Two Norwegian Barks Wrecked, and There is Little Chance of Saving the Crew of Them.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., Nov. 7.—A Norwegian bark supposed to be on her way to Campbellton, N. B., is ashore at Black Bush, on the north side of the island, about fifteen miles west of East Point. She is supposed to be a total wreck, but no particulars have yet been received.
Another Norwegian bark is ashore between Priest Pond and Black Bush. She is loaded with deals. The bark has broken in two. There are men on both sections with poor prospects of their lives being saved at present.
That makes two Norwegian barks ashore between Priest Pond and Black Bush. The second one went on last evening at ten o'clock. Your correspondent cannot get the names at present. One man who was landed can't speak English. Lloyd's agent is wiring the marine department to send a steamer to give assistance to the wrecks. One of the vessels is the "Oiga". She is not broken up and the crew will probably be safe.

A Lot of Reports Read and Discussed—Missionary for Lumbermen—Women in Jail.

FREDERICTON, Nov. 7.—This morning's session of the Provincial W. C. T. U. convention opened with a prayer by Mrs. Troy, Mrs. Strang and Mrs. Poole, delegates from P. E. Island were introduced and gave reports of the convention. It was resolved to appoint five delegates to meet with the Temperance Federation.
Mrs. Burt read the report upon scientific temperance instruction. Mrs. Bullock read the report on Sunday school work and in the discussion which followed the Ontario W. C. T. U. quarterly lesson leaf was very highly recommended for use in the Sunday schools. Mr. Gilman, the auditor, reported the treasurer's accounts correct. Mrs. Day read the report on peace and arbitration and the discussion was taken up by Miss Mahan of King City, Mo. Mrs. Sampson gave the report of work for the lumbermen and raftmen sent by Mrs. Shaw the superintendent.
A letter was read from a man at one of the camps expressing the appreciation of the men of the work in their behalf. It was resolved that the superintendent of the department engage a missionary, the arrangements to be made by the finance committee.
The subject of Mrs. Frazer's Bible reading was love, and the noontide prayer was offered by Mrs. Seymour.
Mrs. Asker read a communication from Mrs. McLeod on the case brought up in the courts in Newcastle concerning obscene literature. It was resolved that a letter be sent the Newcastle union expressing the sympathy of the convention and commending the action taken by them in the matter. It was resolved that owing to certain facts the ground that he has demanded the convention regarding the treatment of women in the police courts the plan of work at the Temperance Federation affiliate with the Temperance Federation of New Brunswick.

BREACH OF PROMISE SUIT WILL NOT BE APPEALED

Verdict for the Aged Defendant Must Now Stand—Case Was Not Entered at Present Term.

The famous breach of promise case of Gibson vs. Rowley will not come before the courts again.
It will be remembered that Miss Ethyl Grace Gibson, of Baywater, aged 23, some time ago took action against Capt. George Rowley, an octogenarian of Charlottetown, for damages on the ground that he had agreed to marry her and had failed to do so.
The case was tried before Judge McLeod at the June term of the supreme court in this city and a verdict was entered for the defendant. Mr. Gibson, father of the plaintiff in the action, announced later his determination to appeal the case, as he understood his daughter would not be re-admitted to the hospital in which she was training until her position in this action was more fully justified. The appeal should have been entered on the docket of the court now in session at Fredericton. As this has not been done the decision is beyond impeachment, and Judge McLeod's verdict stands.

NO SIGN OF LIFE
ON BARK ADEONA
Signals Have Not Been Answered
Since Monday

And the Fate of the Crew Is Unknown—
Amid Wintry Storm Crowds Search the Beach for Bodies.

RICHIBUCTO, N. B., Nov. 7.—The fate of the crew of the wrecked Bark Adeona, is still unknown. This morning boats are making another attempt to reach the wreck.
Light keeper Richard reported that the distress signal flying from the bark was hoisted on Monday before the boat left the vessel. Since then no signs of life have been seen aboard the wreck.
The brigantine "Lady Napier" anchored inside the beach answering the distress signal of Monday but received no reply. Signals have been sent up from the brigantine several times since, but there is no response from the wreck.
Crowds of people are searching the beaches for more bodies. This morning, with snow falling, the search was moderated some. The "Lady Napier" returned to Richibucto this morning and report no signs of life on the vessel. All hope is gone of saving any of the fourteen men composing the crew. The sea is swamping in over the wreck in terrific avalanches and it is useless attempting to launch a boat from the shore. All efforts have failed to secure a lifeboat and it is felt to be too late now. Any bodies are reported as coming ashore.

LOOSENESS SHOWN BY BOARD OF HEALTH

Dead People Summoned to

For Not Taking Out Milk Licenses—Enquiry as to a Cow That Was Killed Long Ago.

Yesterday 119 licenses had been granted to milkmen who have complied with the regulation of keeping the milk in earthenware jars, and eleven vendors who had been reported by the Board of Health inspectors and who had not taken out licenses were to have appeared before Magistrate Ritchie. There was only one of the reported in court and that was Joseph Albert, who with a mixture of broken English and other languages informed the court that the people who reported him had little to do. He only kept a cow for milk purposes, and while the cow was alive and being kept, until necessary to kill, he milked her, just to get enough milk for a few cups of tea. When the neighbors could not get milk in his stores they came to him and were accommodated. He had no cow at present and the last one he had is about eaten up by this time. He was excused and as he persisted in talking was told he was doing an unnecessary lot of work.
The names of the persons reported to the Board of Health were handed into the police court and the duties of notifying the offenders was left to the policeman. One case in particular was most peculiar. A police officer was instructed to notify a Mrs. Campbell at 51 Adelaide street. The blue coat left word at the house, and the next day Miss Campbell, who resides at that number, called the central stationer and telephoned and inquired why she should be summoned to court. On enquiry she was told it was not she that was wanted but Mrs. Sarah Campbell, who was reported by the Board of Health. Miss Campbell was naturally indignant when she informed the police headquarters that Mrs. Sarah Campbell was her deceased sister-in-law who had been dead over a year and a half, and while alive had never owned a cow.
It is needless to say that the name was struck off the list and apologies were in order. How the name could have been reported is unknown to the innocent policeman who left the word at the Adelaide street home and who is in no way to blame.

MONCTON ALDERMAN WANTS
CIVIC BUSINESS INVESTIGATED

Seeks Legislation for an Enquiry Under Oath Whenever Demanded—Mr. Fleetwood Dead—A Criminal Assault Case.

MONCTON, N. B., Nov. 7.—Criticisms of the manner in which the city council handles civic business, and the actions of certain city officials, culminated at a meeting of the council held last night in the introduction of a resolution that the legislative committee be instructed to have legislation prepared and presented to the next session of the legislature authorizing a full and complete investigation, under oath, into all matters relating to the administration of civic affairs, including all departments before the police magistrate of the city, upon application of any ratepayers, with full power to the police magistrate to subpoena and enforce the attendance of witnesses and to hold the same in an oral examination of the opposite party.
During the session there were many condemnatory expressions of the manner that the council's working.
Ald. Edgett said the business was conducted in a scandalous way and that an injunction ought to be placed in the court.
Ald. Welch said that the laws were not complied with and that the pro-

The suggestion made through the Star yesterday by a number of leading citizens regarding the formation of a 75,000 club for St. John has aroused widespread interest, and on all sides opinions are expressed in support of such a scheme. It has been suggested that those men who were the guests of Mr. Downie at the Union Club should be asked to take an active part in the organization when it is started, and there is little doubt but that these citizens will be pleased to do all in their power.
The Star has interviewed a number of men of all classes, and has not yet met one who is inclined to throw cold water on the scheme. A good many were surprised that such a movement had not been undertaken before, others who did not care to express their opinions just yet promised to do so when they looked further into the working of such clubs in other towns.
Last evening, communications were sent to the mayors of Vancouver, Nelson and Calgary asking for details of the institution, methods of working and results to date of the clubs which have been organized in those cities. Answers will likely be received within a week and by that time it may be that the scheme will be sufficiently advanced to warrant the calling of a public meeting as has been advised by the mayors of Vancouver, Nelson and Calgary.

ceedings were of a farcical nature, especially so in regard to reports of committees.
The assessment system of the city was referred to as absurd and it was stated that professional men with large and lucrative incomes are assessed on four or five hundred dollars.
All aldermen were of the opinion that it was time for reformation in the manner of conducting civic business.
A communication was read from W. A. Russell, of Shediac, stating that he had been retained by A. W. Holmes to bring an action against the city of Moncton for unlawful imprisonment in the city lockup. He claimed not less than $100 damages. Proceedings would be commenced at once unless the matter was settled.
James Babkirik, of Sussex, gave the police officers at Moncton a quite severe tussle before he was arrested last night. He was drunk on the midnight express from St. John and was disturbing other passengers. No one appeared to prosecute this morning and he was freed for drunkenness.

YOUNG DINGEE HAS BEEN AT IT BEFORE

Admits Having Entered
Vaughan's Grocery Store,
Was Traced by a Mitten—Magistrate
Advises Parents to Keep Children in Their Home!

With tears streaming down her face the mother of little Charles Dingee today sobbed to the court that "I never knew that Charlie was a bad boy before."
Charlie is only a little tot. He will be nine years of age on the 25th of this month, and as he stood before the judge and alongside of his weeping mother his lip quivered and he burst into tears. Although young and looking very small for his age, little Charlie was dealing the past couple of weeks been taking a risk in house breaking at night that many an able-bodied burglar would shrink from.
The Star yesterday announced where young Dingee had been taken from school and arrested by Policeman Greer on the charge of breaking into Thomas Brozman's store on Monday night and stealing about $12. When arrested the young fellow acknowledged that he had stolen the money and took the policeman to the place where he had hidden it.
In the police court today Charlie was the only prisoner, and with his swollen eyes and pitiable sob he showed that he felt penitent for the time. He was fined by quite a gathering of spectators, but his actions for the past couple of weeks were much against him. Mr. Brozman testified that he left his store on Main street about nine o'clock Monday night, and as some repairs were being made a board was placed against a back window. On Tuesday morning when he returned to the store he was surprised to find the board removed from the window and a lighted lamp sitting on the floor. A further investigation showed that the cash drawer had been opened and about $12 stolen and that not being satisfied with that the burglar had broken a meat axe upon many smashing parts of the safe. He reported the matter to the police and after some few hours work, Policeman Greer arrested Young Dingee.
Policeman Greer told of the arrest and the boy's confession. He also said that on the night of October 26th, 28th and 29th the store of Samuel P. Vaughan, an 128 Adelaide street, had been entered and a quantity of gum and candy stolen. The thief had dropped a black mitten in the store, and with this as a clue the policeman managed to find the mate to the mitten in young Dingee's home. The mittens were returned to the boy's mother this morning, and the money, which was a couple of dollars short, returned to Mr. Brozman.
The magistrate spoke for some length on how a boy should be looked after. The child of today is given too much of his own way. He is allowed to stay out when he should be in bed. If his parents do not give him money he must have it and will steal. Nearly all of the inmates of the reformatory are young fellows who have been allowed to stay out nights to attend the Opera House or York Theatre. The places of amusement are all right and the plays probably good, but it is late at night when they are going home. A back window or door is tempting, they enter, steal and finally land in the reformatory. It is then that the parents say they did not know the boy was out, or that he was selling papers, etc. The place for the small boy at night is in bed after he studies his lessons for school. His honor cited a recent case where on a recent night about 11:20 o'clock, while returning home from posting a letter, he found a small boy curling up in a doorway to spend the night. The boys should not be on the street at night.
The Dingee boy was remanded to jail until the magistrate decides what sentence shall be imposed.
