NEWMARKET, June 2 .- (Special.)-In a convention which Saturday packeed the town hall to overflowing, Frederick Underhill of Aurora was nominated to contest the riding of North York in the Liberal interest in the provincial legislature in opposition to the sitting member, Herbert Lennox, M. L. A. In the early stages of the meeeting there was a decided criffiness in the political temperature, but under impassioned eloquence of the seasor of the opposition, Hon. G. P. Graham, the enthusiasm was gradually aroused, .n. til it resembled an old-time North York convention.

H. S. Cane presided and in response to a call for candidates these were nominated: Seneca Baker, Fred Undernill, Eugene Cane, H. S. Cane, Aubrey of the peace.

Hon, G. P. Graham said the Liberal government was dead. With the causes of their death he was not concerned. The Whitney administration had found a surplus of some $2,000,had found a surplus of some $2,000,000, but were dissipating it. They had, in turn, condemned the Soo roan, the building of the government railway, and every good movement, only to adopt them now as their own.
