Mercantile Summary.

The Merchants, Manufacturers and others to whom we send gratis copies of the JOURNAL OF COMMERCE, will oblige us by sending in their subscriptions immediately, as they will find each number of the paper valuable not only for present use but also for future reference. Business men who endeavor to keep thoroughly informed, and who desire to read the opinions of the leading minds and business men of the day, should not fail to subscribe at once.

Before the recent raid on whiskey in the United States the price was $1.15; now it is $1.25.

Kerr & Wilson, wholesale grocers, Toronto, have been arrested, it is said, for forging an insolvency assignment.

Travellers in the Eastern Townships say that American "drummers" are scouring the country round about, selling tea by the caddy and even by the pound to the hotel keepers and the farmers.

The wholesale leather firm of A. & E. Amos are offering to compromise at sixty cents on the dollar, and creditors appear disposed to accept it. The failure may be ranked among the unfortunate class. The feeling towards the firm in commercial circles is favorable.

C. E. Seymour, commission leather merchant of this city has been added to the list of failures. The failure of Rolland & Son, has been among the principal causes of the trouble. This house has been particularly unfortunate, having been obliged to write off about $20,000 for bad debts within the last two years. He proposes to settle at fifty cents on the dollar.

Several Ottawa lumbermen have sold their white pine timber at 21c. to 234c. per foot, all
