

PROPOSE N. S. AND N. B. CHAMPIONS FOR BASEBALL SEMI-FINALS

WINNERS WOULD THEN MEET P.E.I. FOR THE TITLE

Watermen Expect Plenty of Opposition at Bathurst Today

A PROPOSAL to have the winners of the Water Department-Bathurst series for the New Brunswick senior amateur baseball title meet the winners of the Springhill-Westville game on Saturday in the semi-finals of the Maritime Provinces crown will be made to amateur officials handling the playoffs by W. E. Stirling, New Brunswick vice-president. The winner of this N.B.-N.S. series will meet the P. E. I. winners, Charlottetown, for the Maritime title. It is probable that Mr. Stirling's proposal will be O. K.'d and if it is, it is within the bounds of probability that either Springhill or Westville will play here against the Watermen next week. This, of course, depends on approval of the plan and the winning of the N. B. title by the Watermen, who are playing the first game in Bathurst today.

EXPECT OPPOSITION That the Watermen expect no easy time at Bathurst was evidenced by the strong line-up they took along last night for the first game which opens at Bathurst this afternoon at 4 o'clock, Saint John daylight time. The easy manner in which Champoux, the Bathurst speed ball artist, disposed of Chatham, twice runners-up for the New Brunswick title, has left many around here to think that he will give the local plenty to think about before the last man in. Prior to his departure, Manager Snodgrass said he probably would start Hannah in the box this afternoon with Gorman in reserve. He is saving his brilliant young star, Lloyd Stirling, for Saturday's game here. If the local champions win at Bathurst as they expect to do, Saturday's game will be the deciding one for the 1935 provincial title. Should the Watermen lose at Bathurst and win here on Saturday, a third game probably will be played here on Monday. A great deal, therefore, depends on the outcome of today's game and the locals are anxious to win it and get an edge in the series.

WEST SIDE MEET IS POSTPONED New Date is Oct. 3 Owing to Few Senior Class Entries.

Because of the small number of entries in the senior classes for the school boy athletic meet, which is being arranged by the West Saint John Y.M.C.A. grounds committee for the schools of West Saint John, Beauséjour and Fairville, it has been decided to postpone the meet from the coming Saturday until Oct. 3, by which time it is hoped that greater interest in the meet will have been aroused and sufficient entries will have been secured for the senior classes. P. J. Legge, chairman of the committee, said last night that the entries received for the first and second classes had been very satisfactory but that there were only about three entries for the third class and four for the fourth class.

The Entries. The entries that had been received last night came from the various schools, as follows: Fairville Superior School, 28; New Albert, 10; Beauséjour, 5; St. Patrick, 2, and four from A. V. Wright, secretary of the committee, will endeavor to visit the New Albert, LaTour, Beauséjour and St. Patrick's schools today and get in touch with the boys. C. H. Cochrane is also taking an active interest in getting the boys to enter. The committee has announced that all entries which have been made up to the present time will hold good for the postponed meet and that the time and place for weighing in for other competitors will be announced later.

The shield which has been provided for perpetual competition in West Saint John school boy athletic meets is the gift of the men residing on DeMott street, West Saint John, and has now arrived at the city. A newspaper cut of the shield is being made in order that it may be published and all of the citizens may have a chance to see how handsome a trophy has been donated.

RETURN BOUT NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Contracts for a return fifteen round featherweight championship fight between Babe Herman, former California boxer, and Louis (Kid) Kaplan, Meriden, Conn., title holder, at the new Madison Square Garden on December 18, were signed yesterday by Kaplan's management, Herman, whose challenge and fight for a second title fight have been accepted by the New York Boxing Commission, is expected to sign within a few days. Kaplan successfully defended his title against Herman at Waterbury, Conn. several weeks ago by obtaining a draw with the challenger, but the verdict failed to meet with approval at the hands of Herman's friends.

Along The Sport Trail

WE GAVE prominence yesterday to some opinions on amateur sport as expressed by W. E. Findlay, Montreal, in his presidential address at Toronto last week wherein he deplored supplying needless equipment to amateur athletes and the frequency with which amateur officials ignored the amateur spirit if not the letter of the law. The Montreal man talked considerably in generalities and it is a bit difficult to follow his line of reasoning. In one breath he lamented the lack of the real amateur spirit and in the next inhalation, he pleaded for a lessening of the drastic punishment laws of the amateur body.

If Mr. Findlay means to say that it is not right to supply an athlete with a baseball shirt or a pair of shoes or not to present him with some token of appreciation of his work during the season, his suggestions will find little sympathy among the rank and file of amateur officials. The vast majority of the boys who take part in amateur sport are not the sons of millionaires or others with a bankroll even half as big as that and if the public wants clean, amateur sport it certainly does not expect to get it for nothing. And if the public foots the bills it is not right that those bills should be for the legitimate expenses of the sport. If the money does not go in this direction, where will it go? It may be argued that in the good old days it was not thus. But conditions in the world of sport now and then have changed considerably in the matter of equipment alone. This business of promoting modern sport is anything but an easy financial affair. Ask any organization in the city if we are not correct in this view and it might surprise you to hear of heavy losses sustained.

TWO YEARS AGO at the annual meeting of the C. A. A. U., a resolution was passed fixing the value of any article presented to an amateur athlete at not exceeding $100. This year, we are informed, a resolution was introduced aimed to cut that figure down to $35 and among its strongest proponents was Mr. Findlay. It was quickly thrown out. And why? We cannot read the minds of those who opposed it but at least they must have been animated by a broad spirit of tolerance and appreciation for these young men, who spend much of their spare time in providing clean amusement. And the best part of it is that this time is given freely and wholeheartedly simply because they like to do it. And if that is not the real amateur spirit, what is? They don't go into it much for the trophies or prizes but they do go because they like the game and the spirit of competition and they expect to be treated fairly.

RUTH MUST WORK HARD TO REGAIN LOST PLACE

When Jack Dempsey was introduced recently at the dedication of a new boxing club in Los Angeles, he was greeted with hisses and boos. The greeting awakened him to the fact that the public was sour on him and that a king is just as open to the raspberry as a bum. When Babe Ruth was suspended and fined $5,000 for his conduct in the New York Yankees he couldn't find a single sympathizer. Even his wife would not defend him. He didn't get the vocal razz that Dempsey received, but he might have under similar conditions. Ruth had more of a personal following than the world's heavyweight champion, but he didn't have one left when the long suffering little Huggins booted him off the team and sent him home from St. Louis. Those of his admirers who still have a word for him hope that he will take a lesson from his latest experience in contesting authority, but it is unlikely that he will. He has survived experiences in the past and forgot them just as soon as he was out of them.

The fine of $5,000 and the loss of $7,000 in salary ought to wake up a big fellow, but it is unlikely that he will be awakened until it is too late. He never has realized the value of money. He has broken before and didn't learn his lesson. He worried little because he could always draw on his salary in advance, but he is getting to the point now where he can't do that. Many smart baseball men figure that he is through now and it is quite certain that his salary will be cut in two this winter. His $32,000 a year contract has another year to run, but those baseball contracts are no protection to a player. The Babe was given to understand shortly after he left the hospital in the spring that his superiors felt that he was responsible for his own condition and that his loose way of living had wrecked himself and wrecked the club. He was told that he wasn't even a $5,000 ball player and if he didn't get hold of himself he would be paid in the future just what he was worth.

He had a temporary spell of serious thinking and told his friends no more that he was going to spend the winter in the New Brunswick woods and that he would come back next spring in perfect condition. It is doubtful that he can ever get himself into perfect condition, and it is quite certain that he never will be the hitter that he once was. Players on the team have expressed the opinion that his poor batting this season has been the result of eye trouble, and one of them told a friend he would be willing to bet that the Babe would not be able to play at all next year. In this crisis an outlook for the Babe is not good. He must have passed at least $500,000 through his hands in the last five years. The only labor involved in attending to his finances was in finding the time and the place to spend it. It is a good bet now that he hasn't a cent but his A. V. H. Shear and Co. W. Stagg, C.M.S.C., the "C" class sponsor.

This shield has been won the last two years by the Moncton R. A., and should they win it again this year the Shield will become their property. The competition is expected to be very keen, as at this time of the year most men are at the top of their form for the season.

MGR. CAMPBELL IS GIVEN LAMP BY SAINT JOHNS

Popular Baseball Leader Given Big Surprise By His Associates

HAD the executive of the City Senior League, which wound up the 1925 season with a banquet recently, gathered around the board to distribute the trophies for the season in an even-handed manner, the members could hardly have done better than did the cold averages of the year. The Watermen took the Sporting Life trophy through Charlie Gorman as the most valuable player; the St. John the Baptists grabbed off the Wigmore Cup by "Bunker" Murphy's pitching; Earl Nelson nabbed the Admiral Beatty cup for hitting; and Paul Fraser "stole" his way to the Chrysler cup for the Trojans. But there remained one more item, the Saint Johns, which did not figure in the official list. But Manager "Tommy" Campbell overcame that and had one of the finest trophies of the night, a handsome gold watch, presented to Tim Lenihan, his leading hitter.

GIVEN LAMP The sequel to this sportsmanlike action occurred last evening at Manager Campbell's home in Duke street when every member of the Saint Johns and many of their friends invaded the Campbell homestead and before the large and happy gathering, Victor Markham presented Mr. and Mrs. Campbell a handsome floor lamp in token of their appreciation of his services during the year. "Tommy" managed to phrase his thanks and the evening they were pleasantly spent in games and dancing. Refreshments later were served by Mrs. Campbell, assisted by Miss Larter.

C. H. COCHRANE HEADS KEYES IS WINNER INTERMEDIATE LEAGUE

Development of rugby football as the leading fall pastime in sports in this city took another step forward last evening when a strong intermediate league was organized, composed of four teams, Orioles, Martellos, Canucks and Wanderers. The majority of the young men on these teams come from West Saint John and Fairville, but the league hopes to be able to secure the Allison grounds for the games in addition to using the field in Sand Cove, where most of the league matches were played last year. This league was started two years ago and under considerable difficulties and handicaps it has carried on until now. It faces the best season it has experienced. If this league maintains its place, inside a very short time, Saint John will have a first class senior football league in operation every fall. Last year the league was won by Canucks and going with the title was a cup donated by Commissioner Harding. This cup must be won three times in succession by one team to enjoy permanent ownership. Matters in respect to the league were discussed last evening, and it was decided to call another meeting to draw up a schedule.

The following officers were elected last evening: Hon. president, Commissioner W. L. Harding; president, C. H. Cochrane; first vice-president, John J. Dunlop; second vice-president, R. H. Bennett; secretary-treasurer, George W. Green; members of the executive, A. Perry, J. Gary, F. Fritz and G. Green.

NEW YORK HAS NOW CUT LEAD TO SIX GAMES

Rain Robbed Pittsburg Of Win Over Brooklyn Yesterday

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—World series preparations in Pittsburg went steadily forward today in spite of the ailing of the Pirates' advance to six games over the Giants, and the menace of other eastern teams now making their last swing through the west. McKeehin's club opened with a blast of hits against the Robins yesterday to balance their alarming slump of last week, only to be denied a victory by rain. The Pirates had piled up a six to nothing score in three innings.

Meanwhile the Giants slipped half a game from the margin of the National League leaders. Allowing five hits, Kent Greenfield gave the Reds but a single run, while the Giants were gathering five tallies off Rixey.

The outlook of the leading Senators in the American League continues favorable. Yesterday the champions balanced a Philadelphia triumph over the receding White Sox by nosing out the Tigers 5 to 8. The defeats of Detroit and Chicago, enabled the St. Louis Browns to tighten their hold on third place in the American League by shading the Red Sox with a two run ninth inning rally. St. Louis Nationals lost ground to the Phillies in the fourth place fight of the senior league by tossing off a game to the Phillies, 4 to 2.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—The world's series will open Wednesday, October 7, in the city that wins the National League pennant, it was announced yesterday after a conference of leading club officials of both leagues with Commissioner Judge Landis here.

Those attending the conference with Commissioner Landis were: Leslie M. O'Connor, secretary; Sam Wattens, secretary, Pirates; Clark Griffith, Senators; Edward Eynon, secretary, Senators; Barney Dreyfuss, president, Pirates; Tom Shibe, president, Athletics; James Toney, secretary, Giants.

Two games will be played in the National League park, after which the contenders will move to a three game stand on the American League diamond, it was announced. If a sixth or seventh game is necessary for a decision, they will be played at the National League park.

The series will be played through with no intervening days of rest. If a game is postponed because of rain or other cause, the teams will remain at that park and the subsequent games will be moved back to accommodate the delay. The starting time of the games will be 2 p. m.

The games will be played off, if necessary, at the original park, after the series has been completed.

Prices of seats will be the same as in former years.
