Scale

Known only by a chosen few two men who's silver locks and wrinkled brow bore eloquent testimony that they had passed the three score on life's pathway, settled a dispute as to which was the beet pedestrian. Paul McAloon, aged 91 had expressed it as his unalterable opinion, that he could hold his own with any one his age or in that vicinity. The remark was made it seems in the presence of John Bradley aged 72 and was taken by him. It was therefore arranged that the test would be three fore arranged that the test would be the suspension bridge and return. Tuesday was the day set, and so quietly was the affair managed that it has only now leaked out. The first to start was Mr. Bradley and his time was 33 minutes. Mr. Bradley and his time was 33 minutes. Mr. McAloon followed and the best he could do was one hour and ten minutes. The former, however, it is learned, was much used up from the effort while the older man proved more of a Marathoner and was quite fresh at the finish and announced himself good for it again easy.

INDIANTOWN NEWS

The tug Flushing arrived at Indiantown this morning with a raft of 600 joints. The Lily brought in a 550 joint raft. The water is within a foot and a half of summer.

TARTARS AND MARATHONS

Swift Ball Games on Every Day C'ub Grounds Today and Tomorrow - Extra Game To-

It has been arranged to have three games between the Fredericton Tartars eady announced for this afternoon and tomorrow afternoon, the teams will clash again this evening at 7 o'clock. All three games will be played on the Every Day Club grounds. This afternoon's contest will start at 4 o'clock, and tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Fredericton team arrived this morning, and captain Arthur Finnemore states that it is the strongest the Celestial City has sent out in a long while. In every department is the team strong, but specially so in their pitching staff, the box artists being Ernie Boone and Dick Malloy. The teams will probably line up as follows:

The batteries of both teams will be changed for the evening games.

POLICE COURT

Maligned Young Woman Seeking Satisfaction Referred to Supreme Court— Other Cases

The new up-town office of the Eastern Steamship Company has been opened and should prove a great convenience to the traveling public. The office is located in the Royal Pharmacy, under the direction of the proprietor, Silas McDiarmid, and is very nicely fitted up.

A very delightful time was spent last evening by the members of the Teleprapher's Club at their clubhouse at the "Forns." There were between thirty and forty present, and the evening was devoted to a most enjoyable programme of dances.

At a meeting of the Sunday School committee of the Church of England Synod, held yesterday, a committee was appointed to bring in a report on teacher training, and another to look after the lately established minimum stipend of $890 a year and rectory. Rev. Canon Smithers was chosen to attend to the abandoned church at Anagance.

John Amos, a middle aged man employed as carpenter on the Marsh Bridge repair work was injured this morning allowed the wrist will be necessary.

Before Judge McKeown this morning J. A. Barry applied for the diamissal of the bill in the divorce case of Lundiborg vist costs. J. B. M. Bayter opose the application and judgment was reserved. The plaintiff in the suit is a Norwegian ship owner and master, and he married the defendant in Australia. She was fined $100 for selling liquor on Sheffield street less than a year ago.

CAUGHT ANOTHER

A vory delightful time was spent last evening by the members of the Eastern on a street recently and admonished him for conversing with the younge woman, hearing the street last when the street. Mrs. Paterson did not direct her rather disparaging comments to Miss Alberts as a mother, and accompany to the sale of the scale with the younge woman hearing. The following day it is alleged, that the irate mother referred to Miss Alberts as a mother, and accompany to the sale with the younge woman hearing. The following day it is alleged, that the irate mother referred

The tug Flushing arrived at Indiantown this morning with a raft of 600 joints. The Lily brought in a 550 joint raft. The waster is within a foot and a half of summer level up river. The conditions for towing, however, in this regard are much better than last year. The river has risen twice since the spring freshet. Last year at this time it had fallen very low indeed. The pretty little steam launch "Wanita," the property of Lorne Whelpley, of Carter's Point, is at Indiantown having some repairs made to her engine. The boat is 40 feet long and has a good sized cabin.

The May Queen today brought a fair quantity of new potatoes. She also had a number of crates of blue berries, some strawberries and green peas..

The steamer Majestic is expected to go on the route again tomorrow night.

A ROUSING MEETING

A very successful meeting in the interests of A. F. Bentley, the Liberal candidate in the approaching by-election for St. John county, was held last evening in the hall at Great Salmon River. Councillor Robert Connolley presided, and the issues were ably presented by E. H. McAlpine, K. C., and J. F. Tweeddale, M. P. P. There was a large attendance of the electors, and the speakers were heartily applauded, as they scored the government for their broken pledges and their unworkable road act.

Pidgeon's Made-to-Order Suits at $16.50 to $26.50 are real specimens of clothes perfection and clothes economy.
