MAKE A SURVEY, SAYS THE MAYOR

City's Scheme to Help in Solving the Housing Problem.

Mayor Church's contribution to the housing problem was made to the board of control yesterday and it will be considered at a conference next week. It is as follows:

- (1) City might consider temporarily leasing or granting part of its vacant land in trust to a civic trustee board, to erect small cottages on a definite plan, with all conveniences.
- (2) City to receive donations of land on which, under city control, small cottages could be erected.
- (3) Every district in the city to be separately treated, and building restrictions relaxed as a war measure. In certain number of a few limited districts allow erection of frame cottages, as a war measure, with all conveniences.

A survey of the whole situation should also be made, the mayor thinks, to ascertain the real extent of the shortage. A study should also be made of the class of houses required, the location, the social condition of those requiring houses, the value of the land and kindred subjects. The suggestion is made that it is desirable for the city to appoint a committee of its own practical officials composed of the finance commissioner, assessment commissioner, commissioner of works, medical health officer and city architect, to make a comprehensive report.

"And I would further suggest," the mayor says, "in order to eliminate conflict and duplication of effort, that this committee be in lieu of the committee named by the local board of health, and the property committee, and that the local board of health and the property committee be respectfully asked to consent to this." The controllers also heard a deputation from Riverdale who came to seek information regarding the operations of the Toronto Housing Co. They are not altogether satisfied with the way things are being conducted. Finance Commissioner Bradshaw, who will prepare for them the information they desire, took occasion to say: "The Toronto Housing Co. has no connection with the Hamilton Brokerage Company. I want to be absolutely fair. There wasn't one cent paid for promotion to any one in any firm or any corporation. Every dollar realized on the bonds went into revenue-producing property. Not a cent of commission was paid."

NO CHARGE ENTERED.

William McPhee, 138 Atlas avenue, who was held by the police for a short time on Saturday afternoon, after he had given himself up on the understanding that there was a charge against him of receiving stolen property, appeared in police court on Monday, but was not called to the dock, it being discovered there was no charge against him.

The misunderstanding arose through McPhee having in his possession a pig which had been rescued from drowning in the bay. It belonged to Robert Wags, Todmorden.

MISS ROBB PROMOTED.

Miss Maureen Robb, who before going overseas was a member of the staff of The Winnipeg Tribune, has been gazetted O.C. of one of the divisions of the Queen Mary Auxiliary Corps in France.

CAN'T HAVE SHELTERS.

The Toronto Railway Co. will not be allowed to erect fare box shelters at various points throughout the city. Commissioner Harris was in favor of granting the necessary permission, but the board of control yesterday thought otherwise.

Amos, 18 assessment of $48.272 on Lee avenue, which has been increased from $4250 to $4750 an acre.

RAILWAY APPEALING FROM ASSESSMENTS

An appeal has been entered by the Canadian Northern Railway Co. against the assessment on 7 1/2 acres on Danforth avenue of $50,375. It had been increased from $40,000 to $50,000 an acre. A large number of appeals has also been made in the Beaches district. One from A. E. Ames is against an assessment of $48,272 on Lee avenue, which has been increased from $4250 to $4750 an acre.

On nearly every street in the district increases have been made, as the following will show: Balsam avenue, from $25 to $40 and $45; Spruce Hill road, from $25 to $35; Beech, from $25 to $35; Silver Birch, from $25 to $32; 2072 and 2074 Queen street, from $115 to $125 a foot. Queen street land near the city limits has all been increased from $40 to $60, $45 to $60, and $55 to $85, and other advances of $5 and $7 have also been made on Woodbine, Kenilworth, Waverley road, Bellefair, Wheeler and other streets.

Buildings in the same district have been increased as well as the land. The manufacturers on Carlaw and Logan avenues are also appealing on the ground that their assessments are too high.

ALL ARE TREATED IN SAME MANNER

No Difference Between Artificial Limbs for Men and Officers.

Capt. Ryan, the officer in charge of the invalided soldiers' commission, Keene's building, Toronto, when interviewed by a Toronto World representative, denied that any distinction was being drawn in the kind of artificial arms supplied to returned officers and returned N. C. O.'s and men. He declared that the artificial limbs supplied to the officers were identical to those furnished the men. The World had received a report that returned soldiers coming back minus an arm were being furnished with an artificial one made in Toronto, and valued at about $40, while a returned officer needing an artificial arm was given one made in Kansas City, and valued at $250 each, or $225 each when bought in lots.

When informed that a number of returned soldiers had found the artificial limbs supplied to them by the commission had proven unsatisfactory, and that the men had found it necessary to discard them and purchase new artificial limbs from private companies in Toronto, Capt. Ryan said that this could no doubt occur.

He denied absolutely that there was any "camouflaging" of the men receiving artificial limbs by rushing the proceedings when they were signing papers to show they considered the limbs satisfactory. He stated also that it was only according to business procedure for the government to require a receipt for the limbs supplied to the men.

Capt. Ryan said that even if a soldier signed for a limb, and afterwards found it unsatisfactory, the fact of his signing for it would not debar him from further aid by the commission. As a matter of fact the commission's staff would do everything it could to put things right, and made it a rule always to give the man the benefit of the doubt, when questions arose. It was only logical that the staff would do the fair thing by the returned soldiers, as practically all the male assistants on the office staff of the commission's commandant were returned soldiers.

Receives $5,000 From Depot at Sao Paulo, Brazil.

The Toronto branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society has received $5,000 from the British war work depot, Sao Paulo, Brazil, for the benefit of wounded Canadian soldiers. The sum was obtained as the result of a sale of work, a moving-picture show and a card party held at the home of Mr. D. Mulqueen, Toronto, Ottawa, Quebec, Montreal and Winnipeg were each represented by a booth at the sale and the Sao Paulo Tramway, Light and Power Co. furnished music for the occasion. The donation is being used for the equipment of the new Officers' Convalescent Home at Bexhill, England.

WILL INVESTIGATE THIS.

Complaints have been made to the city hall that rag and bone collectors are becoming a nuisance by ringing door bells, cutting across lawns and generally annoying people. The chief of police will investigate.

Mr. and Mrs. Yettich, the latter of whom is an English woman who went from England with the Scottish Women's Hospital Unit, in 1915, to cross the Atlantic in the hospital ship, were taken part in the retreat, are now at the King Edward.

NEW REGULATIONS HERE FROM OTTAWA

Deal With Discharge of American Citizens Who Enlisted Voluntarily.

New regulations governing the discharge of United States citizens who voluntarily enlisted in the Canadian Expeditionary Force were received by Toronto military headquarters from Ottawa yesterday afternoon. Applications, on the ground of American citizenship, for the discharge of recruits voluntarily enlisted in the United States thru the British Canadian recruiting mission must be referred to militia headquarters with a full statement of facts. Upon application being made the applicant will be paraded before his commander and an explanation obtained as to whether he himself has requested discharge and how he claims American citizenship in view of the statements made in his attestation papers.

It will be necessary for the applicant to furnish the reason for his delay in making application for discharge.

In cases where the American consul asks for the discharge he will furnish information and a certificate in support of the claim that the man is an American citizen and he will be informed that the man will not be sent overseas, pending investigation and the production of official information in support of his claim.

In cases where the man discharged is subject to the United States Military Service Act, between the ages of 21 and 30, both inclusive, arrangements will be made to hand him over to the United States military authorities at a point along the boundary to be arranged by the headquarters of the district concerned and adjoining district in the United States.
