INDIANTOWN HAS AN EXCITING RUNAWAY

While one of Murray & Gregory's teams was returning from Indiantown this morning, just at the top of the Indiantown hill, a shaft-pin broke and the horse ran away. The driver, Robert Prince, was thrown off and quite badly injured. He was taken to his home and collided with the side-board of a street car at the car sheds, and the wagon was smashed. Several teams had narrow escapes from collision.

Y. M. C. A. MATTERS

The Y. M. C. A. big Cove Institute has been declared off this year as the result of the lack of delegates and it is probable that instead there will be conferences throughout the provinces in the fall. The Nova Scotia and P. E. I. camp at Big Cove will, however, take place as usual from July 15 to Nov. 20. The New Brunswick Y. M. C. A. boys' camp will be held at Robertson's Point on the river from August 3 to 17. This latter camp is for any boy thirteen or over whether or not he is a member of the Y. M. C. A. Those in charge this year announce that should they run short of tent accommodation those whose applications are in first will be first accommodated.

Annual Meeting of New Brunswick Grand Lodge—Names of Delegates in Attendance

The New Brunswick Grand Lodge I. O. G. T., opened annual session in the Good Templars Hall, Haymarket Square, this morning. Grand Chief Templar J. V. Mason of Moncton presided and there were about sixty delegates in attendance. Reports of the grand electoral superintendent Michael Kelly, and the grand secretary L. R. Hetherington, were dealt with. The former reported that, beginning the latter part of August last, he had addressed 350 meetings, including Sunday services. Kings, Albert, Westmorland and York counties had been visited. Five new lodges had been organized and two re-organized. Much assistance had been received from Grand Chief Templar Jackson, Grand Secretary Hetherington and A. C. M. Lawson.

The secretary's report showed the membership last year to be 2962; 988 were initiated, seven joined by card and eighty-one re-initiated. Four members were lost by death; two by expulsion, 318 were suspended, twenty-nine withdrew from the order, forty-seven withdrew cards, 371 were lost in lodges forfeiting charter, and this brought the present membership to 3038. There are 194 lodges.

Adjournment was made at 12 o'clock and the session was resumed this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Grand Chief Templar's report and the report of the grand superintendent of junior lodges will likely be taken up this afternoon. Rev. J. A. Smith, of Lester, N. S., national grand chief templar, spoke on the growth of the order throughout Canada.

The following gives the list of the delegates: Alma, Mrs. Thomas Panjop; Upper Hainesville, Herbert Knox and Miss Bessie Wiggins; Fredericton, John Barker, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Baxter; Young's Cove Road, E. F. Dyer and Miss Bertha Crook; Cambridge, G. D. McAlpine; Miss Gertrude Colwell, George Hendry, and Leslie Slipp; McDonald's Corner, Miss William McDonald and W. H. Humphrey; Wasiss, James A. Steeves; Moncton, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Jackson, Truman Jackson, D. Verrier Jackson, Miss Mary Blake, George McClintock, C. A. Taylor, Mrs. Taylor, Wm. Scott and George Scott; St. John, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Smullen and George Mills; White's Mills, Miss Edith Miller, Miss Edith Long, William Miller, John Chittier, Harriet Long; Dorchester, Rev. B. H. House; St. Martins, Michael Kelly, Miss Florence Kelly; St. John, N. A. Thomas; James Rey, Miss Clara Westmore and E. N. Stockford.

PEJEPSCOT READY; ONE OF THE CREW GETS BACK GOLD CHAIN

The wrecked steam tug Pejepscot has been patched up and made water tight. Today she is lying alongside of the wrecking steamer Tasco at the end of the north wharf, where the wrecking crew are getting her in shape to be towed to Portland by the Tasco. They will leave here tomorrow morning.

The hull of the pejepscot is in very good condition, as is her machinery. While mate Hall of the Pejepscot was overhauling the debris this morning one of the crew recovered his valuable gold chain; and gold pin which were lost at the time of the accident.

CONNOLLY-McSORLEY

A very pretty wedding took place yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock in the church of the Assumption in Lancaster, when Miss Ellen McSorley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George McSorley of St. John, West, became the bride of Edward Connolly of the same place. The Rev. J. J. O'Donnovan, pastor of the church, officiated. After the ceremony, the wedding party returned to the home of the parents of the bride, where a bountiful supper was partaken of. After supper all made merry until about 10 p.m. with music, singing, etc. when the happy young couple took their departure, amid volleys of rice, for their own home, in St. John west.

The bride looked lovely in a costume of once heliotrope with hat to match and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. She was attended by Miss Laura Casey, of west St. John, who was attired in white and carried a beautiful shower bouquet of carnations, while the groom was supported by the bride's brother. The groom's present to his bride was an elegant scarf pin, while the bride's present was a beautiful gold brooch set with pearls. Many elegant presents in silver, cut glass, etc. were given to the young bride. That the happy young couple are very popular was amply demonstrated by the very large number of persons who were present in the church.

Men's Warm Weather Underwear

Best makers supply the Oak Hall underwear stocks—and that means underwear that fits, and that shows the best improvements in shape and finish. Fit is of importance, because an undergarment that doesn't fit is apt to tear from undue strain; and it's never fully comfortable, and during hot weather what is more irritating than having on ill-fitting underwear?

Price? You will find that right, in buying direct from the mills we save you the middleman's profits.
