

homes upon the land if we permit the public domain to pass into the possession of men seeking to own and control immense landed estates?

"There should be but one act upon our statute books under which public land can be acquired, and that one act should be a genuine homestead act, which imposes a residence of five years, and continuous cultivation of the soil, an act having no commutation provision attached to it."