

National Emergency Transitional Powers Act, continuation of:

1. Address to His Excellency the Governor General to provide for continuing in force of the said Act until the 15th of May, 1947: moved (Mr. Ilsley), 208. Agreed to, after debate and on division (yeas 177; nays 13), 208.
2. Order in Council P.C. 1112 of March 25, 1947: providing for continuing in force of the National Emergency Powers Act, 1945, to the 15th day of May, 1947; Copy of: Laid before the House, 239. Sess. Paper No. 56*d*.

National Emergency Transitional Powers Continuation Act, 1947:

1. Resolution,—to continue certain war and emergency orders and regulations for a further period; and to provide for necessary staff, etc.; House to go into Committee on, 42. Motion (Mr. Ilsley)—That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair, etc., 224. Amendment (Mr. Coldwell)—present decontrol policy lowering standard of living; orderly and democratic control system should be introduced, etc., 224. Amendment ruled out of order under Standing Order 50, no amendment to motion to refer a Resolution to a Committee of the Whole, 225. Ruling appealed and sustained (yeas 156; nays 26), 225. Debate on main motion resumed and adjourned, 226, 230, 238. Main motion agreed to (yeas 180; nays 6), 241. Progress reported from Committee of the Whole, 242, 248. Resolution adopted, 254. Bill No. 104 (Mr. Ilsley)—An Act to provide for the continuation of certain Orders and Regulations of the Governor in Council for a limited period during the national emergency arising out of the war; 1st R., 254. 2nd R. moved, 283. Point of Order (Mr. Dorion)—That office consolidation of Orders in Council mentioned in Schedule to Bill No. 104 had not been printed in the French language, therefore bill could not be proceeded with, 283. Speaker ruled that Point of Order was not well taken as the office consolidation was not tabled and House was not asked to pass on it now, 283. Ruling appealed and sustained (yeas 120; nays 42), 283. Debate on second reading resumed, 284. Amendment (Mr. Fleming)—House opposed to enactment of a measure to continue sweeping powers of certain Boards outside the control of Parliament, 285. Debate interrupted by Private Bill hour, 285. Debate resumed and adjourned, 288, 294, 301. Amendment (Mr. Fleming) ruled out of order on the ground that it does not fully challenge the principles of the bill and is not in definite enough terms, 307. Ruling appealed and sustained (yeas 124; nays 53), 308. Debate resumed, 309. Amendment (Mr. Knowles)—decontrol policy depressing standing of living, restoration of lower prices and orderly controls, 310. Debate interrupted by Private Bill hour, 310. Debate resumed, 312. Amendment (Mr. Knowles) ruled out of order on the ground that the subject-matter of the amendment had been dealt with already during the session and that an amendment must not anticipate amendments which should be moved in Committee, 313. Debate on main motion resumed, 313. Debate adjourned, 313. Debate resumed and main motion (for second reading) agreed to (yeas 125; nays 43), 317. 2nd R., 318. Progress reported from Committee of the Whole, 318, 321, 324 (Committee obtains leave to consider it again later this day), 325, 330. Consideration interrupted by Private Bill hour, 333. Progress reported from Committee of the Whole, 334, 338, 341. Discussion interrupted by Private Bill hour, 344-5. Progress reported from
