The Horses are, without doubt, the most desirable lot we have ever offered without reserve, consisting of Draft Mares and Geldings of excellent conformation, including many well matched pairs, all weights from 1200 to 1750 pounds. The lightest of these horses are breedy-looking, strong drivers, suitable for driving, delivery or general purpose work. They are all unusually good patterns, and were bought in the Province of Ontario by expert judges under veterinary inspection during the past few months. They have been in regular work since, and now in seasoned condition. The ages range from

Wagons, Lorries, Democrat Wagons, Buggies, Heavy Team Sleighs, Cutters and Four-Passenger Sleighs. Many of these are as good as almost new, team harness with breeching and chain-end traces, the very best that money could buy. Most of this harness was bought of light and medium weight, double and single driving harness.

LOOKS LIKE FOUR CLUBS IN NATIONAL

Schedule Meeting Will Be Held Here Today-The N.H.A. Burlesque.

Montreal, Dec. 13.—President Frank Calder has called a schedule meeting, of the National Hockey League for to-morrow at Toronto. It will then be de-cided as to whether the league is to earry out a three or a four-club schedule,

It is understood that two new applications are in for franchises for teams, from Quebec and Toronto, respectively. FRANK IS RIGHT.

Frank Calder, as president of the Na-dional Hockey Association, has called a special directors' meeting for Monday afternoon at half-past four, to take place

Monday's Mass Meeting Interests

Surprise in International

He laughs at the idea of Percy Quinn making himself president of the National Hockey Association.

"He had no right to such title," says Mr. Calder, "till he is duly elected at an annual meeting, and till he has the books and the seal of the company in his possession."
