

Soldier, 624; Visit to Stony Creek and Hamilton, 625; British and Indian Raids on the Niagara Frontier, 626; Battle at Black Rock, 627; Expedition to Burlington Heights and York, 628; Dearborn succeeded by Wilkinson, 629; Relations between Wilkinson, Armstrong, and Hampton, 630; Affairs on the Niagara Frontier, 631; Fort George menaced and Newark burnt, 632; just Indignation of the British—Retaliation proposed, 633; Fort Niagara captured—Desolation of that Frontier, 634; N.Y. Militia at Buffalo, 635; Battle near Black Rock and Destruction of Buffalo, 636; Horrors of retaliatory Warfare, 637.

CHAPTER XXIX.

EVENTS ON THE NORTHERN FRONTIER IN 1813.

Wilkinson concentrates his Forces, 638; General Dearborn moves into Canada, 639; Repulse of the British at La Colle—Colonel Carr, 640; Preparations for War on Lake Champlain, 641; Movements of Hampton in Northern New York, 642; Chauncey tries to engage Sir James Yeo on Lake Ontario, 643; a Battle at last, 644; Chauncey again searching for his foe, 645; an Expedition for the St. Lawrence against Montreal—Disasters, 646; Hampton's Operations in the Chateaugay Region, 647; Wilkinson's Expedition on the St. Lawrence, 648; Battle off French Creek—the Expedition moves down the St. Lawrence, 649; the Flotilla passes Prescott, 650; General Brown invades Canada—Wilkinson in Peril, 651; Preparations for a Battle, 652; Battle of Chrysler's Field, 653; the Americans go down the St. Lawrence, 654; Character of some of the chief Leaders, 655; the Army in winter Quarters at French Mills, 656; its sufferings there and Release, 657; Attempt to seduce American Soldiers from their Allegiance, 658; the Author's Visit to the St. Lawrence Region—Carleton Island, 659, 660; William Johnson of the Thousand Islands, 661; his Exploits, Arrest, and Imprisonment, 662; his Services in the War of 1812, 663; a Visit to French Mills and Vicinity, 664; Rouse's Point—La Colle, 665; a Visit to Chrysler's Farm, Prescott, and Ogdensburg, 666.

CHAPTER XXX.

PREDATORY WARFARE OF THE BRITISH ON THE COAST.

Blockade of the Chesapeake and Delaware Bays declared, 667; Operations of Blockaders in Chesapeake Bay, 668; Attack on Lewiston—Cockburn, the Marauder, 669; Capture of Frenchtown, 670; Attack on Havre de Grace, 671; the Town plundered and fired, 672; the Author's Visit to Havre de Grace—John O'Neill, 673; Cockburn plunders and destroys other Villages, 674; stirring Scenes in Hampton Roads, 675; a British Fleet enters the Roads, 676; Craney Island and its Defenders, 677; Preparations for Battle, 678; the British attack, are repulsed, and withdraw, 679; they turn upon Hampton, 680; they land and menace it, 681; a Struggle for the Possession of Hampton, 682; Americans driven out, and the Village given up to Rapine and Plunder, 683; the Author visits Craney Island and Norfolk, 684, 685; the Fortifications on Craney Island, 686; a Visit to Hampton, 687; a Daughter of Commodore Barron—a Veteran of 1812—Hampton destroyed by Virginia Rebels, 688; Cockburn in the Potomac and on the Coasts of the Carolinas and Georgia, 689; Secret Organizations among the Slaves, 690; Decatur runs the Blockade at New York, 691; blockading Squadron off New London, 692; Alarm produced by Torpedo Vessels, 693; the Coast of Connecticut blockaded—the local Militia, 694; Decatur in the Thames, 695; the Author's Visit to New London and its Vicinity, 696, 697.

CHAPTER XXXI.

WAR ON THE OCEAN IN 1813.

Battle between the Hornet and Peacock, 698; Victory of the Hornet—Prowess of the Americans respected, 699; Honors to Captain Lawrence and his Men, 700; Cruise of the Chesapeake—her Character, 701; Lawrence's last official Letter, 702; Broke's Challenge, 703; the Chesapeake and her Crew, 704; the Chesapeake goes out to fight, 705; Battle between the Chesapeake and Shannon—Death of Lawrence, 706; Treachery—Capture of the Chesapeake—she is taken to Halifax, 708; Exultation of the British, 709; Honors to Captain Broke, 710; Respect paid to the Remains of Lawrence and his Lieutenant, Ludlow, 711; funeral Ceremonies at Salem, 712; funeral Ceremonies at New York—Monuments, 713; stirring Scenes in Chesapeake Bay, 714; Cruise of the Argus in British Waters, 715; Battle between the Argus and Pelican, 716; Battle between the Enterprise and Boxer, 717; Funeral of the Commander of each at Portland, 718; Honors to Burrows and McCall, 719; last Cruise of the Enterprise, 720.

CHAPTER XXXII.

CRUISE OF THE ESSEX.

Weakness of the American Navy, 721; the Essex starts on a long Cruise—a Search for Bainbridge, 722; she sails for the Pacific Ocean, 723; her Search for British whaling Vessels, 724; by capturing and arming British whaling Vessels, Porter creates a Squadron, 725; successful Cruise among the Gallapagos Islands, 726; Porter sails for the Marquesas Islands, 727; civil War in Noaheevah, 728; Porter engages in the War, 729; the Women of Noaheevah, 730; Incidents in the Harbor of Valparaiso, 731; Battle between the Essex and two British Ships, 732; the Essex captured—Porter returns Home, 733; Honors to Commodore Porter—his subsequent Career, 734; Rodgers's long Cruise in 1813—his Services to his Country, 735, 736; he makes another Cruise in the President—Honors to Rodgers, 737.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

WAR AGAINST THE CREEK INDIANS.

Insurrectionary Movements in Louisiana, 738; military Movements in West Florida, 739; Louisiana made a State—Insurrection in East Florida, 740; Action of United States Officials there—Expedition, 741; Surrender of Mobile to the Americans, 742; Tennessee Volunteers on the Mississippi, 743; they return to Nashville, 744; Tecumtha in the Creek Country—he exhorts the Creeks to make War on the White People, 746; the Creek Nation and their Position, 747; Civil War among the Creeks—White People in Peril, 748; the Militia in the Field—Battle of Burnt Corn Creek, 749; Preparations for Defense in Lower Alabama, 750; Fort Mims and its Occupants, 751; Rumors of impending Hostilities, 752; Fort Mims

crowded
Massacr
Help, 75

Jackson h
lower C
schatch pirited I
from Ge Fight, 7
Armies
Creek, 7
Creek C
the subd

Political C
—Peace
Act rep
ures proj
on La C
Brown, 1
Forces o
the War
for Sack Author's and the 805; Se
British I
heartene 813; the

The Britis
the Briti
Battery, America
Scott, we Battle-g
Erie, 82
Army, 8
Erie, 83
Triumph
Brown, 8
Erie, 84
America
Holmes's
Operatio

The Down
Control o
Departm
the Briti 863; the Opening
icans cor
British a
to Gener 879; the
Ontario,

The Block
sea-port
Boston, 8
utation s