

- In March 2001, both Canada and the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia raised their respective levels of representation to ambassador.

Mine Action

- Mine action in the Balkans is a Canadian priority. Canada chairs the Reay Group, which co-ordinates mine action in the Balkans, including stockpile destruction, under the auspices of the Stability Pact. Canada has also contributed $200,000 to help clear unexploded ordinance from the Danube River.
- To date, Canada has spent over $10 million for mine clearance in the region.
