THE PAQUIN SKIRT

The most formidable rival of the Russian tunic skirt is the Paquin skirt.
A pleasing version of the new model is featured here. It looks well in Delhi silk in either plain or figured design, having a waist trimmed with lace or a contrasting material.

Five yards of 28-inch material will be needed for the dress, with 1 yard of 40-inch all-over lace for the upper part of the waist.

The foundation is a three-piece model, and this is made first by taking up a dart in the gore as perforated; then join gares as notched. Close back seam from large "O" perforation to lower edge; slash edges above for placket. Turn inverted pleat at center-back, creasing on slot perforations; bring folded edge to center-back seam; stitch from upper edge to small "o" perforation and press; tack lower edge of pleat to position. Pleat lower edge at side seam, bringing "T" perforations to seam and tack.

Join source sections as notched, and sew to foundation. Leave left side seam of the tunic free above large "O" perforations, but join sections as notched.
Pleat near lower edge, bringing the two "T" perforations each side of seam over to the seam and tack. Gather upper edge between double "T" perforations. Arrange on foundation, center and side seams even; stitch upper edges together. Adjust a waisting or a straight strip of canvas 2 inches wide to position underneath upper edge of skirt for a stay; stitch upper edges together.

There are many fashionable forms of girdles to go with these dresses. Nothing is better than one of Raman silk, however.

SENATOR THORNE IS HOST TO THE GOLFERS

Senator W. H. Thorne entertained the members of the golf club at dinner last evening after a field day known as "Senator Thorne's day," when prizes were given by the senator for the winners in special competitions.

F. A. Peters, who won the Thorne cup a few days ago, was the winner of the first prize, a beautiful golf bag, which was presented by Sir Frederic Barker. P. S. Nisbet won the second prize presented by George McAvity. The third was won by F. W. Fraser and presented by Rev. E. B. Hooper.

Senator Thorne in a humorous speech presented the fourth, a sort of consolation prize, to C. F. Sanford. About fifty members of the club were present at the dinner and the senator made a fine speech, in which he told of the foundation of the club and its early members.
Speeches were also made by Sir Frederic Barker, George McAvity and President J. U. Thomas. At the conclusion Mr.
Thomas, after most pleasing references to the senator, asked Judge Barker to propose the health of the host, which he did with much warmth and in happy phrases. Senator Thorne spoke at some length in reply, and he never was heard to better advantage. He was given three times three with rare vigor, and Aid Lang Syne and the National Anthem closed the proceedings. "Senator Thorne's day" will go down upon the records as history.

come very cold.

HOUSEHOLD HELPS

A quick way to clean currants when making cakes is to put the fruit into a colander with a sprinkling of flour, and rub it round a few times with your hand. It is surprising how quickly the stalks are separated and come through the small holes.

If an iron is allowed to get red-hot it will never retain the heat as well again. The flat-iron is badly abused if allowed to stand on the range and in a dusty place. Irons should be put away to cool as soon as done with, and then kept in a cool place away from dust till wanted again.

When washing and rinsing colored materials add a tea-spoonful of Epson salts to each gallon of water, and even the most delicate shades will neither fade nor run. Serge or merino dresses, which have been dyed black, can be safely washed in this way without any risk of the dye running.

CAROLINE COE'S TESTED RECIPES

Baked Onions

Select onions even in size. Cover with salted water and simmer 30 minutes without removing outside skin. When ready to bake carefully remove the thin skin, place onions close together in baking dish. Add 2 tablespoons of butter for 16 onions—and bake until tender.
Baste often with melted butter. Onions must be thoroughly done, but should not lose their shape. Serve with fried rice ball.
