

The manner in which this renunciation may be made and publicly declared shall be agreed upon by the Governments of the respective countries.

III.—If any such British subject as aforesaid, naturalized in The United States, should renew his residence within the dominions of Her Britannic Majesty, Her Majesty's Government may, on his own application and on such conditions as that Government may think fit to impose, re-admit him to the character and privileges of a British subject, and The United States shall not, in that case, claim him as a citizen of The United States on account of his former naturalization.

In the same manner, if any such citizen of The United States as aforesaid, naturalized within the dominions of Her Britannic Majesty, should renew his residence in The United States, The United States Government may, on his own application and on such conditions as that Government may think fit to impose, re-admit him to the character and privileges of a citizen of The United States, and Great Britain shall not, in that case, claim him as a British subject on account of his former naturalization.

IV.—The present Convention shall be ratified by Her Britannic Majesty and by the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate thereof, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at London as soon as may be within 12 months from the date hereof.

In witness whereof, the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have fixed thereto their respective seals:

¹CONVENTION BETWEEN HER MAJESTY AND THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, SUPPLEMENTARY TO THE CONVENTION OF MAY 13, 1870, RESPECTING NATURALIZATION.—SIGNED AT WASHINGTON, FEBRUARY 23, 1871.

(Ratifications exchanged at Washington, May 4, 1871)

Whereas by Article II of the Convention between Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and the United States of America for regulating the citizenship of subjects and citizens of the Contracting Parties who have emigrated or may emigrate from the dominions of the one to those of the other party, signed at London, on the 13th of May, 1870, it was stipulated that the manner in which the renunciation by such subjects and citizens of their naturalization, and the resumption of their native allegiance, may be made and publicly declared, should be agreed upon by the Governments of the respective countries; Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and the President of The United States of America, for the purpose of effecting such agreement, have resolved to conclude a Supplemental Convention, and have named as their Plenipotentiaries, that is to say: Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Sir Edward Thornton, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Order of the
