

ant.—The best, most dition—brought down to his J. T. HEADLEY, the distin-s Marshals," "Sacred Mounull and accurate, having been written with that skill and among American historical als.—By Hon. J. T.

s, Sheridan, Thomas, Hooker, agel, McPherson, Kilpatrick.
s. 606 pages, with 80 Steel ch the United States were so eroes and Heroic Deeds, and ndous features of the mighty

Antique, $5.50.

ers.—By Hon. J. T. prising the Life and Times of s, Wilkes, Winslow, Dahlgren,
s, Thatcher, Palmer, Jenkins, attle Scenes. Written in Mr. s, Sieges and Bombardments, s and Iron-Clad Vessels; also the Rebellion. The Norwich Americana."

Antique, $5.50.

Bank and File—

ospital, with Narratives of the By Mrs. A. H. HOES, of the DDY, D. D. The story Mrs. sif to incidents which passed skill and effect. The private n this deeply interesting volthe victims of rebel hate will emories for them.

Gilt Edge, $3.50.

E. Lee, with a full "Names the World will not dsomely Embellished with 80 agration of Richmond. The h facts of interest never before ere are about fifty Biographies sen of Virginia's most gifted k of biographies ever issued.
e plan of that familiar work, eroes, each an historical epiered on the Southern side since e that earth knows no prouder

, $5.00.

f the War.—By E. A.

progress of the late Southern most gigantic struggle of the Histories, and is being patronuntry, but in the British Provnages), has its character been est literary success of the age. d in 1867.

Half Calf Antique, $8.00.

COOKE, of Va.—Comte War with thrilling Narra-The design of this work is to es, adventures and personages em, for the truth of which the ant, and not as one compiling in graphic descriptions, hair-prove attractive to the general yle, Full Sheep, $5.00.

most important Con-from the South during the late