THE FAR REACHING

Perfume of a good name heralds the claim that Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor is a sure, certain, and painless remedy for corns. Fifty imitations prove it to be the best. Take no acid substitutes at druggists.

When a man tells me that his passions are very strong. I simply advise him to mix them with his morals, which are apt to be very weak. Then, you see, he strikes a good average.

One of the reasons why Scott's Emulsion has such a large sale is, because it is the best. Dr. W. H. Cameron, Halifax, N.S., says: "I have prescribed Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, for the past two years, and found it more agreeable to the stomach and have better results from its use than any other preparation of the kind I have ever used." Sold by all Druggists, 50c. and $1.00.

If you would know one of the minor secrets of happiness, it is this: cultivate cheap pleasures.

'Papa,' said the little daughter of a clergyman recently, 'if God tells you what to write in your sermons, why do you so often scratch it out again?' The clergyman changed the subject by asking her how she liked her new doll."

11,000 COPIES ISSUED

"Reasons for Being a Churchman."

By the Rev. Arthur Wilde Little
Rector St. Paul's, Portland, Me.

Neatly bound in Cloth, 282 pages, Price $1.10 by mail.

"One of the most perfect instruments for sound instruction concerning the Church that has been offered to Churchmen. The whole temper of the book is courteous, kindly and humble. This book ought to be in the hands of every Churchman. Of all books upon this important subject it is the most readable. It is popular and attractive in style, in the best sense. We commend it most heartily to every Clergyman for personal help and parochial use. We would, if we could, place a copy in the hands of every member of the English-speaking race. And we are assured that once begun, it will be read with interest from preface to conclusion. No better text book could be found for a class of adults, who desire to give a reason for their faith, and be Churchmen in reality.—Church Record."
