

CONTENTS.

Fall—Favourable Passage to the Northward—Arrival off the Strait of the Fury and Hecla —Progress opposed by a fixed barrier of Ice—Communicate with the Natives of Igloolik—Unsuccessful attempts to get between the Ice and the Land—Land upon the Calthorpe Islands —The Fury drifted by the Ice between two Islands—Account of a Journey performed in Sledges up an Inlet to the Westward	PAGE 249
--	-------------

CHAPTER XI.

Remarkable instance of local Attraction on the Magnetic Needles—Occasional separation of a portion of the fixed Ice—A Whale killed—Other Charts drawn by the Esquimaux—Account of a Journey to the Narrows of the Strait—Discovery of the Sea to the Westward—Total disruption of the Ice at the Eastern entrance of the Strait—A second instance of local Attraction on the Compasses—Sail through the Narrows, and again stopped by fixed Ice—Account of several land Journeys and boat Excursions—Observations on the Tides—Continued obstacles from fixed Ice	296
---	-----

CHAPTER XII.

A Journey performed along the South Shore of Cockburn Island —Confirmation of an Outlet to the Polar Sea—Partial disruption of the old Ice, and formation of new—Return through the Narrows to the Eastward—Proceed to examine the Coast to the North-eastward— Fury's Anchor broken—Stand over to Igloolik to look for Winter-quarters—Excursion to the Head of Quilliam Creek —Ships forced to the Westward by gales of Wind—A Canal sawed through the Ice, and the Ships secured in their Winter Station—Continued visits to the Esquimaux, and arrival of some of the Winter-Island Tribe—Proposed plan of operations in the ensuing Spring	340
--	-----

CHAPTER XIII.

Preparations for the Winter—Various Meteorological Phenomena to the close of the year 1822—Sickness among the Esquimaux—A Hospital built near the Ships for their accommodation—Meteorological Phenomena to the end of March—Abstract of the comparative mean Winter temperature at Melville Island, Winter Island, and Igloolik	376
--	-----

CHAPTER XIV.

Various Journeys to the Esquimaux Stations—Illness and decease of Mr. Alexander Elder—Preparations for the Hecla's return to England—Remarkable Halos, &c.—Shooting Parties stationed at Arlagnuk—Journeys to Quilliam Creek—Arrival of Esquimaux from the Northward—Account of a Journey to the Westward for the purpose of reaching the Polar Sea—The Esquimaux report two Fishing Ships having been wrecked—A Journey performed to Cockburn Island—Discovery of Murray Maxwell Inlet	423
---	-----

CHAPTER XV.

Extraordinary disruption of Ice in Quilliam Creek—Some appearance of Scurvy among the Seamen and Marines—Account of a Journey with Sledges to Cockburn Island—Discovery of Gifford River —Commence cutting the Ice outside the Ships to release them from their Winter-Quarters—Considerations respecting the return of the Expedition to
--	--