours and apartments are allotted to the various branches.

Anatomy and Physology of the Skin and Hair. Anatomy and Physology of the Skin and Hair.

From the Lowell Journal.

This is the title of a very handsomely printed pemphlet, which we received yesterday from Boston. It contains a well written essay upon the anatomy and plysology of the skin and hair, by Win. Bogle, who is one of the first hair arrists "n this country. Mr. Bogle is a gentleman of intelligence, and has examined into the philosophy of his craft, and reduced it to a acience. The treatise which he has written on the nature of the skin and hair speaks well for him. Mr. Bogle is the inventor of the celebrated Hyperion Fluid for the hair—an article which is becoming very widely known, and has an extensive sale; probably there is no better mixture than this for the prevention of baldness. removing dandruff, and preserving the natural beauty and softness of the hair. Those who have paid little attention to the hair—among whom we are—would be surprised to learn how much can be said on the sulject by an intelligent person who has studied the nature of it. Those who are anxious to know more, we would recommend to buy this treatise by Mr. Bogle.
