He ranks second in fame only to Caruso, and critics are pre- dicting for him an even greater career than Enrico's for he is a very young man. Exchange tickets for the National Chorus concert are now on sale by holders of the chorus and at Massey Hall and Nordheimer's. The plan opens, holders of these tickets can save at Massey Hall, when $2.50 seats will be exchanged in the morning and $1 seats in the afternoon. The plan will be open to the public at a date to be announced later.

Writing in The New York World, Pierre R. Key, its musical critic, has said concerning Eugene Yease, the master-violinist, who is to give a recital in Massey Hall this Tuesday evening: "Yease has everything." This is literally true and sums up completely the status of the man in three words that could scarcely be more comprehensively employed. From no artist among those heard in Toronto this season is more welcome than this celebrated Bal- chun and great interest centers around the approaching event, which, in addition to being one of the rare musical events of the season, will also be a social event of first importance.
