

No. 26—By adding, after the word "Vice-President"—"or such other Member of the Council as the Council may authorize." The By-Law will then read :—

All Acts and Deeds of the Association shall be signed by the President or Vice-President or such other Member of the Council as the Council may authorize, and by the Secretary, and may or may not be sealed with the Corporate Seal of the Association. The seal may be such as the Council shall from time to time ordain, and shall be in the official charge of the President.

No. 27—By eliminating the words "and also all property entrusted to it"; and eliminating the words "and in a report, submitted at every Annual Meeting of the Association, to state in detail all doings whatsoever in respect of such insurance." The By-Law will then read :—

It shall be the duty of the Council to keep all Buildings, Works of Art, Books and other property belonging to the Association at all times fully insured against loss by fire.

By cancelling By-Laws 29, 30, 31, 32 and substituting instead :—

The Council shall have the power to appoint such Standing Committees from the Members as shall be found necessary. Such Committees to be appointed as soon as possible after the Annual Meeting and hold office until the next Annual Meeting, and to determine the duties to be assigned to the respective committees.

The Council shall also have power to appoint Special Committees from the Members as may be found necessary from time to time, and to determine the duties to be assigned to such Committees.

No. 34—By cancelling the first sentence, and in the second sentence substituting the words "date of joining and thereafter on the same date in each succeeding year" for "beginning of the financial year." The By-Law will then read :—

The Annual Fees of Members shall be due at the date of joining and thereafter on the same date in each succeeding year, and shall be payable in advance.

No. 35—By eliminating the words "no expenditure shall be sanctioned by the Council until the same shall have been referred to and reported on by the Finance Committee." The By-Law will then read :—

The Treasurer shall, at an early Meeting of the Council after the Annual Meeting, submit a statement of Ways and Means for the current year, and it shall be the duty of the Council to revise the same, making reasonably sure that the Year's expenditure shall not be in excess of its income. No money or property received by the Association by gift or bequest, whether as contemplated by Clauses 3 to 6 or otherwise, shall be used for current expenditure, but the interest of such money, and the income of such property, may be so used.

No. 37—By eliminating the words "and all works so accepted shall be kept in permanence." The By-Law will then read :—

No Work of Art shall be accepted by the Association unless the same shall be, in the opinion of the Council, of undoubted value and of high order of merit. But the Association may acquire any works having an
