SAVED BABY BUT NO TRACE OF HIS WIFE

Soldier, Here From Halifax, Brings One of Many Pathetic Tales of Catastrophe

A special train from Halifax which arrived in St. John this morning at 10.30 o'clock, brought back to the city some of the refugees from the stricken city. There were very few St. John people. Most of the passengers were bound to other places throughout the province. As the passengers were detraining a soldier with a small blue-eyed baby in his arms stepping off the train. His eyes were filled with tears and he seemed to be in a state of bewilderment. When accosted by a newspaper man he said: "The baby and myself came through unscathed, but I don't know what fate my wife and child have. I said that when the explosion occurred he was on guard duty in the southern end of the city. As soon as he realized what had happened he rushed to his home and on arriving found nothing but a smouldering mass of debris. I dug at it for at least twenty minutes, he said, expecting with each turn of a stick to find the body of my wife and child. As I was digging, he said, "a passer-by informed me that possibly my family had been blown through the house as several others had been and lodged into a field about twenty-five yards away. Taking his advice I went over into the field, and there lay upwards of fifty bodies. I went over them all and was just about to leave the spot and return to the ruins of my house when I heard the cries of a baby. I stopped, I recognized the cry of a baby. I went to the spot and after removing some charred debris there lay my baby. I picked her up in my arms, feeling sure that she was badly injured, rushed to the nearest hospital, and the doctor after a thorough examination told me that the child was not even scratched.

"On learning this I left the baby in the hospital and returned to the ruins of my home and there I spent at least three or four hours digging in the ruins, looking for the body of my wife, but with no avail. The search I have not given up yet, I intend to return to Halifax tomorrow and if the body of my wife is to be found I intend finding it."

Mr. Graham is taking the baby to his mother's home in Milltown.

REV. MR. NOBLES RESIGNS CHARGE OF VICTORIA ST. CHURCH

Rev. B. H. Nobles has tendered his resignation as pastor of Victoria street Baptist church owing to ill health. He has been ailing for some time and upon the advice of his physician will take a much needed rest. If his health permits he plans to move to Denver, Col., in the spring.

REV. B. H. NOBLES

Rev. Mr. Nobles was ordained thirty-one years ago in Charlotte street Baptist church in West St. John. For two years he supplied at Wickham and then received the appointment to Victoria street church, where he remained for four years. He then accepted a call to Sussex where he remained for fourteen years. After a year in Campbellton he returned to this city and for the last eleven years has been pastor of Victoria street church. During his pastorate the church was renovated and a large addition built and a large new pipe organ installed. It is at present absolutely free from debt.

The resignation will go into effect at the end of this month. During the intervening time Rev. Mr. Nobles will have clerical supply. Yesterday Rev. George Scott supplied and read Rev. Mr. Nobles' resignation to the congregation.

FATHER McMURRAY SPEAKS OF SOLDIERS KILLED AND OF RECENT DISASTERS

In St. John the Baptist Church, Rev. F. J. McMurray yesterday morning referred to the death of another soldier of the parish on the battlefield—Alfred Patrick O'Brien. He said it was his sad duty to announce the death of another member of the parish at the front and in this case it was particularly sad, because, two years ago on next Saturday, the young man's brother, Corporal Charles O'Brien, had been killed in the war. He asked for the prayers of the congregation for these young men and all the soldier dead and for the men still fighting in the war.

Father McMurray also spoke of the loss of the steamer Simcoe, on which were St. John men, including several from St. John the Baptist parish. The people, he said, should pray for them that, if it were God's will, they would be rescued and restored to their families.

Reference also was made to the Halifax disaster and it was urged that all assistance possible be furnished to the stricken ones.

LOCAL NEWS

JEWISH FESTIVAL

LONG DISTANCE TROUBLES.

The New Brunswick Telephone Co. is still having trouble with its lines over the Tantramar marshes. It still has communication cut out over only one circuit. LONG EXPECTED RUSSIAN CIVIL WARS AT HAND

Cossack Leader With Former Commander in Chief is Leading—Bloody Contest is Outlook

London, Dec. 9.—A proclamation to the Russian nation has been issued by the Russian government, announcing that "Kaledines and Korniloff, assisted by the Imperialists and constitutional democrats, have raised a revolt and declared war in their own region against the people and the revolution. The proclamation adds that the constitutional democrats and Bourgeois are supplying the revolting generals with scores of millions.

"The workmen's and soldier's delegates have ordered the necessary measures of troops against the counter-revolution, and issued decrees authorizing the local revolutionary garrison to attack the enemies of the people without awaiting orders from the supreme authorities and forbidding any attempts at mediation."

London, Dec. 10.—The counter revolt in Southeastern Russia, under the leadership of Generals Kaledines, Dutoff and Korniloff, apparently is aimed at seizing the authority in that region and in cutting off food supplies from Siberia. According to the proclamation of the Bolshevik government, Gen. Kaledines forces are menacing Ekaterinoslav, Kharkov and Moscow. In the province of Orenburg the Bolsheviks have been overthrown by General Dutoff.

REVOLUTIONISTS IN PORTUGAL SUCCEED

Madrid, Dec. 9.—A telegram received here from Oporto says that the revolution in Portugal has ended with the success of the revolutionaries and that the government has resigned.

Dr. Alfonso Costa, former premier and minister of finance, has formed a provisional government.

JUDGE ARMSTRONG SPEAKS OF APPEALS

Judge Armstrong on opening appeal tribunal No. 2, which comprises the city of St. John, this morning in the admiralty court room, Fugatey buildings, said while he would give every consideration to representations made on each appeal, and would give ample opportunity for presenting the same, that he had confidence in the ability and fair-mindedness of the various members of the local tribunals for St. John, and that therefore he must uphold their decisions unless good cause was shown to the contrary.

In order that applicants should lose as little time as possible he had directed that, at least, the cases to be heard each day should be notified for the morning and the other half for the afternoon session. He added that as there would probably be some 200 cases to be taken up by this tribunal alone, he must refuse to hear any representations or appeals concerning the same except at the time and place appointed.
