BOARD OF TRADE IS TAKING UP TAXES MATTERS

Committee To Study Question With View to Applying Remedies

HEARING ON FREIGHT RATES IN MONCTON

Two Board Gatherings of Importance in Near Future

The appointment of a committee to study taxation matters, particularly local taxation, was recommended to the council of the Board of Trade this morning and reports on the proposed organization of an export section, the holding of a special general meeting and preparations for the hearing of the Maritime freight rate case were discussed.

The special committee, A. H. Wetmore and F. Maclure Sclanders, appointed to look into the taxation problem reported that they were convinced that this was one of the most important problems of the community and they recommended that a permanent committee be appointed to study it and report on remedies to be applied to equalize the burden of taxation.

The membership and finance committee reported that they had received word from A. O. Dawson, ex-president of the Montreal Board of Trade that he could be in Saint John on March 10 or 11 and they had decided to have a dinner on Thursday, March 11, at the Admiral Beatty Hotel. To this dinner all members of the board, together with interested citizens would be invited.

The committee reported this would be the first of a series of such functions, intended to make the members of the board better acquainted and bring them closer together.

FREIGHT RATES.

The maritime freight rate case committee reported that it was expected a hearing would be held in Moncton in the not very distant future and that J. L. Ralston, K.C., of Halifax, had been retained to act as counsel for the three Maritime governments. F. C. Cornell, expert engaged to prepare the brief, had removed to Halifax to be in close touch with Mr. Ralston.

IMPORTANT MEETING.

The committee in charge of the formation of an export section reported that a meeting would be held on the afternoon of February 25 at which W. McL. Clarke, A. E. Ryan and Alexander Marshall would be in attendance. To this meeting there had been sent invitations to the manufacturers in other parts of the province and to about 50 agriculturists interested in export.

MOVIE CONTEST WINNERS

Tomorrow, Friday night, the portraits of the movie stars included in the Imperial Theatre's late contest, will be again thrown on the screen and their names given out from the stage. This will simply be to inform the general public of the correct list. The examination of the many cards submitted in this contest was completed today and the names of the winners will be given out tomorrow, Friday evening. The awards themselves will be on exhibition in the Imperial window during the week-end.

HELEN WILLS WINS.

BEAULIEU, France, Feb. 18—Helen Wills won her match in the opening round of the Beaulieu tennis tournament today in straight love sets, defeating Miss Lily Hamerton.

Here Is Act Providing For Vocational School Expenses

FOLLOWING are the sections of the Vocational Schools Act, under which the vocational committee contend they are entitled to have the money for Vocational School expenses placed to their credit in the bank in the same manner as the regular school assessment, one-twelfth of the year's assessment each month.

THE VOCATIONAL EDUCATION ACT, 1923.

Section 9.—Each vocational committee shall submit for approval on or before the beginning of each school year, to the school board, or boards or county councils which appointed such committee, or any part of it, an estimate of the amount of money required for said school year, both on capital and maintenance accounts. Said approval having been granted, the amount of the said budget shall be placed by the approving school board or boards or county council to the credit of said committee in each case in a way that will enable it to meet all expenditures made within the amounts so approved throughout the year.

Section 4—(As amended April 17, 1925)—In cities and incorporated towns the board of school trustees may apply, and in districts where school trustees are elected the ratepayers may, at any annual meeting or any special meeting called for the purpose, by resolution, request the trustees of such school district to apply to the Vocational Board for power to establish, equip and maintain a vocational or pre-vocational school or department, setting forth and including in such application the plans of any proposed school building and the nature of instruction desired. Upon such application being approved of by the Board of Education, funds for the purpose of such school and the carrying on of the same in accordance with the provisions of this act shall in all respects, notwithstanding any limitation in any special or general act relating to school assessments for ordinary purposes, be provided by and through each board of school trustees, and assessment shall be made and the amount levied and collected and in all respects in the same manner as, and in addition to other funds for educational work under its control. For purposes aforesaid the board of school trustees shall have all the powers vested in it by The Schools Act, 1922.

SHIP COOK FINED ON LIQUOR CHARGE

Inspector Asked For Liquor on Ship and Paid For Bottle is Evidence

Lavai Antonis was fined $100 this morning in the Police Court on a charge of having sold intoxicating liquor on board the Italian steamer Perseo, at No. 2 berth, West Side. E. J. Henneberry appeared for the defence and J. Starr Tait was prosecutor under the act. John de Angelis was court interpreter.

Inspector Brown said that in consequence of a discussion between himself and Inspector Case, he went to the boat and asked the first man he met on board where he could buy a bottle of liquor. He was taken to the galley and asked the cook, Antonis, for a bottle. Accused produced the bottle and Brown paid him $3 for it. Mr. Henenberry called the chief engineer, Alaessi James, who stated that he had been in his cabin about 2.30 yesterday afternoon, when the inspector came aboard and asked him if there was a bottle of liquor for sale. James replied that there was none, then went into the cook house and asked the cook why men came aboard the vessel asking for liquor. He received no answer so went back to his cabin. That was all he knew. He emphatically stated that he had not conducted the inspector to the cook-house and asked the cook to give him a bottle.

COOK TELLS STORY.

The defendant stated that Brown had come into the galley and had asked by sign for a drink. The accused then produced the one bottle, which he kept in the galley for cooking purposes, and handed it to the inspector. The inspector put the bottle in his pocket and handed the cook $3. Antonis said he had not mentioned any price. It was stated that the Customs authorities would not take any action against the ship in this case.

SENTENCE SUSPENDED.

Anthony Allan, 74, charged with taking coal from the C. N. Ry. property in Mill street, was allowed to go on suspended sentence by Magistrate Henderson this morning. C. N. R. Detective Ryan gave evidence.

TRAVEL HEAVY ON STREET CARS

Winter Rush is Increased by Laying Up of Autos

Street Railway Men Win Praise For Work Keeping Lines Open

Reference has been made to the city's snow troubles of 1926, and also to the stret railway's work in keeping up the service in spite of the blizzard handicaps. Further particulars of the street railway matters in this regard that the N. B. Power Company's expenses for snow removal for the year to date are approximately $30,000, as against $37,000 for 1922. These figures include $13,500 which the company pays the city for snow removal.

The company will use during this winter over 1,500 lbs. of salt on the tracks and over 5,000 lbs. of rattan in the sweepers. The salt used comes from Turk's Island, while the rattan comes from the West Indies and Japan. The rattan in the brooms has to be replaced often, due to the severe service. Steel wire has been used in some places in place of rattan, but apparently does not give as good satisfaction.

KEEPING LINES OPEN

The street railway service has been practically uninterupted this year. Perhaps the worst conditions with which they had to contend were on the morning of the fire at the head of King street, which prevented the cars operating around King Square.

M. A. Pooler, general manager, said today that the company's success in maintaining the service throughout the winter had been due to the indefatigable efforts of the men engaged in this work and to the fact that the equipment was in first class condition, having been completely overhauled last fall.

Hazen McLean, who has charge of the transportation, including the snow fighting equipment, sweepers, etc., believes that the only way to prevent tie-ups is to be a little ahead of the storm. Whenever there is the slightest indication of a storm coming, he starts his equipment out on the various parts of the line, and is ready when the storm comes. Some of the men who are specialists in the handling of the sweepers have frequently worked over 20 hours at a stretch.

To Robert Harris, master mechanic, and the men in his department, is given the credit for keeping all of the cars in good operating condition at all times, and to Robert Chambers and his men the keeping of switches free from ice and in good operating condition.

TRAVEL IS HEAVY

Naturally the condition of the streets during the last month induced many automobile owners to lay their cars up for the winter, with the result that travel on the street cars is unusually heavy. The street railway earnings for January were the highest in the history of the company, while for the year 1925 they were but $2,000 lower than the highest year on record, 1922.

During the year 1925 the cars carried about 7,600,000 passengers, which was approximately 750,000 less than the previous year.

Mr. Pooler, questioned this morning regarding a report that the Power Company might inaugurate a suburban bus line service this summer said that the company directors were considering the matter but had nothing definite to say as yet.

RETIRED C. N. R. MAN PASSES SUDDENLY

James T. Brown, Former Baggage Master, Succumbs to Hemorrhage of Brain

Special to The Times-Star

MONCTON, N. B., Feb. 18.—The death occurred suddenly yesterday at his home, 55 Pearl street, of James Thomas Brown, retired C. N. R. baggagemaster. Mr. Brown was in his 77th year and had apparently been in his usual health prior to his death which is attributed to cerebral hemorrhage. The late Mr. Brown was a familiar figure on the I. C. R. passenger trains for many years and was well known not only among the railway men but among the traveling public generally. He retired on the provident fund some 12 or 15 years ago and has since that time continued to reside here. He is survived by his wife and an adopted daughter. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon.

MISS M. A. KELLY DIED THIS MORNING

Prominent in St. Peter's Parish and Daughter of Former Baggage Master

The death of Miss Mary Aileen Kelly took place at her father's residence, 51 Murray street. She was a daughter of William J. and the late Alice Kelly, and leaves to mourn, besides her father, who is well known, as he was for many years C. N. R. baggage master here, two brothers, William and M. A. Kelly, both of Montreal. Both were present in the city today on account of their sister's illnes.

Miss Kelly was one of the best known young ladies in St. Peter's parish, a consistent worker in many societies, while her charity was unbounded. She was a teacher in St. Peter's Sunday school, a diligent worker in the Sacred Heart League and Holy Family, also in St. Elizabeth Society and everything connected with the activities of the church. The funeral will take place on Saturday morning at 8.45 o'clock from her father's residence to St. Peter's church.

A garage in Denver, Colo., is made entirely from auto tags.

Germain Street Y.M.A. Events of Interest

In a series of educational nights of the Germain street Y. M. A., L. W. Simms will give an address on the manufacture of brushes, in the large class room of the institute this evening. It will be illustrated by lantern slides.

On next Thursday evening a debating team of the Y. M. A. will meet one from the Portland United Y. M. A. in the Germain street institute. This is a return match, the Portland young men having won a debate from the Germain street team last year. The subject for the debate next Thursday is: "Resolved that a higher tariff would increase the prosperity of the Maritime Provinces."

EXPECT 150 HERE FOR CONVENTION

Mrs. Heber Vroom Home Today, Speaks of Plans For I. O. D. E.

Mrs. Heber Vroom, regent of the Municipal Chapter Daughters of the Empire, who is also the elected representative from New Brunswick to the National Executive of the organization, returned from Toronto at noon today. She had been attending a session of the central executive.

JUNE CONVENTION HERE

Mrs. Vroom states that plans for the I. O. D. E. national convention in Saint John beginning Sunday June 6 are shaping rapidly. Already the national secretary is busy with the agenda which will embrace a wide range of patriotic and public welfare subjects. It is expected there will be over 150 accredited delegates from outside Chapters who with the full membership of local chapters, will make a large attendance.

CHURCH SERVICE

The opening of the convention here will be a divine service, probably in Trinity church, on June 6 and throughout the week until June 12 each day will be filled with business and social activity.

Funerals

T. Boen.

En route to Halifax to sail for Norway to visit his old home, he left 18 years ago, to settle in the Canadian west, Thorspien Boen, Norwegian, died on the Montreal train which arrived here yesterday. He was accompanied by his wife and son. Mrs. Boen made arrangement; for the funeral and then proceedd to Halifax with her son to catch the boat on her sad home-going. The funeral was held here this afternoon from Fitzpatrick's funeral parlors, and service was conducted by Rev. R. Taylor McKim. Interment was made in Fernhill.

Miss Mary Kane

The funeral of Miss Mary Kane was held this morning at 8.45 o'clock from her late residence, 48 Sea street, West Saint John, to the Church of the Assumption for requiem high mass by Rev. H. Ramage. Interment was made in Holy Cross cemetery. The funeral was attended by many friends and many floral tributes and spiritual bouquets were sent by friends.

Mrs. Lee Stockton, of Petitcodiac, has returned home after a 10 day visit to Boston.
