

PATRONIZED BY HIS EXCELLENCY

THE EARL OF DALHOUSIE.

DR. RAMSAY

WITH respect, presents to those Ladies and Gentlemen who honour him with their attention—the following PROSPECTUS OF LECTURES.

"See this day, I have set before thee, life and good—and death and evil."—DEUT. XXX. 15.

"Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit."—COL. II. 8.

LECTURE FIRST.

General view of the continually decomposable ingredients of the present material system—Experiments on some substances, in support of the idea of the Indistractability of matter—Remarks on the Atmospheric and Solar influence—Gaseous Fluids—Life-Stimuli—the notions wherein Religion, Health, or practical principles are concerned, will be introduced in their place.

LECTURE SECOND.

Doctrine of Plants and other living organized bodies,