It is only natural that some one must take his place and attempt to defend the title against all comers.

However, the two are now matched to fight for the title at Los Angeles on Thanksgiving Day, and the winner will be hailed as the champion without a doubt.

It will then be up to Al Kaufman, who recently defeated Sam Berger in a fierce battle at San Francisco, to challenge the winner.

Fans in the middle West remember Tommy Burns as a star fighter and middleweight, and cannot make themselves believe that he is a big heavyweight now.

HOCKEY.

The executive of the Marathon A. C. held a meeting on Saturday afternoon.

The letter from the Sackville Athletic Club was read, and the secretary was instructed to write to Sackville stating that the matters mentioned in the letter would be referred to the members of the club at its next meeting.

He was further instructed to state that the Marathons would continue to be a strictly amateur association, and that any of the probable players for the local team had been or still are professionals they would be immediately dropped out.

The names of several applicants for admission to the club were received and will be passed on at the next meeting of the club, which will be held early in December.

As December will be a very busy month the monthly meetings for November and December will be combined.

Regarding winter sports it now seems most probable that a rink will be secured by the club and a strong team will be put into the league. It is very likely that a league will be formed as well.

No further word has been received by the marine department of the drifting whaler in the Bay of Fundy, before reported. Agent Harding sent the government steamer out again Saturday morning to search for the dangerous object. Every effort is being made to locate it. Masters of vessels coming or going are requested to report to the department here if they should sight the whaler in the bay.

At the Sunday night meeting of the Seaman's Mission Society a large number of men from the winter port vessels were present. Mr. D. Coll presented Mr. Harrington's subject was Success and Failure. He gave a detailed and interesting account of the difference between the success and failure of a man. On Saturday evening there was also a large attendance of sailors and seamen. A barrel of Gravett's apples kindly donated by a prominent business man helped the sailor lads to enjoy their selves.

A letter recently received from Manitoba informed us of the death from typhoid fever of John Cochran, who was a native of St. John. "Jack" as we called him, came to Newsway when we were stationed there, and became a member of the choir, and was deeply interested in the various departments of the church. After he left he married Miss Vera Harrison one of the fairest daughters of the town, prominent in every good work, and an excellent helper in the church. "Jack" was doing well in Winnipeg, when he was taken ill, and succumbed to the disease. He was buried in Newsway, Man. A manly fellow he was, beloved by everybody, and his passing is a great loss.—Wesleyan.
