ACTIVITY OF THE BOB THROWERS.

No Special News From the Seat of War Today, But Conditions in Russia Do Not Improve--Rojevsky's Fleet--Gorky III.

St. Petersburg, March 27.--12.40, a. m.--A private letter written in January has been received here from an officer of Vice Admiral Rojevsky's squadron. The writer describes the activity of the ships in target practice and manoeuvring and the cruisers' reconnaissance eastward. Life aboard the ships, the writer says was very uncomfortable, owing to the immense quantities of coal stored on the upper deck in all the free spaces, and owing to the heat which was inducing various tropical diseases. All is quiet in Manchuria.

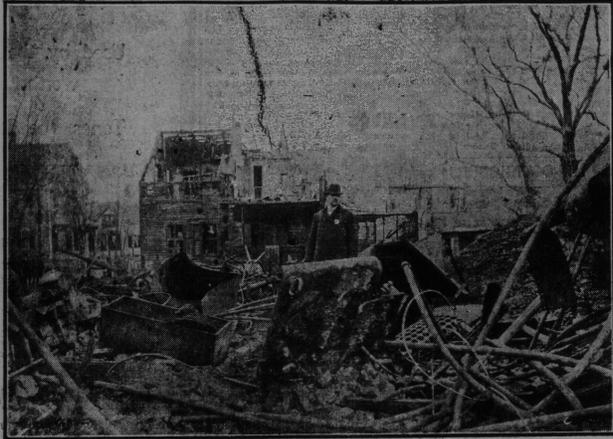

The Bomb Throwers.

Warsaw, March 27.--1.58, p. m.--Baron Von Nolken, chief of police of Warsaw, who was injured by the explosion of a bomb yesterday, owes his life to the bad aim of his assailant, who threw the bomb behind instead of underneath the carriage. The body of Von Nolken is full of innumerable splinters of the bomb. His assailant has not yet been arrested. The man who previously threw a bomb into the police station at Prague a suburb of Warsaw, injuring six policemen, is believed to be dying.

MAY BE A HOT TIME. Indications Point to Many Candidates For Civic Honors.

There is every indication of a lively time in civic affairs next election day. In addition to the ticket of the Citizens' League, there will be a number of the present aldermen who will seek reelection without the support of the league, and many others have signified their intention of contesting for a seat on the council and of expressing their preference for the Citizens' League. Alderman Macrae will, it is stated, run for reelection for Wellington ward, while Alderman Carleton will probably be again in the field as a candidate for alderman-at-large. With Duffin ward open for a candidate, it is probable that Alderman Daley will be the choice, and should he not be chosen, his friends outside the league are determined to persuade him to offer again. Charles Fosse has announced that he will be a candidate for Prince ward, and it is said that Geo. E. Holder will oppose ex-Ald. Baxter in Brooks ward. The names of T. T. Lantulum and H. H. Pickett have been before the people for some time and it is probable that they will take a hand in affairs. Green also has announced that he will oppose Mr. Patchell in Victoria ward. John Edgewood and D. McArthur

THE BROCKTON HOLOCAUST.

Inspector Skinner, of the police, who first found the engineer's body in the boiler pit and remnants of the body in the box. A portion of the thigh is shown attached to the seat of the chair. Many stories broadcast about the engineer, David Rockwell, having been away from his post of duty and that he escaped destruction and fled, having been seen by parties, were all proved absolutely false by the finding of the remains sitting in the engine pit, in a chair close beside a window from whence he could look and see his home and little ones. In the picture can be seen the engineer's home, which was smashed by the boiler, which was blown over it and was stopped by the house on the other side.

COURSE OF LOVE WAS NOT SMOOTH.

Ottawa Bridegroom Arrested in New York One Hour After His Marriage to Sixteen Year Old Madeline Gildersleeve of Brooklyn.

New York, March 27.--The Times this morning says--"An hour after Edward W. Stewart, 32 years old, who came to New York some months ago from Ottawa, Ont., married sixteen year old Madeline Gildersleeve, daughter of Mrs. Sylvester Gildersleeve of Clinton street, Brooklyn last night, he was arrested by a detective and locked up on a charge of abduction. Miss Gildersleeve's mother is a woman of considerable fortune. Her father, Sylvester Gildersleeve, was a lumber merchant. With the Gildersleeves lived her aunt, Miss Caroline Johnson. The family is well known in Brooklyn. Stewart met Miss Gildersleeve through her aunt, to whom he was introduced shortly after his arrival in New York. He made such a good impression that she engaged him as her confidential agent in some building operations in which she was engaged. He came to the Gildersleeve home to live, and there he met Miss Gildersleeve. Stewart paid the girl such marked attention that her mother and aunt objected. They both liked Stewart and told him that if he would wait for three years, until Miss Gildersleeve was old enough to know her own mind, they would not oppose his suit. Saturday there came a disagreement between the Canadian and his employer and Miss Johnson discharged him. He left the Gildersleeve home and engaged quarters at the Clarendon Hotel. Yesterday morning Miss Gildersleeve ordered the family carriage and started out for a drive in the park. When she had not returned by five o'clock, her mother went to the Adams Street police station, and told the circumstances of her child's disappearance, preferring a charge of abduction against Stewart, whom she suspected of knowing something about her daughter's whereabouts. She asked that policemen be detailed to go to the Clarendon and place him under arrest. When the policemen did not find the man there, she went to the Butler street station and Detective Sergeant Levers was put on the case. He finally learned that Stewart had a friend in Flatbush Levers reached this friend's house at nine o'clock. There he learned that Stewart and Miss Gildersleeve had been married at eight o'clock by Rev. Dr. Lloyd of the Flatbush Reformed Church. The girl had represented herself, the minister said, as being 19 years old. The detective arrested the bridegroom and took him away, leaving his newly made wife weeping bitterly and begging to go with her husband. Mrs. Gildersleeve and Miss Johnson were at the station house. While they were holding the centre of the door, T. J. Asst, a contractor, appeared. He accused Stewart of passing a worthless check for $100 on him. The check, so Mr. Asst said, was drawn by Stewart on the Union Bank and when presented for payment, it was found there were no funds. This charge was also registered against the prisoner, who was then placed in a cell. Levers was sent back to Flatbush to arrest the girl, who had disappeared, but up to a late hour they had not returned.

Rioters Make Havoc.

Yalta, Crimea, March 27.--The situation here is becoming worse. Rioters have destroyed nearly all the warehouses and vodka shops and the police station and a number of shops have been set on fire. Troops are guarding the post office, and treasury building. The arrival of reinforcements of soldiers is expected momentarily.

Notes in Brief.

St. Petersburg, Mar. 27.--Since the proclamation of a state of siege, work has been resumed at Batoum, and ships are again loading at the quays. St. Petersburg, Mar. 27.--Maxim Gorky's lung trouble is increasing and the anxiety of his friends. The doctors declare that his transfer from Riga to South Russia is absolutely essential, to be followed by his recovery.

THE PARISIAN HALF UNDER. No Cargo Removed Yet--The Pretorian Stood by All Night.

Halifax, N. S., March 27.--(Special)--The steamers Parisian and Albano still lie at the railway terminus, and immense crowds inspected them again today. The Parisian is on the bottom and cannot move until she is lightened. About half the vessel is under water and the other half shows clear from the water line. Her list to port increased by between four and five inches since last night. This morning a two-inch pump, belonging to the dry dock, was at work in the engine room, steam being supplied by the steam tug F. W. Rubing, lying alongside. The forward part of the ship has not been abandoned by the crew. They are living on board and this morning supplies were being taken on board for them. Up to noon the cargo in the forward hatch had not been removed as the deck winches were without steam. The crew of the Pretorian had orders to stand by to give assistance on the Parisian last night if it was needed. The Parisian has not yet been labelled by the Albano, though it is expected she will be today or tomorrow. It is argued on behalf of

POPE HELD A CONSISTORY.

His Holiness Complained of France's Attitude Toward the Church.

Rome, Mar. 27.--The pope held a secret consistory today without creating any cardinals, merely reappointing bishops. Monsignor Zolico Raciotti, was confirmed as auxiliary bishop of Montreal Quebec and the Right Rev. Thomas F. Hecker was confirmed as coadjutor bishop of Rochester, N. Y. All the cardinals met in the hall of the apostolic palace, where they received the pontiff, who entertained unostentatiously, dressed in white, surrounded by the papal court, and flanked by the noble guard and Swiss guard. When the pope was seated on the throne all the prelates advanced to pay him homage, after which only the cardinals remained. The pontiff then delivered an allocution, and immediately afterwards proceeded to the proclamation of his appointments. The allocation in moderate terms deplored the persecution from which the church suffered in some countries, and especially in France, where besides the diabolical rupture between the papacy and the state, for which the pontiff asserted was the greatest cause, the persecution of the religious orders, and putting obstacles in the way of the appointment of new bishops. To end the arbitration between Chile and Peru has been entrusted to the Holy See much satisfaction.

WOULD INDUCE STRIFE.

Rev. Clarence MacKinnon Speaks on the Subject of Separate Schools.

Sydney, N. S., March 27.--(Special)--His sermon last night, Mr. MacKinnon, said the introduction of the system would mean a national calamity to our young country. He said that separate schools struck at the very heart of unity and patriotism, which prevailed among Canadians. Separate schools would create useless strife, engender bigotry, and sectarianism, elements that were objectionable to a young nation like ours.

THE ROYAL REGIMENT

To Go to Halifax--Fredrickson Curlers---Ice Will Soon Melt.

Fredrickton, Mar. 27.--(Special)--Mrs. Martha Treadwell, widow of the late George A. Treadwell, died at Margerville this morning at the age of eighty-three years. She is survived by one son, Alfred A. Treadwell, and one daughter, Mrs. C. M. Sterling of Gibson. Another son, George A. died a few days ago. The deceased was a daughter of the late Amos Parley, who at one time represented Sunbury in the House of Assembly. The curlers will hold their annual meeting at the rink this evening, and will present the prizes won in the season's matches. A spacious dining hall has been fitted up on the second floor, and will be used this evening for the first time. Indications point to the early transfer of No. 4, company of the part of the garrison to be established. As far as known no orders have yet been received, but it is believed the first detachment will go forward the latter part of this week. Capt. Carlin has been notified to hold himself in readiness to proceed to Halifax on short notice. At a meeting of the members of St. Paul's Church yesterday, W. R. Logan, Harry Campbell, C. A. McVey and Fred Blackner were elected officers. The weather here continues very mild, and sleighing is about over for this season. A few days of fine weather will likely set the ice on the move.

A FIREMAN SETS FIRES.

Says He Did it For the Sake of Fighting Them.

New York, Mar. 27.--After a long investigation into a series of incendiary fires, the police of Bayonne, N. J. have arrested James McInerney, 22 years old. The prisoner belongs to a volunteer fire company, and it is alleged by the police that he admitted having started fires for the sake of fighting them. He has a record of having been arrested on several occasions, and frequently when his fellow members reached the engine house in response to an alarm they found him with his horses hitched and ready. For more than six months fires in the vicinity of McInerney's district have been numerous, and he is charged with having caused fifteen of them none entailing much loss, however. The first act of arson, however, against McInerney, ought to be re-adjusted by a reciprocity treaty.

HE WANTS A NEW TREATY.

The German Chancellor Thinks Germany Should Readjust Relations With U. S.

Berlin, March 27.--Privy Councilor Gumboldt, author of "The Land of Unlimited Possibilities," is about to publish simultaneously in Berlin and Brussels, a pamphlet on "American Danger," which is a continuation and supplement of his book, "The Economic Conditions of the United States and Germany," from various standpoints, and although recognizing the sources, the equipment and capabilities of the United States, he concludes that the American danger does not exist for Europe, especially not for Germany. Herr Gumboldt contends that the commercial relations of the United States and Germany, ought to be re-adjusted by a reciprocity treaty.

have also been mentioned as possible candidates, but those men when seen this morning, stated they had not made a definite decision as yet. B. R. Macaulay, who has been named as the League's candidate for Dukes ward, returned from his trip to England this morning and expressed great surprise when told that he was selected as candidate for alderman. Mr. Macaulay said that as he had not had time to consider the matter he could not say whether he would accept or not, but at present he could not see how he could afford to give up his time so early.

The Times New Reporter.

The new grass is two inches high on the prairie at Leithbridge. With fertilizer two inches deep on the streets of St. John, we may anticipate an early grass crop ourselves. A race war was narrowly averted in New York, the other day, when two German members of a club, with their German fondness for greens, thoughtlessly devoured the shamrock that a friend of the Irish members had just sent over from Ireland. A TRANSFORMATION. When the Donkohobers first settled in the Canadian west they started out, halless and bootless, over the prairies in search of a Divine Leader. Last week their representatives were in Ottawa looking for a subsidy.

Hereafter the Times new reporter will have an axe out for any man who has the hardihood to assert that the Donkohobers have not absorbed the true spirit of Canadian democracy. After only a year or two in the country they have come to have a realizing sense of the divinity of the dollar. Next year they will be selling their votes like good Canadians. Douk! Shake! From the number of aldermanic candidates cropping up all over the town it appears very clear that the executive of the Citizens' League did not approach the right men. Mr. Peter Binks states that he, for one, would have sunk his personal feelings beyond question, if he had been consulted by the executive of the League. Mr. Jameson-Kenney was in great fettle this morning. He has business in St. George, and was assured that the train would be running again that far not later than the latter part of April. Buffalo Bill has been refused a divorce, but will try again. Since it is said that he is going to settle in France, why not take French leave? A flock of wild geese passed over the city at noon, flying so low that it was evidently their intention to alight in one of the many rivers watering the streets of this town. On closer inspection of the streets, they elevated their bills and flew on. A crowd sat on a tree on Queen square this morning, and mourned over the loss of passing pedestrians, who deeply regretted their own lack of wings.

WEARY OF LIFE. Hamilton, Ont., March 27.--(Special)--Miss Mary Bells Lyne, a young lady 22 years of age, who resided with her parents, committed suicide yesterday afternoon by drinking a quantity of carbolic acid. Her health is assigned as the cause of the rash act. Miss Lyne having been poorly for some time. Coroner Baile, who was called in, decided that an inquest was unnecessary. J. F. Gleason went to Sussex this morning on a business trip.

A FATAL MARRIAGE. New York, March 27.--A Madrid special to the Herald says: "The official circles, the assurance is given that during the present visit of the Duke of Connaught to the Spanish court at Madrid, the marriage of King Alfonso to the Princess Victoria Patricia has been definitely arranged. The difficulties with regard to the religious question, have been arranged. Geo. S. Cushing, arrived home on the Boston express today.
