In the National League, there is every reason to believe that the club which beats the Glants will win the pennant Just what club will be able to accomplish this feat is a mystery. Surely Brooklyn will not be able to repeat last year's extraordinary occurrence. Brooklyn, by the way, is the only one of the major league clubs which has any of its best players outside the ranks. Zach Whet and Ed Pfeffer are still holding out, but this episode of ball players holding out has become such an old story that no one takes it seriously any more. From the outside it appears that Sam Ross, the Richmond left hander, and Bill Piercey, the right hander from the Salt Lake City club, are the most likely to stick with the Yanks. Both tried out here a year ago and then pitched fine ball in the minors. With added experience they should have the call over the young boxmen who are here for the first time, most of them lacking this same experience. Piercey won 20 games and lost 15 last season, while Ross won 15 and lost 13.

CURED HIS RUPTURE I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said my only hope of cure was an operation. Trusses did me no good. Finally I get hold of something that quickly and completely cured me. Years have passed and the rupture has never returned, although I am doing hard work as a carpenter. There was no operation, no lost time, no trouble. I have nothing to sell, but will give full information about how you may find a complete cure without operation, if you write to me, Eugene M. Pullen, Carpenter, 540 C Marcellus Avenue, Manasquan (N. J.) Better cut out this notice and show it to any others who are ruptured—you may save a life or at least stop the misery of rupture and the worry and danger of an operation.
