RALLY FOLLOWS BREAK RAILWAY STOCKS LEAD

TUESDAY MORNING NOVEMBER 16 1920

Gross Recessions of From One to Four Points Are Recovered-Trade Conditions Continue Discouraging With Closing of Copper Mines Reported.

New York, Nov. 15.—The week in the stock market opened with a resumption of the recent pronounced reactionary trend, but this was checked before midday after several new low records had been established by speculative industrials and affiliated specialties.

Heavy selling in the first hour, when dealings approximated 400,000 shares, probably included the further weeding out of weakened accounts, whose holders were unable or unwilling to respond to calls for extra marrins.

Gross recessions extended from one to almost four points, but most of these ware recovered when buying of a supposedly substantial character set in among the seasoned rails and industrials of the type represented by railway equipments and popular oils.

Such leaders as United States Steel, Reading, Southern Pacific, Northern Pacific and Pan-American Petroleums and five displaying marked recuperative govers, made a net loss of 1½. Sales amounted to 1,100,000 shares.

Chicago, Nov. 15 .- Material upturns in

The continued price concessions and attractive sales indicate a growing disposition on the part of retailers to reduce stocks of merchandise, but these efforts to stimulate demands are not having the hoped-for results in many cases, because of a belief among buyers that further reductions will later be forthcoming.

Moreover, the unusually mild weather that has prevailed during most of the fall has served to shorten the season, and has had an especially adverse effect upon the distribution of heavy-weight apparel.

The hopeful features in the commercial situation are now bring overshadowed by the unfavorable aspects, but the price reaction in primary markets has caused less disturbance than might have been expected, and more wholesome conditions will follow the completion of the present readjustment.

Industrials and Values Reviewing recent conditions, industrially and marketwise, it immediately becomes evident that the decline in many of the industrial issues is entirely unwarranted. If this be so the market is replete with attractive bargains in the industrial issues. This matter is treated in our Market Letter of November 5, 1920, which also gives the latest information on over seventy Industrial, Mining and Oil issues. Including—

A Reason

THE mining issues have stood up very much better than have the Industrial, Railroad and other supposedly Standard securities during the recent past. There's a reason! Our Market Despatch tells the story, as well as contains news which should mean very substantial profits to the early buyer.
