

RECENT DEATHS

Joseph E. Hawker.
The death of Joseph E. Hawker, son of William and the late Loveday T. Hawker, occurred suddenly at his summer home in Bayswater last evening. Mr. Hawker had gone to spend a few days at Bayswater on Tuesday morning. In the evening he suffered an attack of intestinal indigestion and his illness which terminated fatally last evening was of only a day's duration. Mr. Hawker for the last eight years has been associated in the drug business of W. Hawker & Son, Prince William street. He is survived by his wife and four children, his father, three brothers and four sisters. Mr. Hawker's mother died only a short time ago.

Mr. Hawker had a host of friends. Of a kindly, genial nature, he was very popular. The well-known business house in Prince William street, where he spent so much of his time, will not seem the same without him. A wide circle of friends will tender sincere sympathy to the family in their bereavement.

LITTLE ONES DEAD.

Sympathy will be extended to Mr. and Mrs. William Leitch in the loss of their infant son, John J., which occurred yesterday at the age of ten months. The funeral was held this afternoon.

GARDEN PARTIES.

The garden party held yesterday afternoon and evening on St. Peter's baseball park by the members of the Street Railwaymen's Union, No. 663 was a success. It was held under the direction of Percy Moore, assisted by C. Maxwell, S. Freese, E. Hunt, I. Harris and T. Trotter. It was announced that drawing for prizes will be held at a later date.

A very successful social was held on the grounds in front of the residence of Robert Tyner, 111 Broad street.

PAINFUL DIARRHOEA

CRAMPS IN STOMACH

Mr. Fred Funston, Craik, Sask., writes: "A year ago last harvest I was taken with a sudden attack of diarrhoea which completely laid me out, and in a few hours I had to quit work. The cramps in my stomach were dreadful, the beads of perspiration would stand out on my face at times I was in such great distress. At last I got a chance to send to town for a couple of bottles of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. I used it according to the way I felt and soon obtained a great change for the better, for which I was very thankful. I don't know what the cause of my sickness was except the extreme heat and the active work of stooking the wheat."

Several of my neighbors were taken the same as myself and had the doctor attend them, but they didn't get any great relief until I advised them to use "Dr. Fowler's," when they soon experienced a great change.

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry has been on the market for the past 76 years and many cheap imitations are being offered to the public.

Be sure and get the genuine put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. Price, 50c. a bottle.

yesterday afternoon and evening, under the auspices of the Carmanthorpe street Methodist church. The affair was under the direction of the following committee: Walter Brindle, J. Mercer, R. Tyner, Percy Gibbons, Harry McKim, Miss Stella Earle, Miss L. Murray, Miss Gladys Mills, Miss Margaret Marshall, Miss Myrtle Fox.

The Women's Missionary Society and the World Wide Circle of the Victoria street Baptist church held a garden party on Green's Millie ground, Millidge avenue, yesterday afternoon and evening, and a gratifying sum was realized.

Mrs. H. Stockford was general convener, assisted by Mrs. H. C. Hunter, Mrs. McLaughlin, Mrs. George Burke, Mrs. Jane Flewelling, Mrs. J. Colwell, Mrs. Kelley, Miss Ethel Hudson, Miss Akery.

THE EXHIBITION.

At a meeting of the executive of the Exhibition Association yesterday afternoon, with E. J. Terry in the chair, it was announced that everything was well in hand in preparation for the fair. It is expected that the live stock show this year will be the largest ever held in the city. H. A. Porter, manager, said that the electrical displays were being put in place and that the performing balloonist was making ready for his feats. An accident occurred yesterday afternoon on the grounds, when a large plate-glass front in connection with the salmon exhibit was smashed and the dairy building deluged by the overflow. A drain was at once made, and the plate glass will be restored in time for the opening of the fair on Saturday.

EASY TO BUY DRUGS IN LONDON

Methods Disclosed by Ex-Detective Who Resigned as a Protest Against Inadequacy of Law.

London, July 12—(By Mail)—The use of drugs in London is reaching appalling dimensions, according to The London Daily Express. "Do the authorities realize how tight is the hold of the 'dope fiends' on the city?" it asks.

An ex-detective of the Criminal Investigation Department, whose resignation from that body was largely due to his belief that under existing legislation attempts at prevention had little or no chance of coping with the evil, thinks not.

"The appalling fact is that London is the 'dope fiends' paradise," he said to a Daily Express representative. "No other great capital in Europe or America affords such a degree of immunity to the super-criminals who are behind this ghastly traffic. Prosecutions under the existing state of affairs do not come anywhere near the root of the evil. They merely have the effect of temporarily removing from active operations a few men who can only too easily be replaced."

"Supplies of the insidious drug are obtained mostly from abroad, generally being stolen by agents of the central organization. I recollect one case in which I was concerned, in association with the French authorities, when we prevented in the nick of time, an extraordinarily well planned attempt to steal $25,000 worth of cocaine."

"The astuteness of the criminals is shown particularly in the way in which they smuggle the drug from the Continent into London. Once here the retailing is carried on in a way which, to the mind of a detective versed in the traditions of American or Continental police work, must appear absolutely brazen."

"There are cafes in the West End where you can be perfectly certain of obtaining cocaine, at a price, with little fear of detection. There are also private houses in the same area where, by giving certain signs and countersigns, you can buy as much as you wish. The traffickers in the drugs are so confident that they will usually accept your mere assurance that you are 'on the straight' and will not inform."

"More power should be given to the police."

"It is easier to 'get away' with a cocaine deal in London than it is to buy a cup of whiskey in the United States."

"I have never in all my experience as a C. I. D. man seen anything, especially in the cases of young girls, to compare with the appalling state of affairs now existing in London."
