

99. The postmaster has received a communication from a sailor near O., informing him of the death of a man named J. S., who once lived near here, by falling off their boat in a gale and getting drowned, and wished his friends to know.
100. We are told to look at the county of X. who so nobly provided a house of refuge for their poor, and it only costs that county one dollar and eighty-three cents per week for each inmate.
101. We have been led to make a closer examination of the books to see if they be what some rival firms have declared them to be, or if they be what their publisher asserts.
102. The king had charged him, therefore, to provide fit lodging and entertainment for him till he had time to see him.
103. An urgent appeal was made to all friends of the University to boldly make demand to the State to more liberally support the Provincial College.
104. Mutual Marriage Aid Association. The following benefits have been paid during the last year, any of which will give information by enclosing stamp.
105. While oiling the gearing of the machine his hand got caught in it, nearly taking it off.
106. I am, very much pleased that the committee in some degree have attended to my request, in revising some of the errors in their late manifesto, however much more so had the errors not occurred.
107. This is an important error, quite sufficient to deter or otherwise intending immigrants towards this country.
108. I trust the committee will continue revising other errors and that these corrections may have as wide or wider circulation than the report.
109. The exceptions to the report were broad rather than specific, believing, as the errors were so absurd, that the committee should discover as well as correct their errors.
110. The worthy objects of this entertainment will no doubt receive the encouragement it deserves on the part of the citizens of Toronto.