With the longing to look on your While the touch to the things you while the touch to the things you wore, dear.
The picture that memory can see,
Wrings a cry from our hearts that must carry
Our loving remembrance to thee.
But gently our Savior is teaching
That there, in His wonderful home,
In the comfort and warmth of His presence,

You are not sad, nor alone;
And tenderly, too, He is proving
How truly, "Abide in Me,"

The nearer we are to thee.
